DEATH CALLS HUSTED

PEEKSKILL, N. Y., Sept. 26.—General James W. Husted died at his residence in this village at 8:18 o'clock last night. At his deathbed there were Dr. Mason, Mr. Husted's wife and sons—Thomas, William

BANDMASTER GILMORE'S DEATH.

he Famous Musical Director Had Acquired an International Reputation.

St. Louis, Sept. 26.—The body of Patrick arsfield Gilmore, the famous musical distor and bandmaster, who died at his tele in this city Saturday evening while sband was playing at the exposition, has sen sent to New York by the Big Four nut. The directors of the exposition and se band excepted the hearse to the station. It was only a few hours before his death, hich was caused by heart disease due to digestion, that Mr. Gilmore learned that had been appointed musical director of eworld's fair.

With Patrick Sarsfield Gilmore's death a prince of American bandmasters and a orld famed musical conductor passes way. Every man, woman and child in secountry knew of him by reputation, dthousands on both sides of the Atlanhave watched him as he drew with his ton the sweetest, grandest, and when coston required it the most terrific strains om the hundreds of instruments which recontrolled.

Born in County Galway on Christmas

The Old Veteran Breathes His Last in the Sandusky Soldiers' Home.

an Breathes His Last in usky Soldiers' Home.

, Sept. 24.—General John last night at the Soldiers' was born in Louisville in graduated from the West Point Military academy at the age of twenty. After serving in Florida the two following years he was made a second lieutenant in 1840 and took part in the Mexican war, in which he earned the rank of capting. When the civil war broke open the was made a do volunteers, and as an Missouri, from which he 'rice.

Mrs. Darling Killed.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26. — Mrs. Guss
Darling, of Danbury, Conn., a member ethe Woman's Relief corps, fell from a electric car here and was instantly killed.

A Man Cut in Two.

BUFFALO, Sept. 26.—William J. Murray, a freight conductor, while setting brakes slipped and fell under the cars. His body was cut squarely in two.

WEISSERT COMMANDS

Held Comes to an End—The Color Ques-tion Was Not Brought Up—The Life Membership Question in Statu Quo.

Washington, Sept. 23.—The most suc-tessful encampment of the G. A. R. ever held has ended, and the veterans, satisfied with everything, are beating a retreat in good order to their homes, to meet again next year in Indianapolis. The report of the committee to which was

After serving in Florida the two following years be was made a second lieutenant in 1815 and took part in the Mexican war, in which he earned the rank of certain, Subsequent war, in which he earned the rank of certain subsequent war, in which he earned the rank of certain subsequent war, in which he earned the rank of certain subsequent war, in which he earned the rank of certain subsequent war, in which he earned the rank of certain subsequent war, in which he earned the rank of certain subsequent war, in which he earned the rank of certain subsequent war, in which he earned the rank of certain subsequent war, in which he earned the was subsequently commander of the Army of the Mississippi In June, 1892, he was assigned to the command of the Army of the Mississippi In June, 1892, he was assigned to the command of the Army of the Mississippi In June, 1892, he was assigned to the command of the Army of Virginia on Sept. 30 of the command of the Army of Virginia on Sept. 30 of the command of the Army of Virginia on Sept. 30 of the command of the Army of Virginia on Sept. 30 of the command of the Army of Virginia on Sept. 30 of the command of the Army of Virginia on Sept. 30 of the command of the Army of Virginia on Sept. 30 of the command of the Army of Virginia on Sept. 30 of the command of the Army of Virginia on Sept. 30 of the command of the Army of Virginia on Sept. 30 of the command of the Army of Virginia on Sept. 30 of the command of the Army of Virginia on Sept. 30 of the command of the Army of Virginia on Sept. 30 of the command of the Army of Virginia on Sept. 30 of the command of the Army of Virginia on Sept. 30 of the command of the Army of Virginia on Sept. 30 of the command of the Army of Virginia on Sept. 30 of the command of the Army of Virginia on Sept. 30 of the command of the Army of Virginia on Sept. 30 of the Minnesota Indians. 40 of the Minnesota I

Warfield declared elected senior vice commander.
For the office of junior vice commander Peter B. Ayars, of Wilmington, Del., received 349 out of the 649 votes cast and was elected. For surgeon general Dr. W. C. Weyl, of Danbury, Conn., was elected.
For the place of chaplain in chief there were four candidates—J. H. Frasee, of Tennessee; D. R. Lowell, of Kansas; E. H. Haggerty, of Missouri, and W. H. Gotthell, of the District of Columbia. Dr. Lowell was the favored candidate and was elected. The new commander in chief then assumed the gavel and declared the twenty-sixth national encampment, G. A. R., adjourned sine die.

M'CLURE GOES FOR M'KINLEY

e Colonel Makes ... to Philadelphia Dem.
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 26.—A larger on an that which heard Governor McKinley geat at the Academy of Music last Friday light was present at the same place last light was present at the same place and the speaked the audience of the same place and the speaker was free and same place and the speaker was free and the speaker was free and same place and same pla to give us a solo performance he was muzzled against the utterance of any important statement of vital illustration of present tariff taxes that could invite discussion. President 'Homas Dolan, of the Manufacturers' club, planted corn Endev to kelp duay got an honest elected on the county of the

MASSACHUSETTS DEMOCRATS.

MASSACHUSETTS DEMOCRATS.

James E. Carroll Nominated as Governor
Russell's Running Mate.

Boston, Sept. 28.—After the wild tumult of applause in the Democratic state convention which greeted the renomination of Governor Russell had subsided, on motion of George Fred Williams, James E.
Carroll, of Springfield, was nominated for lieutenant governor, and briefly addressed the convention.

Hon. John J. Donovan followed with the report of the committee on platform. The resolutions adopted indorse the Chicage platform nominees, with an approving paragraph particularly devoted to the tariff plank. Concerning banking the platform says.

THE KEYSTONE STATE

ITEMS WHICH ARE OF PARTICULAR

Boiling Spring, jumped from a train when it was running at a rapid rate and was cut to pieces.

Two Deaths from a Wreck.

CORRY, Sept. 27. — A head end collision occurred on the Pittsburg railroad about 10 clock Sunday morning in which Fireman William Zockman lost his life and Engineer Smith was badly lujured.

Caused by Love.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 26.—Count Mark Millenberg, a young and wealthy nobleman of Vienna, shot himself in the region of the heart in his apartments in the Continental hotel and then turned on the gas. Rejection of marriage by his sweetheart is the cause.

Reading's Assistant General Manager.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 26.—Official announcement is made of the appointment of C. M. Lawlor as assistant general managed of the Philadelphia and Reading railroad company. Mr. Lawlor has been the super intendent of the Williamsport division of the road since 1887.

A Frightful Fall.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 26.—Two painterhad a fearful fall from a temporary scaffold on a house in Fairmount avenue. The injured men are James Parr and William Fadden. The men were standing on a plank resting on two jacks placed in the windows of the third story. One of the supports slipped and the unfortunate men fell headlong to the parement below. Both were still senseless when received at the hospital. It is feared that both will die.

Homestead strikers Confident.

Becher Was Not Dead.

PHIADELPHIA, Sept. 24.—The supposed drowned body of John Becher was identified at Gloucester, N. J., last Saturday by Becher's mother and brother. The remains were buried, but when the family returned to their home the real John Becher was awaiting them.

to their home the real John Becher wa awaiting them.

Killed by His Wife.

PHILLIPSBURG, Sept. 24.—Edwin Grundy mine boss, while drunk, was instantly killed by his wife in a scuffle for the possession of a revolver.

Pinkerton Primer Surrenders.

Pinkerton detective, accussed of riot and conspiracy by Burgess McLuckie, of Homestead, has surrendered. The other detectives have not yet been arrested nor have they surrendered.

Oldest Woman in the State.

ALTOONA, Sept. 23.—Mrs. George Yelletts, of Tyrone, has received word of the death in Center county of her mother, Mrs. Stanton was, so far as known, the oldest woman in Pennsylvania. She was born at Big Chickiss, Lancaster county, in 1775.

Taggart Acquitted.

Mrs. Stanton was, so far as known, the oldest woman in Pennsylvania. She was born at Big Chickiss, Lancaster county, in 1775.

Taggart Acquitted.

MEDIA, Sept. 23.—James Taggart, the proprietor of a little cigar store in Upper Darby township, was tried in the criminal court for using registered beer bottles. The bottles were used by Taggert for holding root beer. The case was given to the jury, and they acquitted Taggart and ordered that the prosecutor should pay the costs.

The Welsh Mountain Gang.
READING, Sept. 23.—There are many evidences that the Welsh mountain gang, which has not been heard of for a number of years, is again reorganized and actively carrying on operations. Within a short time there have been nineteen robberies of stores and houses in upper Chester county. One of the heaviest of the recent robberies was that of the hardware store of Hughes & Ludwick at Honeybrook. The robbers have fleet horses, and at this time of the year are able to transport their tooty many miles through the country before daybreak. The headquarters of the gang are supposed to be at Leaman Place, Lancaster county.

Red Star Line Service.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 23.—The International Navigation company has decided not to withdraw the Red Star line service from Philadelphia.

A Circus in a Wreck.

READING, Sept. 23.—The grand jury returned true bills in all the cases against the Homestead men growing out of their of the properties of the root, July 6, traced the weapons to a coal mine near Marshall station, above here. The detectives made a raid on the mine, but the expected arms were not to be found. They were removed a day or two sago. They claim to know the parties implicated in their removal and a sensation is promised soon.

Judge Werts Accepts.

Judge George T.

Judge Werts Accepts.

Jensey Cirry, Sept. 27.—Judge George Werts was wated upon by the committe appointed to notify him of his nominatio
as the Democratic candidate for the gov ernorship of New Jersey. Judge Werts made a short speech, in which he formally accepted the nomination, and expressed his appreciation of the honor conferred. He added that he should continue to ter the affairs of his judici-

Don't Miss This !

WE NOW BEGIN

Neuburger's Annual Clearing Sale.

We will offer our entire stock, which is the largest in this region, at prices that will astonish you. Call early if you are looking for bargains as this sale will last

FOR TEN DAYS ONLY!

During this time we will sell goods at prices lower than were ever before heard of.

the Dry Goods department you can buy:

the Dry Goods department you can buy:

Handsome dress gingham-print calicoes, 6 cents per yard; re duced from 10 cents.

Apron gingham will be sold at 5 cents per yard.

All the leading shades in double-width cashmere, which was sold at 15 cents is now going at 10 cents per yard.

As handsome an assortment of Scotch and zephyr dress ginghams as you have ever seen, which we sold at 20 cents, will now go at 12½ cents per yard.

Lockwood, best sheeting, we will sell at 17½ cents per yard, reducing it from 25 cents.

Fifty different shades of Bedford cord, Manchester chevron and Henrietta cloth, which were sold at 45 cents, will now go at 25 cents per yard.

Hosiery department quotes the following:

Men's seamless socks, 5 cents per pair.

Boys' outing cloth waists, 15 cents each.

Men's outing cloth shirts, 20 cents each.

Ladies' ribbed summer vests, 4 for 25 cents.

Ladies' chemise, 25 cents.

We have just received an elegant line of ladies' shirt waists and will sell them from 35 cents upward.

Shoe department makes the following announcement:

We have just received a large consignment from the East, and have not yet had time to quote prices. But we will say that they will go at prices on which we defy competition. Call and examine them.

Clothing prices are marked as follows:

We are selling boys' 40-cent knee pants at 25 cents.

Men's $1.25 pants are now going at 75 cents per pair.

Boys' blouse suits, 50 cents.

Men's $6.00 suits reduced to $3.00.

Men's Custom-made $9.00 wood-brown cassimere suits reduced to $5.00

Men's absolutely fast-color blue suits at $6.50; reduced from $10.00.

We have lowest marks on all goods in our lines of Ladies' and Gents' Furnishing Goods, Hats, Caps, Trunks, Valises, Notions, Etc.

Joseph Neuburger's

BARGAIN EMPORIUM, P. O. S. of A. Building, Freeland, Pa.

Are Headquarters

And Hardware of Every Description.

REPAIRING DONE ON SHORT NOTICE.

We are prepared to do roofing and spouting in the most improved manner and at reasonable rates. We have the choicest line of miners' goods in Freeland. Our mining oil, selling at 20, 25 and 30 cents per gallon, cannot be surpassed. Samples sent to anyone on application.

Fishing Tackle and Sporting Goods.

BIRKBECK'S,

CENTRE STREET.

FREELAND, PA.