The trustees of St. Luke's churcicame before council and agreed to give the council the right of way to lay th sewer through their property so as tonnect with Rev. Schmidt's cellar provided it does not conflict with the wall of their parsonage.

The street commissioner's bill for labor and team on streets for month of October, amounting to $191.00 was read and a motion was made that the secretary draw orders on the treasurer for the same.

A motion was passed that all work of tary draw orders on the treasurer for the same.

A motion was passed that all work of the streets be suspended for the present. The names of Robert Dunlap and F. Davis were presented as chief of the department. Before voting a communication was read from Mr. Davideelining to serve and Mr. Dunlap was elected manimously.

The treasurer presented the followin report.

that stage.

After the performance the company was tendered a reception at the residence of Mr. Hart's uncle, Jos. P. McDonald.

"The Merry Cobbler.

"The Merry Cobbler." is the title of a bright, romantic comedy that will be played here on Monday evening, November 21. John R. Campson, a clever dialect actor and singer, made a wonderful it this season in his dual role of Franz, the cobbler, and Lena, a German girl, a disguise which he adopts in foiling the machinations of the villian of the piece.

the machinatons of the piece.

Many of his songs are enthusiastically encored every night, and the musical and dancing novelities in which the entire company takes part brings out unstinted applause. The scene of the play is laid in New Orleans, and the stage and mechanical effects are excellent.

The working hours of the Drifton shops were reduced to nine hours. It is not known how long the order will continue in force.

The foundry department of the shops has also been ordered to lie idle every Saturday. There is an abundance of work there, and no reason can be assigned for the above orders.

Manus McGinty's Will.

Manus McGinty's Will.
The will of the late Manus McGinty,
who died last Wednesday at his home in Wilkes-Barre, was read on Tuesday before a few of his relatives. The estate is valued at about $75,000, consisting of about $50,000 in real estate and $25,000 in bank stock.

The five children of 25

in bank stock.

The five children of Mr. and Mrs.
Martin F. Burke, of Wilkes-Barre, are bequeathed $5000 each, the amount to be held in trust for them until they are of age.

The balance of the estate, with the exception of some small bequests, is divided equally with his two sisters, Mrs. Bridget Dugan, of Brooklyn; and Mrs. Margaret Higgins, of Montana; his brother, James McGinty, of Buck Mountain, and his daughter, Mrs Martin F. Burke, of Wilkes-Barre.
The executors are ex-Mayor Edward Ripple, of Scranton, and T. L. Foster, of Mauch Chunk.

REPRESENTATIVES.

The Democrats have carried the first, fifth and sixth legislative districts, the successful candidate being Broadhead, of Wilkes-Barre, Flannery, of Pittston, and Moyles, of Ashley. The Republicans are conceded the second and third, electing Harvey and Koons, and also claim they have carried the fourth.

claim they have carried the fourth.

Reilly's majority in this district is very small. The total vote, unofficial, as received at Hazleton up to this morning, is given as follows by the Standard:

Reilly, 2464; Jeffrey, 2447; Reilly's majority, 17. In this report Reilly is given 95 and Jeffrey 215 votes in this borough. It should be Reilly, 82; Jeffrey, 216; a difference of 14 votes in favor of Jeffrey.

A special from the Sentinel at 1 o'clock claims Jeffrey's election, and it will re-quire the official count to decide who has won.

Embezzled Money.

Charles Good win, aged about 60 years, treasurer of Camp No. 500, P. O. S. of A., is an embezzler to the amount of $225. The shortage was not discovered until a few days ago, when an order for $400 was presented to Good win. He was unable to pay more than $200, declaring that the treasury was empty. An investigation of the books showed a shortage of nearly $400.

His bondsman, D. G. Smith, made good the amount and no legal action will be taken, but Goodwin will be tried by the camp at its next meeting.

Freeland's Good Water.

Freeland's Good Water.

If any proof were needed as to the excellent quality and abundant supply of water with which Freeland is blessed, it would be supplied by the fact that several families from Wilkes-Barre are getting their supply of drinking water from here.

In jugs and barrels the pure water is shipped away to older cities and larger towns who either are not as favored by nature or as well cared for by their water companies.

The scarcity of water elsewhere, and the fact that our supply has always been adequate and of the purest quality, may well call our attention to the great good done our source of supply when Mr. Coxe so generously donated the ground in its neighborhood for a park so as to render pollution impossible, and also to the more than usual care exercised by the Freeland Water Company in preserving the water from contamination while in the reservoir and mains. Freeland is blessed in its water supply and may well be proud of it.

Seeking Safety in a Lion's Den.

A serious disturbance occurred on the Place de Jaude at Clermont Ferrand on A serious disturbance occurred on the Place de Jaude at Clermont Ferrand on a late Tuesday evening. A negro tamer of the American circus named Jackers quarreled with and stabbed a workman. He then took to flight, pursued by a large crowd whose object was to lynch him. Saved from the crowd by the police, Jackers took refuge in a lion's cage in the circus. The tent was immediately surrounded by an exasperated multitude, who had a regular fight with the police and a number of soldiers. The authorities succeeded with great difficulty in preventing the rioters from cutting the ropes holding the seafolding of the circus together. After several hours order was restored and Jackers, who had been calmly awaiting the end of the disturbance under the gnard of his lion Sultan, came out of the cage and gave himself up to the police.—London Public Opinion.

Two Lucky Accidents.

Several colored men were playing craps on Grove street the other night, one of whom was backing the game. A quarrel arose between the backer and one of the players, when the player drew his pistol and fired. A button on the vest of the backer of the game saved him a serious wound and perhaps his life. It received the bullet from the pistol of the enraged man and turned it aside. His narrow escape made the backer mad, and he, too, drew his revolver. He cocked it and pulled on the trigger. As it fell the chamber of the revolver, filled with cartridges, dropped to the floor. Thus two current accidents in succession permitted two narrow escapes. No further attempt was made to shoot.—Hartford Courant.

Where Cholera Raged Fiercely.

Where Cholera Raged Flercely.

Nearly three-fourths of all the cases of cholera in southern Russia, or in the region between the Caspian sea and the Black, have proved fatal. In St. Petersburg, where better sanitary conditions exist, over half the cases have proved fatal. In Hamburg the ratio of deaths in cholera cases has been nearly one-half, while in northern Germany, in Belgium and in France it has been about one-third. About 80 per cent, of the cases in Persia are thought to have proved fatal. A quarter of a million Persians are supposed to have perished by the Asiatic cholera this year.—Paris Letter.
