Hazleton Birds Won.

The body of Anthony Claypole, who was carried into Lattimer mines on Wednesday by the steam shovel, was recovered on Friday. The body was covered by about twenty tons of debris and was horribly mutilated.

At 2 o'clock Friday morning a fire was discovered in the Well's building on the Public Square, Wilkes-Barro, which was partially destroyed. The losses are as follows: Harris & Co., jewelers, $10,000; Isaac Long, dry goods, $15,000; Bennett & Walters, boots and shoes, $25,000; loss on building, $10,000. The seventh semi-annual convention on building, $10,000. The seventh semi-annual convention of the Schuylkill Christian Endeavor societies was opend at Tamaqna on Fri-day. There are forty societies in that county, with a membership of over 2000. This convention will probably be the last one held semi-annually, as the at-tendance has grown too large for some of the smaller towns to accommodate.

BASE BALL. Freeland will open the season next Sunday with Hazleton. The home team will be composed of the best local talent of this vicinity, excepting the battery, which will be announced later. The following is the Jeanesville schedule of games to be played up to June 15: May 20, Ashland; May 30, Oxford, of Philadelphia; June 10 and 15, Lansford; all of which, with the excep-tion of Lansford on the 10th of June, are to be played at home. Wilkes-Barre will play here on the A Scranton Man's Disappearance. John L. Lamb, of Scranton, until Tues-day night grand treasurer of the Inter-national Organization of Machinists, has disappeared. It is alleged that he has taken $5000 of the funds belonging to the organization with him. He took the money to Indianapolis and deposited it in the Meridian national bank. It was for the purpose of defraying the ex-penses of the grand council of machinists in session there. On Tuesday afternoon he was defeated for re-election and left the hall immediately, drew the funds from the bank and the executive officers have so far failed to locate him.

Hon. Eckley B. Coxe, who was in Phila-delphia, requested a representative of the Tratevost to make known to the people of Freeland and the members of the Citizens' Hose Company that he fully appreciates the interest they took in the preservation of the firm's property during the fire at No. 2 slope. He stated he had intended to write them a letter, but then thought it best to meet them personally, the time and place of which will be made known by him later.
