The trains will leave on the Central Railroad as follows: Drifton, 7 a. m.; Upper Lehigh, 7.25 a. m.; Eckley, 7.05 a. m., and Sandy Run, 6-40 a. m. Returning they will leave the park at 7.30 p. m.

The fare for the round trip is only $1.00 for adults and 50 cents for children. Tickets can be secured from the members, at the stations or on the trains. All who can should take advantage of this offer to have a day's recreation cheaply. DePierro's orchestra will accompany the excursion.

Time to Double Space

some misguided advertisers cut down their space because business is dull. If advertisements are business bringers, and they must be or merchants would not pay for them, the dull season is a good time to double the space, I twould be a poor locomotive engineer who would let the steam pressure run down on up-grades. Shrewd merchants are seeing this, and when the people seem reluctant to buy simply convince them reluctant to buy simply convince them reluctant to buy simply convince them by stronger arguments.

Fatal Result of a Wound

Mrs. S. B. Stupp died Tuesday after noon after suffering over a year. In the spring of 1892 a boy playing outside the house carelessly discharged a loaded gun, the full charge of fine shot passing through a window, striking Mrs. Stupp full in the face and chest.

All work was suspended here the two latter days of last week. Mrs. John Boner, of Oneida, is spending a few days here with her sister, Mrs T. Wackley. M. W. Kester made a business trip to Hazleton on Saturday. Several of the aspirants for county offices have called in town during the past two weeks on the lookout for delegates. A large number of people of this place attended the funeral of John Dougherty, of Audenried, on Sunday. It seems the death benefit fund is done for in this place. No talk is heard of it any more. We suppose it will be run on the same old style as usual—every-body bury their own dead.

Highland will be well represented at the picnic of the Liberty Club at Free-land Saturday evening.

Miss Hannah White, of this place, will be married on Saturday to Richard Carter, of Jeddo. It is rumored that four days will constitute a week's work for the balance of the summer at the collieries here. If it is true it will be a hard blow at the faro banks. Mrs. Michael Murrin was visiting in Hazleton on Tuesday.

Edward Gallagher, of Sandy Run, is now employed as a fireman at No. 2 colliery.

John Kellar and wife, of Hazleton spent Sunday with his parents here. Mrs. Daniel Hughings spent Saturday with her sister at Milnesville.
