STRIKERS ARRESTED

HOMESTEAD MEN ACCUSED OF MURDER BY SECRETARY LOVEJOY.

Burgess McLuckie the first man arrested. The Union Now Proposes to Retain and Have Carnegie, Frick and Others Arrested for Murder and Treason.

Pittsburg, July 19.—John McLuckie, burgess or chief municipal officer of Homestead, is confined in one of the cells of the county jail. Telegrams are being sent to a dozen points between here and New York seeking the aid of the police authorities for the arrest of Hugh O'Donnell, the leader of the strikers, and warrants are in the hands of officers of the law for seven other prominent participants in the troubles at Homestead, and who are but the vanguard of a small army of strikers that it is proposed to bring before the bar of the law.

The intention of the Carnegie company to institute criminal proceedings against the Homestead leaders in the event of the county authorities failing to take cognizance of the recent riot was carried into effect much quicker than had been anticipated, or than the authorities at the executive office, who feared the effect of a premature publication of their intentions, were willing to intimate. The preliminary stages of the proceedings were conducted with considerable secrecy.

Secretary Lovejoy, of the Carnegie company, sauntered leisurely into the office of Alderman J. V. McMasters at Diamond and Grant streets. He was unaccompanied, and by a peculiar coincidence nobody but the officer was in the office at the time, the constables attached to the place being behind the closed doors of the anteroom. Secretary Lovejoy stated that he desired to lay information against a number of men, charging the crime of murder, and the alderman proceeded to draw up the papers.

Charged with Murder. The information set forth that in Millin township, in the county of Allegheny and state of Pennsylvania, on July 6, the defendants did, of their own malice aforethought, feloniously and riotously, with force of arms and deadly weapons, kill and murder T. J. Connors, a Pinkerton watchman, and Silas Wayne, a worker at the mills, and that this information was made upon information received and believed to be true by the deponent, who therefore prayed that warrants might issue and that the men to be named might be arrested and held on the charge of murder.

When this document had been drawn up the alderman suggested that it would be better to have two informations, one relating to the killing of Connors and the other to that of Wayne, and a second paper was accordingly made out. Secretary Lovejoy then named as the men accused Hugh O'Donnell, John McLuckie, Sylvester Critchlow, Anthony Flaherty, Samuel Burkett, James Flannigan and Hugh Ross. In one information the name of O'Donnell stood first, while in the other it stood second. When the papers had been completed Secretary Lovejoy listened to the reading of the oath, kissed the Bible, appended his signature to the informations, buttoned his sack coat, shook hands with the justice and sauntered out of the office as leisurely and to all outward appearances as free from care and anxiety as he had entered a half hour before.

McLuckie Locked Up. No time was lost by Magistrate McMasters in making out the fourteen warrants, and they were intrusted to Constables Joseph Weber, John Morris and Mike J. Price, who at once left for Homestead. On their arrival they made known their business to General Snowden, who referred them to Colonel Green, in command of the provost guard. The latter detailed two companies of soldiers to accompany the constables and the latter proceeded to arrest all the men wanted, but without result. Not one of them was at home and most of the residences were locked.

When the officers returned to this city they were surprised to find that Burgess McLuckie had gotten out of town while they were searching for him and had already surrendered himself to the alderman. He was in the office in company with Attorney Brennan, and several friends. The warrant was served upon him, and to the magistrate he said that he had already sent word to the other men who were wanted to come back into town and surrender. Alderman McMasters committed the burgess to the county jail without bail pending a preliminary examination on Friday.

NONUNION MEN AT WORK.

About 175 Men Believed to Be in the Armor Plate Mills.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., July 20.—For the first time since the present lockout began the Carnegie company made a pretense of starting its mills here. It was something of a surprise to Homestead people to see smoke issuing from the armor plate mills, but they were still more surprised at noon when the big whistle was blown for dinner hour. The full power of the whistle was not put in operation, but the people recognized the oldtime sound, and many of them looked down toward the entrance to the works to see if gangs of workmen were not pouring out on their several ways to dinner. But none came.

There were workmen inside the works, however, and they were pursuing their duties in a businesslike manner, seemingly without thought that an armed guard was necessary to protect them. These men were brought out to the works secretly by the company within the past week. They came a few at a time until yesterday, when the company succeeded in getting in a number of workers sufficient to guarantee the starting up of the armor plate mills. The company is believed to have about 175 men at work in the armor plate mills, among these are five steelworkers believed to have been brought from the works of the company at Braddock.

Mr. Brennan, the attorney of the Amalgamated association, has advised the association officials to communicate with the state department with a view to securing the arrest in Scotland and extradition from that country of Mr. Andrew Carnegie. Mr. Brennan is of the opinion that Mr. Carnegie can be held on the charge of treason in maintaining a force of unauthorized armed men without the legal or constitutional right to do so, and if a warrant in his case is granted a strong effort will be made to have him brought to this country for trial.

Governor Pattison, who quietly came into town, inspected all of the Second brigade that is stationed on this side of the river. He expressed himself as very much pleased with the appearance of the troops. He was the guest at supper last evening of the City troop of Philadelphia. Today he will inspect the Third Brigade.

OUTSIDE POLITICS.

Democratic County and Legislative Candidates in Schuylkill.

Schuylkill Democrats assembled on Monday and nominated their ticket. The judgeship contest was where the main fight centered. The names presented were those of Hon. Cyrus L. Pershing and Hon. John W. Ryan. The ballot taken, resulted in 51224 votes for Pershing and 34727 for Ryan. Judge Pershing's nomination was made unanimous. For congress, Hon. James B. Reilly completely snored under W. F. Shepperd by a vote of 6940 to 1656. The other nominations were James W. Ryan, of Pottsville, for district attorney; William Derr, of Shenandoah, for director of the poor, and Dr. Marshall, of Ashland, for coroner. The platform reaffirmed the principles of the one adopted at the national convention.

The Democratic legislative conventions, held at Gilberton, Ashland, Tamagua and Tremont on Tuesday resulted in the nomination of John B. Reilly, of Shenandoah, to represent the first district; John X. Dentz, the second, and Warren F. Folweiler, the third. The fourth legislative convention nominated P. F. Bauer, Schuylkill Haven; George Opie Donaldson and William J. Kennedy of Pottsville. The twenty-ninth senatorial district convention nominated O. J. Aregood, of Pottsville, for senator.

The Republicans of Carbon decided to hold their convention on Monday, August 8, and are confident of electing their ticket, as the Democrats are still divided into two factions and have little prospect of coming together.

Boys Arrested for Annoying Workmen.

For the past few weeks the foreman of the stripping at Highland has been greatly annoyed by a number of freeboys who were doing all kinds of mischief in general and making life miserable for him and his men. Their principal amusement, however, was throwing stones at the horses and drivers that haul the stripping clay. On Monday the foreman could stand it no longer and he had two of them arrested. Policeman Seiwel brought the boys before Squire Strach on Tuesday evening, when they were given a hearing and after paying a fine of $4.50 each they were allowed to go.

Looking for Dates.

John Smith, of Lattimer, advance agent for the "Tried and True" Comedy Company, of Harleigh, was in town last evening looking up dates for his company. This company made its appearance in public quite often and the play was well liked. John J. Gough, of Hazleton, is its manager, and if a date can be had the company will be billed for Freeland early in the season.

The Firemen's Picnic.

The picnic to be held by the Citizens' Hose Company at Glen Onoko on August 20 will continue until 11 o'clock that evening, the time for the last excursion train to return to Freeland. Excursionists who do not wish to remain until that hour may return upon any regular train in the afternoon. On the evening of August 19 the firemen will hold a street parade.

Billy Jones to Fight.

Lewis Landmesser, of West Hazleton, and Billy Jones, of Freeland, better known as "Strong Boy," will meet at Hazleton to-night to make arrangements for a fight to a finish, with or without gloves. If talk comes for anything both men are in dead earnest and it is likely a match will be made.

Elected Delegates.

St. Ann's Pioneer Corps has elected the following delegates to attend the quarterly convention of the C. O. A. U. of the third district, at Hazleton, next month: Frank McLaughlin, J. B. Hanlon, Jas. P. McNelis, Thomas J. Boyle and Edward Gallagher.

Announcement of Coming Events.

Excursion of Owana Council, No. 47, Degree of Pochontas, I. O. R. M., Luzerne Grove, July 23.
Picnic of St. Patrick's Beneficial Society, Driffton Park, July 30.
Picnic of Parishioners of Eckley Catholic Church, Eckley Grove, August 13.
Excursion of Freeland Citizens' Hose Co., Glen Onoko, August 20.

Pointers for Bar Room Beats.

A bummer went into a saloon the other day and proposed to the proprietor to "put up" his umbrella for a drink. It was furnished, and the bum then opened and shut his umbrella, thus leaving the saloon keeper dumfounded. Of course the saloon keeper couldn't go back on his agreement, but in the future will not get caught in that way.—Ashley Observer.

This fellow must be a partner to the rouser who worked the "stamp act" on a Catawissa landlord. This bum walked into the hotel and asked the bartender if he would take stamps for a drink. "Certainly," said the barkeeper, as he sat out the bottle, supposing the fellow meant postage stamps. The tramp downed about six fingers of the liquid, and after he had put out the fire with a big drink of water, solemnly gave five resounding stamps upon the floor with his foot and walked out. It was half an hour before the bartender spoke, and then it sounded something like "Ibedam."—Catawissa Item.

FREELAND PUBLIC PARK.

THE BOROUGH GROUNDS GIVEN THAT NAME BY COUNCIL.

Proceedings of the Meeting Held on Monday Evening—Committee Appointed to Prepare an Ordinance Regulating Sewer Connection.

The borough council met on Monday evening, with Messrs. DePiero, Dooris, Rutter, Smith and Williamson present. After approving the minutes of the last meeting the following bills were ordered paid:

I. Refetching, removing ashes.....$ 6 50
James & Williams, concrete..... 56 43
Barthold & Rinker, building fences..... 55 10
A. B. Welch, labor on sidewalk..... 6 30
M. Halpin, repairs on tools..... 32 50
J. A. Hutchins & Co., sewer pipe..... 326 95
A. Donop team..... 7 00
Wm. Johnson..... 25 00

Street Commissioner Boyle presented his report for labor on the sewers. It amounted to $436.13, and was ordered paid. The question as to what name should be given to the land donated by Hon. Eckley B. Cox was discussed. At present the ground is known as Firemen's Park, and on motion of Frank DePiero and Dr. E. W. Rutter it was decided that henceforth it shall be called Freeland Public Park.

The street commissioner was instructed to continue the sewers on Ridge street north from Walnut to the borough line as soon as the section he is now working on is completed.

Messrs. Williamson, DePiero and Rutter were appointed to prepare an ordinance defining a certain time by which property owners can have free connection with the sewers, otherwise to pay for all connections after the time expires. They were requested to have it ready for the next meeting, and to offer suggestions or ordinances upon any other matters, such as sidewalks and the general improvement of the borough.

The stones obtained from the sewer excavations, such as are suitable for breaking on the streets, are to be removed to some place in the park until they can be used, and the surplus clay is to be disposed by the street commissioner to the best advantage.

High Constable Marley's resignation was taken up and accepted. There being no applications for the office of high constable and janitor the positions are still open for proposals.

A committee was appointed to confer with the property owners on the south side of Walnut street, from Washington to Pine, and see if their consent cannot be procured to donate enough ground for a sidewalk and the borough would put in concrete and gutters. The council then adjourned until August 1.

OFFICIALS' TROUBLES.

A Political Office Is Not a Secure in Some Places.

A petition was filed in the Schuylkill county court on Tuesday by several citizens of the school district of Cass township, making complaint that John Curran, Michael Brennan, Patrick Ryan, J. P. Donohue, Daniel Dugan and Patrick Brophy, who constituted the school board of the district, had neglected to perform their duties by the organization of the board as required by law. A rule was granted by court, returnable next Monday, to show cause why the seats of the members should not be declared vacated.

The auditors of the same county have had some difficulty in accounting for some of the receipts and expenditures of the commissioner's office and county for the year 1891, so Commissioners Bowes, Detrick and Reed and Chief Clerk Conell were summoned to testify what they knew regarding the expenditures made. The commissioners refused to make any statement, and were served with a capias writ. The outcome of the investigation is awaited with interest.

The farmers and citizens of Butler township came next and organized for better roads, and as a preliminary to the movement have caused the arrest of Supervisors Stitzler and Sweeney charging them with neglect of duty. A mass meeting has been called for tomorrow evening, when the subject will receive further consideration.

St. John's Hungarian Church.

The contract for building St. John's Hungarian Catholic church has been awarded to Lewis H. Lentz. The members of the congregation have been working diligently to secure the necessary funds for its completion before the winter season sets in, and thus far have been very successful. The dimensions are 36x64 feet and the interior of the edifice will be nicely fitted up. It will also have a fine basement which will be used for society meetings and Sunday school purposes.

PERSONALITIES.

Rev. Chas. Brown is on a month's visit to friends and relatives in Indiana, his former home.

Wm. J. DePue, of Hazleton, was among the many here on Tuesday.

Miss Frances Roberts, of Audenried, is visiting at the residence of Mrs. Ward, Washington Street.

Mrs. Patrick Ferry, of New York City, is visiting at the residence of Patrick McFadden.

J. T. Franklin, of Philadelphia, made a business trip here yesterday.

Mrs. John Coyle, of Lattimer, was visiting relatives here yesterday.

Peter McDevitt and wife, of Wilkes-Barre, have been among friends here the past few days.

T. A. McAndrew, of White Haven, who is well known in Freeland, has been promoted to the position of train dispatcher on the Upper Lehigh branch. As a railroad man "Mac" has but few equals and the position suits him admirably.

ANNEXATION SURE.

The Points and Bivronton Almost Ready to Knock for Admission.

Those who have allowed themselves to believe that the annexation project had taken another sleep are badly mistaken. As stated some time ago in the Tribune the Points is ready for the movement, although very little discussion of the subject is heard in that part of the town. A survey has been made and the map defining the territory to be annexed to the borough is now ready. It includes all the land south from South street, to a point a few yards south of the Lehigh Valley tracks; it extends eastward to the alley east of Adams street and westward to the alley west of Ridge street.

As considerable of this land is owned by Cox & Co., these are the limits which they would agree to, although the people who are pushing the matter are in favor of including the old Woodside blocks and the whole of Cox addition. It is not deemed advisable, however, to oppose the wishes of the Drifton operators, and the boundaries described above are regarded as sufficient at present.

The street commissioner was instructed to break away from debt-ridden Foster, and the property-owners there are almost unanimously in favor of having the borough limits extended in that direction. The day after the late fire at that place a petition was circulated and received many signatures. The work has been going on quietly since, and Surveyor Benner, of Conyngham, commenced this morning to make a survey of the district and will have a map of the same prepared in a short while. The petitions of that place and the Points will be presented in court at the September term, and that they will be granted there need be but little doubt.

It now rests with the residents of South Heberton whether they will allow their part of the town to remain in the old rut or whether they will step up, like the southern and western portions, and seek admission to the new and enlarged borough. There are a number of public spirited men there, and if a few of them take hold of the question the new and old parts of South Heberton and Alwintown can make their entrance in September with the Points and Bivronton. They have nothing to lose but much to gain by such a change, and if they don't like the new order of things, they can always go back to the old way of paying exorbitant taxes and receiving no return.

Saturday's Excursion.

The excursion train to Luzerne Grove on Saturday from Freeland will leave at 7:30 A. M. The fare for adults is $1.00, and for children, 60 cents, which is the cheapest rate the public has yet been offered to that point. The excursion is under the auspices of Owana Council, No. 47, Degree of Pochontas, I. O. R. M., and has every prospect of being largely attended. The Grove is a very pleasant spot to spend a day. All kinds of amusements are on the grounds, including boat swings, merry-go-rounds, a base ball diamond and one of the finest ball alleys in the county. DePiero's orchestra will accompany the excursion and furnish the dancing music.

The order from Wilkes-Barre and other towns in the upper end have notified Owana Council that they will be there and assist in making the day a pleasant one. The train will leave the Grove at 6 P. M. for Freeland.

Saloons Must Close at 10 P. M.

East Side, the little town on the Lehigh river opposite White Haven, became a borough recently, and one of its ordinances, as described by the Journal, will not tolerate late hours. The ordinance in question refers to bars and drinking places, and directs that they shall be closed each night at 10 o'clock. If they are found open after that time it is declared to be the duty of the constable, police and citizens to so inform the burgess, who shall issue a warrant for the arrest of the offenders, and if found guilty they will be fined $5 to $10 for the first offense, and $10 to $20 for each subsequent offense, one-half of which fine to go to the informer, and the balance to the borough.

Marshaling Postponed.

Attorney G. L. Halsey, of White Haven, who appeared before the court to marshal the indebtedness of Foster township, has postponed the date of the same until Saturday, July 30, owing to the absence of the township solicitor, C. F. McHugh, of Wilkes-Barre, who is doing duty as a member of the Ninth regiment at Homestead. Mr. Halsey states that it is not necessary for the claimants to have a township order. All that is required is to swear to their claims.

Must Stand Examination.

The engineers and firemen on the D. S. & S. will be subjected to a thorough test on or about August 19. Color blindness and practical railroading in all its details is the examination they will have to undergo.

Single Tax Conference.

At the request of the single tax clubs of Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Pottsville, Bradford, Germantown and Reading, a conference of the single tax men and women of Pennsylvania has been called to meet at Reading on Saturday, August 6. Any resident of Pennsylvania who believes in the single tax may attend this conference and take part in the proceedings.

Those who contemplate attending should forward their names to Charles S. Prizer, Reading, Pa. The railroad companies absolutely refused to make any reduced rates for the delegates and those who attend. The railroad men know the single tax would reduce their power and place them on an equal footing with other people, so they won't show any favors to the enemies of monopoly. The conference, however, will be largely attended, notwithstanding the petty spite shown by McLeod and his kind.

BRIEF ITEMS OF NEWS.

PARAGRAPHS GATHERED FROM ALL PARTS OF THE REGION.
