NEW YORK'S BIG WEEK.

GREATEST DISPLAY EVER MADE IN THE METROPOLIS.

Four Days Required to Carry Out the Elaborate Programme That Was Arranged to Honor the Anniversary of the Discovery of America.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—It is probable that no city was ever before so beautifully, so gayly, so artistically, and above all so universally decorated as is New York city today in honor of the Columbus celebration. The second day of the quadrennial celebration of the discovery of the New World was devoted to religious services. Both in Roman Catholic and Protestant churches the services were of the most impressive character.

Today, the third day of the celebration, the parade of the schoolboys took place, and it was a beautiful sight. There were 20,000 boys and twenty-nine bands of music in line. Thousands of boys from the public and parochial schools came first, and after them the students of the higher institutions of learning, then bodies of uniformed cadets, including one of 300 Indian boys from the Indian school at Carlisle, Pa.

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—The city today is literally crowded with visitors from all parts of the country, and it is computed that fully 400,000 visitors are in the city. Thousands upon thousands of pairs of eyes witnessed on the New York and Brooklyn bridge last night a pyrotechnic exhibition of unexcelled splendor.

Screens of Roman dust followed bursting shells; screaming eagles of fire mingled with rockets and aerial sheafs and showers of sparks, until the whole ended in the golden shower of fire which descended upon the bridge from tower to tower, realistic and wonderful.

The great feature of the Columbus celebration today was the naval parade, which started from the Narrows about 12:30 o'clock. The display was the finest ever seen in this vicinity.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—The number of visitors attending the celebration of the 400th anniversary of the discovery of America far exceed that which attended the centennial celebration. A conservative estimate places the number of additional visitors that have arrived in town today at 100,000. The display of fireworks from the Brooklyn bridge last evening began at 8:30 o'clock. The big span was an immense arch of fire. From then until nearly 11 o'clock the bridge was one blaze of light, showing all the tints known to the pyrotechnic art, with one last flight of rockets, a shower of stars and a bursting of bombs the display of fireworks on the Brooklyn bridge was ended.

There were 25,000 members of various Catholic societies in line, most of whom carried lanterns, some red, others white, with still others blue. Today's event was the grand military parade, which started from the Battery this morning. It was a magnificent spectacle, worth traveling hundreds of miles to see. This evening the grand illuminated historical street pageant takes place.

JUSTICE SHIRAS SWORN IN.

He Takes His Place on the United States Supreme Court Bench.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—The opening session of the October term of the supreme court of the United States, with the attendant circumstances of the induction into office of the new associate justice, George Shiras, Jr., filled the court room to overflowing. After the usual announcement of the opening of court Chief Justice Fuller said: "I have much pleasure in announcing to the gentlemen of the bar that since the adjournment of the court the existing vacancy has been filled by the appointment of Mr. George Shiras, Jr., of Pittsburgh. Mr. Shiras is present and ready to take the oath."

The clerk of the court, Mr. McKinley, then read the commission issued to Mr. Shiras, at the conclusion of which the new associate justice arose and read in a moderate voice the oath in which he swears to do equal and exact justice to all, both rich and poor, according to the constitution and the laws of the United States to the best of his knowledge and ability. The ceremony was quite brief, and all the persons present stood during its continuance, as well as the court.

Associate Justice Shiras is about fifty-five years old. He stands 5'10" in height, but beside the larger members of the court, Justices Gray and Harlan, does not look all his inches. He has brown hair, slightly tinged with gray, gray side whiskers, his chin and lip being shaved clean. His eye is blue, complexion verging on the ruddy, and his mouth shuts straight across the face, indicating firmness and decision. Justice Blatchford is encouraging a hearty and the chief justice has a luxuriant mustache, so the new justice's whiskers are not so striking on the bench as they otherwise would be.

FOR TREASON AND MURDER.

The Carnegie Officials Indicted with the Homestead Advisory Board.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 12.—The grand jury sitting in the treason cases against Homestead strikers and the murder and conspiracy charges against the Carnegie Steel company and the Pinkerton detectives, have brought in true bills in all the cases.

The indictments for treason involve thirty-one defendants. They are Hugh O'Donnell, John McKelvie, David Lynch, Thomas J. Crawford, Harry Bayne, Elmer E. Ball, Henry Bayard, T. W. Brown, Dennis M. Cosh, William McConeghy, Michael Cummings, William Combs, John Dierkin, Patrick Fagan, W. H. Gaches, Matthew Harris, Reid Kennedy, John Miller, O. S. Searight, John Murray, W. H. Thompson, Martin Murray, Hugh Ross, W. T. Roberts, George Hylands and George W. Sarver. The charges of murder against H. C.

FRICK AND OTHER CARNEGIE OFFICIALS ARE TO BE KILLED.

FRICK and other Carnegie officials are to be killed, according to a report from the killing of George W. Rutter, John E. Morris, Joseph Sotak and Silas Wayne whose deaths resulted from the riot. The true bills are against H. C. Frick, F. T. F. Lovejoy, Robert Pinkerton, William Pinkerton, J. A. Potter, W. S. Corey, J. G. A. Leishman, C. W. Beddell, W. H. Butt, John Cooper, F. W. Hinde, Nevin McConnell and James Dovey.

In regard to the fight on the morning of the 6th the bill says the defendants "did counsel and advise the shooting."

In the conspiracy cases H. C. Frick, George Lander, L. C. Curry, Leishman, Otis Childs, Lovejoy, L. C. Phipps, G. A. Corey, J. A. Potter, J. F. Dovey, McConnell, the Pinkertons, Cooper, Beddell, Fredrick Primer, Burt and Hinde are the defendants.

In the aggravated riot cases true bills are returned against Frick, Curry, Leishman, Lovejoy, L. C. Phipps, Dovey, McConnell, Cooper, Beddell, Primer, Burt and Hinde.

The indictment against H. C. Frick and others in the murder cases are separate making four in all. The prosecutor in the murder cases is Hugh Ross, against whom there are charges of murder, treason, conspiracy and aggravated riot.

Foster and the Old Soldiers.
The Wilkes-Barre correspondent of the Nanticoke News says it would puzzle the shrewdest and most observant of politicians to tell which way the election for local officers is going, if he were to be governed at all by the opinion he hears.

There certainly is considerable defection in the Republican ranks in the case of Charles Foster, candidate for congress, and his opponent, Billy Hines, will gain numerous votes from the dissatisfied Republicans.

The veteran members of the Grand Army of the Republic have it in for Foster. It is alleged that once upon a time a committee of the school districts of the town for the benefit of the Memorial Hall fund called upon Foster (he wasn't a candidate for office then) and stated their business.

"What have I to do with that?" Foster is reported to have asked the committee. "Why," said the spokesman, "we are old soldiers and want help to pay for a G. A. R. hall." "I don't see how that concerns me," replied Foster. "I am getting heartily sick of that old soldier business. You fellows ought to take your pensions and pay for your halls if you must have them. I don't expect to loaf there."

Preparing for Annexation.
Edward A. Lynch, Esq., of Wilkes-Barre, who has been appointed by the board to ascertain and adjust the indebtedness of the school districts of the borough and Foster township, gives notice in another column that he will attend these duties at Attorney Hayes' office on November 10.

This adjustment of the indebtedness of the two districts is necessary in order to learn just how much of Forter's school debt must be taken by the borough before the Points and Birvanton can be annexed. It is very probable, however, that the date of the adjustment may be postponed, as citizens of the Points have filed objections against the move to annex that portion.

To Hunters and Fishermen.
I, the undersigned, having been appointed game and fish warden of Luzerne county, will at once enter upon the duties of my office. I hereby notify all parties having nets in the Honeyhole or Nescopeck creeks to take them out immediately, as I will prosecute them to the full extent of the law.

All persons violating any of the game or fish laws of this state will be promptly dealt with.

Wilkes-Barre, Hazleton and White Haven papers please copy.
J. W. Hess, Hughesville, Pa.

A Successful Ball.
The ball of the Young Men's T. A. B. Society on Monday evening was another of the many successful affairs held by this organization. The hall was crowded with the people of Freeland and neighboring towns, and many visitors from distant places were present.

The grand march was led by Master of Ceremonies Edward J. Doggett and Miss Hannah Dougherty, and was participated in by over 100 couples. During the intermission the St. Patrick's cornet band played several choice selections.

District Committee.
An interesting meeting of the Democratic district committee was held at the National House Monday afternoon. James North, of Drifton, was elected temporary chairman. Permanent organization was effected by the election of Con O'Donnell, of Drifton, as chairman, and James McNelis, secretary. After outlining a campaign the meeting adjourned. The next meeting will be held in Freeland.—Standard.

HIGHLAND DOTS.

At last one of our fondest hopes is about to be realized. It will be in the shape of a library; one that the people of town may feel proud of. There is no scarcity of material, as we have an abundance of intelligent and ambitious young men, who, with very little training, would astonish some of the older orators and debaters that are to be found in the neighboring towns. After its organization an effort will be made to procure some means by which the members will have the assistance of a library. This is the sure way to succeed boys. Keep right on.

Hugh Gallagher is suffering from a very severe attack of rheumatism for the past week.

Work is very slack at present and there is no sign of a change. It is the Reading's deal now. Wonder when it will be our turn to deal.

John Gibbon, of Mahanoy City, has secured work and intends making his home here for the future.

Several of our young people will be married in the near future.

Neal Gallagher, who had his foot injured at No. 3 some time ago, is able to be about again.

Mrs. Simom Slantizsky, who has been lying dangerously ill, is slowly recovering.

Mrs. Daniel Hughings, of Hazleton, is visiting here for a few days.

C. J. McGill, formerly a resident of this place, returned on Saturday and began to work in No. 2 mine.

James Oliver is laid up with a severe attack of hay fever.

Occasionally we hear of some neighbor's line being robbed at night and other thefts committed in our village. Now the parties who are committing these depredations had better stop it, as they are well known.

Patrick Bradley was visiting in Hazleton on Monday.

Charles Kringe, a small boy about 8 years of age, had his head badly bruised this week while playing around a freight car.

Charles Bushome is lying dangerously ill at his home.

Miss Johanna O'Brien returned to her home at Alden on Tuesday, after a lengthy visit here.

Slope "D," which is located inside of No. 2, will be idle for sometime, as the engine is being taken away. Slope "C" has also been entirely abandoned.

To Test the Ballot Law.
The Republican party of this state is in desperate straits over the new ballot law. Although the system to be used here next month is only a poor imitation of the genuine secret method of voting, yet the leaders of the G. O. P. are doing their utmost to kill every good point of the bill. In all the states of the union where secret voting has been tried it has resulted disastrously to the Republicans, and they are now beginning to shake in their boots for fear that the banner state will go Democratic if the voters cannot be controlled and bulldozed as heretofore.

Their latest scheme is to try and have the Baker ballot act declared unconstitutional by the supreme court. Seven attempts have already been made by Republicans in different counties to have this done, but all have so far failed. A movement was started in Pittsburg yesterday to try once more, and the question on which the proposed fight on the law is to be made is the well-ventilated one of delegated authority. As the act has stood the test of several suits already, this remote issue is not likely to come up for legal discussion here. The election, unless the Republicans become too desperate in their frantic endeavors to return to the former corrupt and rotten system of voting.

Didn't Know It Was Loaded.
Another name was added to the long list of didn't-know-it-was-loaded accidents on Tuesday afternoon near West Hazleton, when John O'Hara shot David Richards in the right side.

Both young men live near Harleigh, and started out gunning for pheasants. Richards carried an old shot gun which he said had not been loaded for years and several times snapped it, but it failed to go off.

As they were going through the woods he handed the gun to O'Hara to carry and he amused himself as Richards had done by snapping the trigger, but on the second attempt it was discharged and the load struck Richards in the side. O'Hara, horrified at what he had done, picked up his companion and carried him to a neighboring house.

Medical aid was summoned and the shot extracted. Richards was not badly hurt and was able to return home.—Sentinel.

Fell Under the Cars.
Mattie Walsh, aged 13, met his death on Tuesday morning at South Wilkes-Barre by being crushed under the wheels of a Lehigh Valley coal train. He and another boy, Charley Craig, had been chattering on the mountain and were returning on the coal train.

At South Wilkes-Barre young Walsh attempted to get off, but his foot got caught in a board and he was thrown under the wheels. Both legs were cut off, one at the knee and the other at the hip, and he died shortly afterwards. He lived with his widowed mother in Wilkes-Barre.

The boy was a nephew of Mrs. John McKinley, of Ridge street, Freeland, and will be buried to-day.

For Election Day.
Freeland will be pretty well supplied with booths and annexes for voters on election day. The borough poll will have two booths and seven annexes for 424 voters, South Heberton will have one booth and two annexes for 135 voters, North Woodside will have two booths and five annexes and South Woodside one booth and two annexes, the two Woodside districts having 343 voters. This will give six booths and six annexes for Freeland's 902 voters.

The only place in town where there is any probability of voters having trouble to fix their ballots will be at the borough poll. One set of election officers is entirely too small to attend 424 voters, but it is too late now to remedy it.

The Drifton district of Hazle township has 317 voters, but only one booth and three annexes. This seems rather small to accommodate the citizens there, as nearly all the votes will be polled between 5 and 7 P. M., and it will require some hustling to get them all in properly. All the other districts in this vicinity are well equipped with election apparatus, with the possible exception of Eckley, which has two booths and five annexes for its 340 voters.

The largest poll in the county is the north ward in avoca, which has 563 voters. It is followed by the first district of Plains with 531 voters, and then comes Freeland borough with 424.

Columbus Day Celebration.
The committee having charge of the Columbus Day celebration at Freeland has received several responses from the different organizations that have been invited to take part. The prospects are very bright for a most creditable display, and the committee is certain that the demonstration will compare favorably, both in numbers and appearance, with any that will be held in the state.

It was formerly intended to hold the parade in the morning, but as several of the public schools will have exercises in the forenoon, it was decided to have it take place at 1 o'clock. Maj. C. B. Cox, Post No. 147, G. A. R., will assist at the school exercises, and also participate in the afternoon parade.

Freeland Company No. 29, Military Rank, Knights of the Mystic Chain, intends to make a good showing in the parade.

Division 19, A. O. H., has engaged the St. Patrick's cornet band, and will be accompanied by Division 20, of Eckley. The numerous Polish, Slavonian and Greek societies will also be out strong that day, and will do all they possibly can to show their patriotism and love for their adopted country.

Several floats are expected to have at least a dozen floats equipped and decorated in a fine manner.

In a few days the complete programme of the order of societies and route of parade will be ready for publication.

In the evening a grand literary and musical entertainment will be held at the opera house under the auspices of the Catholic Young Men's Literary Institute, assisted by the Daughters of Mary Sodality. It will consist of a singing, tableaux, a debate, and an address on "Columbus" by Rev. F. P. McNally. The admission will be 25 cents.

Tried to Wreck a Train.
An unsuccessful attempt was made near Jeddo yesterday afternoon to wreck the train here at 4:30.

When within 200 yards of the switch, Junction a man was seen standing at the switch. Suddenly he raised the lever and turned it round, then darted off through the woods in the direction of the culm bank below Jeddo.

The brakes were applied immediately, but the train could not be stopped until it had passed the switch. The wrecked rails in his attempt to derail the train, as the switch was not entirely open and the force and weight of the engine and cars sprung the rails back and run them on a side track.

Several of the trainmen and passengers started in pursuit of the man who attempted to wreck the train, but they were unable to catch him.

Upon reaching Jeddo station Conductor Lawall telegraphed a description of him to the different stations, and every effort will be made by the Lehigh Valley Company to have him arrested and punished.

An Interesting Suit.
The famous case of Mrs. Susannah Watkins against John Schumacher, a saloon keeper of Parsons, was tried at Wilkes-Barre on Tuesday and Wednesday. The plaintiff's husband, while drunk, was killed on the railroad track three years ago, and Mrs. Watkins claims the liquor with which he became intoxicated was sold to him by Schumacher, and sues him for damages.

The case was previously decided by arbitrators, who gave Mrs. Watkins $2,500. Schumacher, however, refused to abide by their decision and the case was taken into court, where it has attracted much attention, being the first of its kind.

It is now in the hands of the jury, who had not rendered a verdict up to this morning.

A Premature Blast.
Daniel Snyder, of Stockton, was seriously injured on Tuesday afternoon by a premature explosion. The speaker says he was putting of a blast, and as it held fire he came to the conclusion it had missed, and went back to relight it when it went off with terrific force, scattering the coal in his direction.

He was taken from the mine and hurried to the state hospital, and it was found necessary to amputate one of his arms, so badly was it shattered. He also lost one of his eyes and his body was otherwise badly lacerated by the pieces of rock that were thrown against him.

Mr. Snyder is a married man with a wife and four children, and resided for several years at No. 3 Upper Lehigh.

DEATHS.
BRENNAN.—At Drifton, October 11, Ellen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Brennan, aged 1 year, 7 months and 4 days. Funeral this afternoon. Interment at St. Ann's cemetery. Brislin.

SHOVLIN.—At Drifton, October 12, Henry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Shovlin, aged 7 months and 2 days. Funeral on Friday afternoon. Interment at St. Ann's cemetery. Brislin.
