BRIEF ITEMS OF NEWS.

PARAGRAPHS GATHERED FROM ALL PARTS OF THE REGION.

Little Ones of Interest About People You Know and Things You Wish to Hear About—What the Folks of This and Other Towns Are Doing.

A valuable horse belonging to D. J. McCarthy died on Saturday evening.

A common cold should not be neglected. Downs' Elixir will cure it. Sold by Dr. Schilcher.

B. F. Davis sells all kinds of flour, feed, hay, chop, oats, rye, etc., at the very lowest market prices.

The parishioners of Eckley Catholic church will hold a picnic at the grove in that place on Saturday evening.

One of the houses in the Cox addition was struck by lightning on Friday morning, but no serious damage resulted.

A sixteen-year-old son of Franz Mackle, of Mauch Chunk, ex-surveyor of Freeland borough, died last week.

Arnica & Oil Liniment is very healing and soothing, and does wonders when applied to old sores. Sold by Dr. Schilcher.

It seems that everybody is going to Glen Onoko with the firemen on the 20th inst. It will be a big day beyond a doubt.

Manager B. F. Davis will open the Freeland opera house on Monday evening, August 22. The attraction will be Emerson's Minstrels.

The Freeland liquor men, who were arrested last week for violating the law, intend to make a strong defense when their cases come to trial.

If all reports are true at least two-thirds of the present members of the Ninth regiment will not re-enlist when their terms of service expire.

Vincent Passarella, who went to a Philadelphia hospital a few weeks ago for treatment of an abscess in the head, is reported very low. His wife was sent for and went down on Saturday.

Shamokin is making great preparations for the reception of the state encampment of the P. O. S. of A., which will meet there on August 23, 24 and 25. The fare from Freeland will be $1.80.

Charles Schwab is one of the inmates of Carbon county jail, charged with wife-beating. With him is his son, John, who was arrested for larceny, and another son, George, is keeping them company to answer a charge preferred by a girl.

Robert Avery, a Wilkes-Barre saloon man, has been sued for $5000 damages by the widow of John Curley. She bases her claim on the fact that Avery sold liquor to her husband while he was intoxicated and that Curley met with injuries which caused his death.

The motto of the proprietors of Dr Henry Baxter's Mandrake Bitters is, "the greatest good to the greatest number," and so sell a large bottle of a valuable remedy for the small price of 25 cents, and warrant every bottle to give satisfaction or money refunded. Sold by Dr. Schilcher.

Companies C and H, of the Ninth regiment, are preparing to hold an entertainment or something of the kind for the benefit of the Homestead locked-out men. The members of the military are no way backward in expressing their sympathy for the workmen, as they saw enough around Carnegie's mills to convince them which side is right.

FROM A FILIPPIAN PARAGRAPH.

Rev. H. A. I. Benner has been elected pastor of the Reformed Church at Freeland. He was pastor of a charge in Berks county, which it is said he resigned because there wasn't enough to do. If it is work he wants he can be accommodated at Freeland.—Mauch Chunk Times.

A Dangerous Place to Swim.

Several miraculous escapes from drowning have been reported from one of the caverns of the old Woodside slope, where a number of the young men and boys of Drifton and Freeland go in bathing. The cavern is very large and deep, and its treacherous sides should be enough to warn all but expert swimmers from venturing in, but the place is crowded every day. One young man became exhausted yesterday and had a narrow escape from drowning both himself and another who tried to rescue him. They were pulled out by a third companion.

A New Kind of a Cow.

The Oregonian, a newspaper printed on the Pacific coast, tells of a cow which would certainly be in great demand by some people here. The animal, it says, puzzles the medical fraternity by giving beer instead of milk. It seems that last summer the hop-picking Indians fed her on hops, and since then she has declined all other kind of food. The owner's milk customers now find that they are getting beer instead of milk, and one well known temperance man has shocked the susceptibilities of the community by arriving at morning service on Sunday in an intoxicated condition.

Rev. Henry A. I. Benner.

The following is a short biography of the newly elected pastor of St. John's Reformed congregation: Rev. Henry A. I. Benner, who has written a letter of acceptance in answer to the call extended him from this congregation, hails from Lehigh county, near Allentown, Pa. He is the fourth of a large family of T. W. Benner, a veteran organist and teacher, was born in New Hanover Township, Montgomery county, Pa., March 14, 1862. When four years old his school life began and though his parents were anything but rich he managed to stick to his books and at the age of sixteen he passed a very creditable examination under the county superintendent, receiving a certificate of 14. This was the means of getting a school, which was followed by other terms for eight years. In 1884 he graduated from the Kutztown state normal school and in 1886 resumed his studies there in the same institution in the scientific course; became principal of Emaus high school; then entered Ursinus college, Collegeville, and graduated there in 1889. While in college he joined the "Students' Alliance" movement for Foreign Missions," pledging himself to the foreign field, God willing. He entered the theological seminary of Ursinus college, completed the curriculum of Lehigh class on May 24, 1891. The same month he was elected and called to the pastorate of Hill charge, Berks county, where he was regularly ordained and installed pastor, and where he is at present serving. He hopes to finish his work there with the close of the summer season, when his class of catechumens are confirmed. His labors at Freeland will then engage his entire attention.

Rev. Benner is a tireless, persistent worker, the very embodiment of energy and zeal for the good of his constituents. His helpful wife and little daughter will be acquisitions to Freeland's best society.

The New Ballot Law.

The attention of our readers to-day is called to the new ballot law, which is printed on the second and fourth pages of this issue. It is something that even the most intelligent voters do not yet thoroughly understand, and it is to the interest of every citizen to make himself thoroughly conversant with its details, in order that he may not only be able to vote correctly but that he may be qualified to explain to others the most important changes from the methods heretofore used. The new law is not by any means what is known as the Australian system, although it is generally called by that name. It is a very poor imitation of a good secret ballot law, and is filled with several suspicious holes, but it is as good as could be expected from the party that had control of the legislature when it passed. Still, whether good or bad it is now the law, and the more it is studied the less number of votes will be thrown out as illegal on election day.

Officers of the Harugari.

The sessions of the state grand lodge of the Harugari, which were held at Pottsville, concluded by electing the following officers: Grand Bard, A. W. Schalick; deputy grand bard, William Haber; grand secretary, Louis Stoerger; grand treasurer, Christ Staehle. Grand Bard Schalick made the following appointments: Grand chaplain, Fredrick Fort; grand marshal, John Wentzli; grand scribe, Charles Vany; first grand guardian, Jacob Krause; outer guardian, John Goss; W. Rosenthal, of Reading, and Louis Stoffregen, of Pottsville, were elected delegates to the United States grand lodge, which will meet at New Haven next month. Pittsburgh was selected as the place for holding the next annual session.

Suit Over a Coal Land Lease.

The Big Black Creek Improvement Company, which is controlled by Markle & Co., of Jeddo, whose property lies in Hazle township, has entered suit in Philadelphia to recover large sums of money from M. S. Kemmerer, claimed to be due under the lease and contract, including $6000 for a coal breaker, $9200 for miners' houses and a store, $55,750 for rental at the rate of $14,000 a year. It is also charged that the leasee agreed to keep the mines, which are located at Hazle, free from water, so that coal could be taken continually from them, but that during the years 1886-7-8-9 he allowed the mines to fill with water, so that it is impossible to mine coal therefrom.

The Snake Record Broken.

Unless White Haven's snake killers look to their laurels soon the annual premium must be awarded to the Associated Press reporter of Shamokin. The latter told the following story in the city papers a few days ago: A blacksnake nine feet long that came to the slaughterhouse to drink blood, attacked William Hill, a butcher, of Roaring Creek valley. The monstrous reptile wrapped itself about Hill and began to tighten its awful coils. The butcher made frantic efforts to cut the snake in two with his jackknife. When almost fainting with the terrible pain and fear, Hill jabbed his knife in the snake's head and killed it.

When baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became a man, she clung to Castoria.
When she had children, she gave them Castoria.

DRIFTON ITEMS.

"Where does the authority of the bosses under Cox Bros. & Co. end?" is a question that is worthy of consideration at the present time. Election is drawing nigh, and several want to know if we must be hounded in this campaign as we have been for several years past? While they make very good bosses for the company they never will be successful as political bosses and should be turned down immediately by those having the power to do so. Not another town in the coal fields is so boss-ridden as this one. The little authority possessed by some is used with a vengeance wherever an opportunity arises. From the small dude around the store up to the great mogul, all take great pleasure in wielding their authority in politics. That they have rights is not disputed, but to be driven in politics the same as when at work, will be stood no longer by the voters of the two districts here. We hope these gentlemen will have sense enough to let up on this business as it will only result in disaster to their fondest wishes if continued.

Since the summer months set in it has become quite a pastime among a small army of small boys to congregate near the valley depot and jump off and on passing trains. On Saturday evening they were there and several of them were nearly killed. It is useless for the train men to speak to them, and to have them arrested would not please their parents, but to see them getting killed, or starting life at this early age by a leg or an arm off would be too bad. Such, however, will be the end, if it is not stopped.

Thomas Melly, of Lansford, arrived here on Saturday to spend a few days with friends.

A farewell party was held on Thursday evening at the old hospital. It was well attended and a good time was had by all.

Frank Blake and wife, of Bristol, are here on a short vacation among friends.

Peter E. Gallagher (Deepee), who has been for some time in West Virginia, was here among friends last week.

Frank Higgins, who has been seriously ill, is slowly recovering.

Henry Hartig, who has long been a resident here, will leave the employ of Cox Bros. & Co. and engage in the insurance business.

Charles Gallagher was injured in No. 1 on Friday by being squeezed between cars.

Henry Burns, of Wilkes-Barre, is visiting friends here for a few days.

On Saturday a few of the boys began pitching pennies and kept it up until $17 was at stake around the hob. By a stroke of extra good luck Henry Kennedy won the pot.

J. J. McCarthy and family were visiting friends in Hazleton yesterday.

D. J. Williams, formerly of this city, now of Drifton, is visiting at the home of his parents on Green street for a few days.—Nanticoke News.

William Baskin and wife returned from their wedding tour on Saturday.

On Saturday a hearing was held here in the Hazle township auditor's contest. About twenty-five witnesses were subpoenaed to appear before Messrs. McCartney and McGahren, who were taking testimony in the case. It has been well known for several months that Mr. Morris has been urged to make this contest, and the matter of expense would be small in comparison to the good would be done by ousting Brislin. It is plain to everybody that Mr. Morris has more sense than to spend from $300 to $600 for an office that is worth only about $20, yet this contest will not fall much short of it. Of late years an auditor without the courage of his convictions is a valuable man in this and surrounding townships, and as Brislin is a man who could not be induced to do but that which is right, it is no surprise that from $300 to $600 should be spent to get rid of him.

HIGHLAND DOTS.

Chas. McGill, who has been spending a few weeks here with his parents, returned to Wilkes-Barre again.

Thomas J. Boyle is one of the most industrious men in the town and for a young married man beats anything we ever saw. All his spare moments he devotes to painting and beautifying his residence.

James Quinn, who had his foot hurt here some time ago, has commenced work again.

A card bearing the inscription "Hazleton Portrait Company, Markle's Bank Building, Second Floor," was handed to us last week by a lady who considers she was duped. This firm has or had an agent who promised that upon the payment of fifty cents and a small photograph he would have the latter enlarged to any size, providing a frame was bought for it at the studio, the frame to cost from $2.00 up. The agent, picture and fifty cents left this place on April 20, and has been missing since. Ten days is the time specified on the card to call and select a frame.

A few weeks ago the lady called at the studio and was surprised when the artful man failed to produce the portrait or the photo. She became indignant and threatened to have him arrested, then he said the agent had skipped by the fastest train on the Lehigh Valley Railroad, but they had caught him and he was now serving time for the offense. He further explained that thirteen photo's and as many more half-dollars was the amount Johnson, the agent, ran away with and it would not occur again.

In a few weeks we expect to see this concern exposed, as the lady is determined to have the company arrested, for she is of the opinion this business is only carried on in the mining towns where the people are considered too poor to have them arrested.

James Costello, of Lattimer, who is seeking political honors, was here last week looking up his chances. Jim is a good fellow, but that is not counted in politics in this town.

The breakers have been suspended for three days last week.

The young people of this place are happy. A new orchestra has been organized here and it is prepared to furnish music of any description. It will be known as McCann & Boyle's and is open at all times for engagements.

This has been a very active season in the huckleberry business. Now the women may be heard discussing blackberries—where and how they may be had in abundance.

JEDDO NEWS.

One of the grandest events of the season took place in Oakdale last week. The boys and girls had been preparing for a week and when it came they enjoyed it immensely. Singing and dancing were the principle features, although ice cream and cake was to be served if it failed to appear, as some of the boys took French leave with the freezer.

James Furey, who has been in Philadelphia for several weeks, returned on Thursday.

Miss Rose Boyle is spending a few days here among friends.

The Misses O'Donnell, of Philadelphia, are visiting at the residence of Mrs. McGill.

To-day the public schools of this place will begin the term.

Mrs. Catherine McNeil, who has been one of the pioneer settlers of this place, went to Philadelphia and intends to make her future home with her daughter Kate, of that city.

Testimony was taken in the auditor's contest on Friday.

Misses Winnie and Maggie Munday, of New York City, are visiting friends here.

Abacadabra, a word that was frequently used by the ancients, but for centuries has been obsolete, has been brought into use again. It was unearthed in the vicinity of Lattimer and is very common here at present.

One of our boys who is very fond of tokens, which he takes from his lady friends at every opportunity, was seen wending his way, lantern in hand, one night last week in search of a costly token he had lost on the road between Drifton and here. After searching for three hours he returned disgusted. He since explained it was a ring, valued at $10, but the young lady says she drew it in a five-cent prize package. How is it, F?

Miss Bridget Fitzgerald, of Philadelphia, is spending a few days here among relatives.

Miss Susie McGargie, of Bristol, was among the many visitors here last week.

The drum corps of this place was out on Saturday evening, celebrating their second anniversary. This is the only musical organization we can boast of having, and we would like to hear them often.

UPPER LEHIGH NOTES.

Gomer Jones and family, of Stockton, spent yesterday with friends here.

Quite a number of our fishermen went to the Tobyhanna last week and brought home 3000 fish (stories).

The trestle at No. 5 is being repaired.

One of the locies from No. 4 is under repairs, to be used at No. 5 stripping.

Miss Adeline Jones, of Mahanoy City, is among the visitors to this place.

Mr. John Hoover, of Albany, N. Y., was the guest of S. S. Hoover last week.

Phil Price is laid up with a sore hand.

A bowling choir has been started in town. It can be heard at Foster township schoolhouse porch every evening.

Robert Griffith, of Slatington, is with friends here.

Michael Mulligan has purchased a new mare.

J. J. Brislin, of Sugar Notch, and Thomas English, of Pittston, were in town a few evenings since.

The Tarriers held their regular meeting in the usual place on Saturday evening. After the opening ceremonies business was begun with the Jigger in the chair. The secretary, after reading the minutes of the previous meeting, read a telegram from Sunbury stating that the company sent to Hazleton were in jail at that place for stealing passage on a freight train. A motion was made to notify the governor of the case and have the Ninth regiment protect them until they return. It was carried. A motion was made that the member who is going to Scotland be instructed to organize a branch of the Tarriers in that city. The Blizzard objected, and the motion was laid over.

A delegation from the Pond Creek club brought their goat to the tonorial department to be trimmed for exercises that are to be held next week at Pond Creek. After the barber examined him he said it was unnecessary to use the scissors on his goatship, as his whiskers were in the correct style. The delegation was dismissed, but were invited to call at some future meeting. An excursion will be run by the Tarriers to the Stoney Cabin next week, and a committee was appointed to see the company and have the works idle, and, if necessary, use compulsion.

At this juncture of the meeting two boys came to the door and said the grand tarrier had been off day on the turnpike below Charley Murrin's flagging wagons with a lantern, but had left there and started for Freeland to clean out the borough police force. This caused the meeting to adjourn in haste and go in search of the trunly member.

BASE BALL NOTES.

The Cuban Giants on Friday met what might be expected by any club that risks its reputation and the lives of its players by giving an exhibition at Jeaneville. They were defeated, or robbed rather, by a score of 8 to 7. From the accounts of those who witnessed the game the treatment given the colored men was simply disgraceful, and would not be tolerated in another town in the state. The umpire was Mayer, one of the Jeaneville players, and the Giants gave on the credit of being the rankest they ever met. Even the Speaker, which generally stands up for Jeaneville, right or wrong, says "the Jeaneville boys cannot defeat them in a game where fairness only exists."

Grant, of the Cuban Giants, won on Friday the standing prize of $5 and a silk hat for knocking the first fly ball over the centre field fence at Jeaneville.

The Tigers and several of their friends went to Silver Brook yesterday, and were defeated by a score of 14 to 10.

The game was poorly played by both teams, owing to the condition of the ball field. The batteries were Brislin and Gaffney and the Ward brothers. Silver Brook has a strong club this season, being strengthened by Joe McGeady and John McGarvey, who are working there.

A large crowd of people witnessed the game between the Weatherly boys and the Fennots at Drifton yesterday. It was a poorly contested game, the Weatherly boys being no match for the Fennots. The score was 21 to 7 in favor of the home team.

In order to catch a train the Cuban Giants left Lansford at the end of the ninth inning on Saturday. The score stood 4 to 4.

Jeaneville defeated Mahanoy City on Saturday, 13 to 2.

Silver Brook will play the Tigers a return game on Sunday at the park.

Assaulted Last Night.

While Jerry McCarthy, of Freeland, and Frank Gillespie, of Drifton, were talking a walk last evening below the Lehigh Valley depot, they met Andrew Ukas, a Hungarian of Highland, with two large stones in his hand. He was looking for some person who had struck him. The boys asked him if it was them. He said no, and at the same time knocked McCarthy down with one of the stones, cutting a deep gash in his forehead in which two stitches had to be sewed. Gillespie escaped with a slight knock on the head, and the Hun disappeared in the direction of Highland, but will probably be arrested.

Killed the Horse.

George Betner, who was arrested last Monday for driving an "oil train" was in a hurry to deliver another load of juice to his thirsty customers about 9 o'clock Saturday evening, and while going down Centre street at a rapid rate drove over the culvert at the Lehigh Valley crossing. The horse fell during its struggles to rise the shaft broke and penetrated the body of the animal several inches. The backboard and its cargo was quickly run up an alley, and after walking a few yards the horse dropped and died.

A Society's Good Showing.

Miss Sarah Ward, of Leviston, has been elected delegate to the twenty-fourth annual convention of the I. C. B. U., which assembles in Toledo, Ohio, on August 18 and 19. She will represent the young ladies' branch of Beaver Meadow which was admitted last month. It was organized last August after the Scranton convention and their success is plainly shown by sending a delegate such a long distance.

Released on Bail.

Councilman Frank DePiero, who was arrested in connection with the murder of a Hungarian at Tomhicken, was released under $1000 bail by Judge Rice on Friday. He will be given a habeas corpus hearing on Wednesday. The other alleged accessories, Frank Ducci and Frank Antonio, and the murderer, Carmen Ducci, were held fortial.

Gathering Pretty Pond Lilies.

Thos. R. Crellin and wife, Abraham Stroh and wife, H. W. Fackler and wife, and C. O. Stroh and wife composed a pleasant party who visited Lilly Pond last week and secured many beautiful samples of the fragrant pond lily.

A Runaway Accident.

On Saturday a horse belonging to a Mr. Heller, of Dornoch, took flight near the top of the steep hill going down into Butler valley and ran into a large tree, breaking the buggy, throwing out the occupants, a young lady and young man. Both were thrown to the ground with violence, but fortunately neither were seriously injured beyond a few bruises. The horse was so badly hurt that it died soon afterwards.

Temperance Officers Elected.

The annual convention of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union of America cased at Indianapolis, Ind., on Friday, with the election of the following officers: President, Right Rev. Bishop Joseph Cottre; First Vice President, G. W. Logge, Philadelphia; Second Vice President, James M. Scanlan, Chicago; Third Vice President, Miss Mary I. Crampie; Treasurer, Rev. W. J. Malone, Cleveland; Secretary, W. A. Nolan, Philadelphia.

FIFTY YEARS A PRIEST.

BISHOP O'HARA'S GOLDEN JUBILEE TO BE CELEBRATED.

Great Preparations Being Made by the Catholics of the Scranton Diocese—A Purse of $15,000 to be Presented to the Bishop.

The fiftieth anniversary of the ordination of Rt. Rev. William O'Hara, bishop of the Scranton diocese, will be appropriately celebrated by the Catholic clergy and laymen. The affair is in charge of a committee appointed last April by the priests, and active work for the event has begun. In the churches yesterday a circular was read from Vicar General Finnan, of Pittston, setting forth the preliminary details of the anniversary, which will take place at Scranton on Wednesday, December 21, 1892.

One of the leading features on that day will be the presentation to the bishop of a purse of $15,000. The money is to be given voluntarily by the parishes, and will be divided according to their wealth and membership. The amount to be subscribed by the parish here, St. Ann's, is $300, and will be collected between now and the latter part of September. It is certain that the affair will be conducted on a grand scale, as a golden jubilee of an ordination is a very rare occurrence.

Rev. William O'Hara was born in 1816, is a native of county Derry, Ireland, and came to this country with his parents in 1820. They took up their residence in Philadelphia, and sent their son to a select school until he was ready to enter Georgetown college. He felt called to the ministry at the age of sixteen and was sent to Rome by Bishop Kenrick, where he remained eleven years, pursuing a thorough course of studies in the Urban college of the propaganda. After his ordination on December 21, 1842, he was for thirteen years pastor of St. Patrick's church, Philadelphia, and for many years rector and professor in the seminary. In 1860 he was appointed by Bishop Wood vicar general.

When the diocese of Scranton was set off in 1868 he was elected the first bishop, and was consecrated July 12 of that year. The diocese, through his untiring zeal, has attained a flourishing condition. The bishop is the fortunate possessor of the friendship and good will of all denominations, and his administration has often been commented upon by those not of his faith as a model one and worthy of imitation.
