FREELAND, PA., JUNE 26, 1893.

WHAT THEY THINK OF IT.

Some of the Comments Passed by Editors Upon the "Tribune."

The FREELAND TRIBUNE entered on its sixth year on Thursday. The TRIBUNE is a semi-weekly paper, and unlike many of its semi-weekly contemporaries is a decided success both financially and as a newspaper.

The FREELAND TRIBUNE with this week's issue closed its fifth volume. The TRIBUNE is one of the spiciest local papers on our exchange list.

The FREELAND TRIBUNE has entered upon its sixth year. Editor Buckley is giving a newsy and clean sheet, and is deserving of the prosperity that has come to him after hard work.

The FREELAND TRIBUNE is five years old. Our contemporary is in a high state of prosperity. It is one of our best exchanges. The Newsdealer extends its congratulations and hopes the TRIBUNE will continue to grow in power and influence.

BASE BALL.

The following suggestion about a change in the method of scoring has in it some good features and is being favorably commented upon by many. It is suggested that fractions of a run be counted instead of a whole run.

The score would then show the merits of a team, as it doesn't now. Good base running would count towards winning. Every hit would count. Every play would be watched with interest.

Honey Brook is to play the Tigers here on Sunday next. Hazleton defeated Bloomsburg, 13 to 6, on Friday.

Beaver Meadow club did not show up here yesterday, and there were no games on this side.

Lansford trimmed up Hazleton on Saturday to the tune of 9 to 5.

Shamokin scored 1 run at Jeantown on Saturday while the home team made 18.

The Tigers would like to hear from some first-class club for July 4. They will play anywhere on that date for a reasonable guarantee.

What They Think of Ads. An exchange tells of two men who were not long since discussing their local paper.

"I believe you are right—I know that they pay me well and rather think it is not good taste to find fault with the advertisements after all."

Those men have the right idea of the matter. It pays any man with a family to take a good local paper for the sake of the advertisements if nothing more, and if business men fail to give the working people a chance to read advertisements in the local paper they are blind to their own interests to say the least of it.

FROM SUBURBAN POINTS.

quaintances wishes them long years of happiness. They have gone to Jersey City, where they will make their future home.

Peter O'Donnell, who has been in a Philadelphia hospital for several weeks, has returned home.

Dr. Kalb has returned from the World's fair. Miss Annie Brislun was in Hazleton last week visiting.

John P. Quinn, of Philadelphia, was here last week visiting old acquaintances.

Condy Shovlin and Robert Murnay, former residents, but now of Plymouth, were in town last week.

UPPER LEHIGH NOTES.

Some of our smart young men were relieved of their surplus cash last week in Freeland by the fakirs who follow the circus. This all comes from trying to beat a man at his own game, but our boys would aspire to do greater things than that, providing the cash held out. The boys will grow wiser as they get older.

Misses Rose and Hannah Ferry returned home after spending a few weeks among Harwood friends.

Mrs. William Stoker is on the sick list.

George McGee is suffering from an injured hand.

John Gerlach, Fred Horn, George Kishbach and a number of our fishermen were on a fishing tour for several days last week in the vicinity of Wilkes-Barre.

FROM ALL QUARTERS.

John T. Lenahan, Esq., of Wilkes-Barre, has been honored with the degree of Master of Arts by the faculty of Villa Nova college.

William Campbell, a young man of Hazleton, was arrested last evening for attempting to assault a seven-year-old child. He will be taken to Wilkes-Barre today.

Andrew Cussick, one of the men implicated in the Harleigh riot about two months ago, was captured at Hazleton this morning. He will be held for trial on the charge of murder.

A Hungarian at Slatington who had accumulated $400 hid the money in a barn. When he came to look for it the rats had made a meal of his greenbacks, leaving only small fragments.
