Eagles' Work Ended.

The grand castle of the Knights of the Golden Eagle have held the concluding session of the annual meeting at Lancaster. The committee on hall appointed to consider a proposition for providing a permanent home for the grand castle recommended the erection of a suitable hall in a centrally located place, the cost to be provided for by stock sub-scription. The committee was instruct-ed to rent a suitable building in Phila-delphia with view to buying the same. Easton was selected as the next place of meeting. The grand castle decided that subordinate castles need not hold a ses-sion on a church or legal holiday.
