The $3 I paid for a berth in a Pullman sleeper, which, until made up into berths, is a handsome and very comfort-able parlor car in which you are entitled to a seat and berth from Niagara Falls to Chicago. The meals on the cars enroute cost from 25 cents to $1.

There is no trouble in getting good comfortable rooms and board at reasonable rates in Chicago. I had a front room in the Grand Palace Hotel at $1 a day. An excellent cafe and restaurant is run in connection with the hotel and excellent meals can be had from 25 to 50 cents. The noon meals you take at the fair grounds, as no return checks are given out, so if you wish to spend the day at the grounds you will have to dine there. Lunches on the fair grounds are very reasonable and you can satisfy your appetite from the investment of a dime to a dollar. The admission fee to everything belonging to the fair proper is 50

Next comes the Midway Plaisance and first we have the Ferris wheel. Don't miss it. It is the best thing on the Midway. The wheel revolves you gently to a height of 264 feet and at different altitudes and positions you have a most beautiful view across the lake, over Chicago and a magnificent bird's-eye view of the entire exposition. You have two round trips and this aerial oyage costs 50 cents. voyage costs ov cents.

The Hagenbeck trained wild animal show is also a drawing card. The theatre part seats 4,500 people. Performances are at 2, 4.30 and 8 p. m., and the ces are at 2, 4.30 and 8 p. m., and the admission to both performances and menageric is 50 cents.

I will not advise anyone to squander 25 cents as I did to see the Dahomey village. It's not worth it. The Algerian theatre also costs 25 cents and if you want to feel perfectly ridiculous and pay for it besides, this is the place to go.

The international beauty show is also another "take in." Chicago girls are "palmed off" on the unsuspecting public as people from many of the foreign countries. Libby glass works are well worth seeing. The 10 cents paid for admission is taken off any article you purmission is taken off any article you pur-

The ride on the ice railway costs 15 ents and is something you will enjoythat is if you enjoy being scooted through the atmosphere at the rate of 75 miles an hour. There are many other things of course that you will see in the fair ground proper which will prove such a bewildering surprise that I dare not at-tempt to describe them. Then before coming home visit some of the parks— Washington, Lincoln, Union, Douglas and Garfield. It will cost but a few cents.

He Thought the Moon Was a Headlight and So Reported.

It was a sleepy little Massachusett town, but there was a railroad running through it, and for the accommodation of a few summer patrons of the line a station had been built. The Pooh Bah of the place officiated as telegraph operator, station agent and yard master. Through some misunderstanding with the company, one Pooh Bah had been discharged and sent on his way with a troubled co-clence, and a new operator had been engaged to fill his place. The new man, while he was sethorough operator and understood railroad matters well enough to take the position, was totally unacquainted with the locality in which he now found himself. The tracks from the station stretched away through a lot of farm land for about a converse of a position, was totally unacquaintee with the locality in which he now found himself. The tracks from the station stretched away through a lot of farm land for about a quarter of a mile and then disappeared in the center of a dense forest of fir and spruce. The first night that the new Pooh Bahwas in charge he had just finished taking orders for a train that would pass the station about 11 o'clock, and he stepped to the station door to glance down the tracks. Far down at the edge of the woods that loomed up black against the lighter gray sky of the summer night, he saw a bright light, and, thinking it must be some special train that he did not know about, turned the lever of the semaphore and again stepped inside the office. Just as he did so the superintendent at the next station, who had been out driving with his wife, entered the main office door to inquire if all was well, and how the new man was getting along. The operator spoke of the special train that was coming up the tracks, and the "super" looked puzzled and went to the door.

"What special train do you mean." he asked. "I see none."

"Why, there it is, down by the black woods; don't you see the headlight?" see plied the operator.

"Headlight be hanged!" growled the official. "That's the moon rising through the woods at the end of the tracks."—Boston Herald.
