READING DEAL BROKEN.

LEHIGH VALLEY IS ONCE MORE AN INDEPENDENT RAILROAD.

Corrupt Reading Could Not Pay Its Bills and Is Now Alone With Its Troubles and Debts—Rumors of the Valley Amalgamating With the Pennsy.

The lease which has existed between the Lehigh Valley Railroad and the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Companies since February, 1892, has abrogated by the former corporation. The directors of the former company at their meeting in Philadelphia on Tuesday voted to notify the Reading Company of its action on the ground that the Reading owned the Lehigh Valley Company a considerable sum of money on account of the lease, which it was impossible to collect. The resignation of Elisha P. Wilbur as a receiver of the Reading Company, who is also president of the Lehigh Valley Company, accompanied this notice.

The money due the Lehigh Valley is said to be for material bills and other current expenses, which should have been paid promptly. The Reading board of managers accepted the proposition of the board of Lehigh Valley without dissent and the matter was taken before Judge Dallas, of the United States court. As there was no opposition, he made the necessary order, which terminated the contract between the two companies. This order also breaks all contracts between the Lehigh Valley Coal Company and the Reading Coal and Iron Company.

Early in the day Mr. Wilbur resigned his position as receiver of the Reading Railroad Company, and during the afternoon Judge Dallas appointed John Lower Welsh to fill the vacancy.

PARTED HARMONIOUSLY.

It is said that the two companies part their business relations harmoniously. It has been recognized for some time that in the present state of Reading's finances that company was unable to maintain the lease of the Lehigh Valley and its monetary and business obligations, which require a large outlay of capital. Both Reading and Lehigh Valley officials have also recognized the fact that if the Reading Company could maintain the lease, it would eventually be advantageous to both corporations, especially the Reading. It was found some months ago to be impossible and the step now taken is not unexpected by those who have been informed on Lehigh Valley and Reading affairs.

The rumors about the financial condition of the Lehigh Valley, to the effect that there might be a receivership, was denied by well informed parties. The Lehigh Valley, it is well known, has a floating debt of $4,000,000, but it is in no way a pressing debt, as it is well secured and can be easily taken care of by the company.

WHAT THE VALLEY WILL DO.

What the Lehigh Valley Company will do cannot yet be ascertained. The officials of the company say they will operate the road, but it is stated that as soon as plans can be prepared a lease or some binding contract will be entered into which will in some way make the relations between the Valley and the New York and New England Railroad Companies stronger than they ever have been.

It is also rumored that the Pennsylvania Railroad will become the possessor of the Lehigh Valley, as this acquisition would give it a shorter haul to New York, and open up a territory which has for years been given exclusively to the Lehigh Valley and Reading Companies. It is now believed if McLeod does not lease the road through the New England Company that in time it will be controlled by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company.

PLEASED WITH THE BREAK.

Reports received from Mauch Chunk, Hazleton, Easton, Pottsville and other points interested in the prosperity of the Lehigh Valley Railroad were to the effect that there was general rejoicing over the termination of the lease. At Mauch Chunk the old Lehigh Valley flag was again sent to the breeze and much enthusiasm was manifested. In Pottsville it was believed the Lehigh Valley will now develop its own lands and insure greater prosperity for the lower Schuylkill coal region. The workmen and railroaders are particularly gratified with the change.

They Will Get Her Consent Next Time.

A girl in Chicago has recovered $500 damages from a steamboat company for naming a boat after her without asking her permission. An exchange says she took offense at a mariner item stating that "Kittie Marshall, having been thoroughly scrubbed, painted, perfumed with canopied stern and new boilers, will hereafter serve as a mail carrier and poke her pretty nose into the lake business for all she's worth."

COUNTING ON DULLARD.

He Is Sure, Says an Exchange, to Be Nominated for Commissioner.

From the Wilkes-Barre Times.
That the interview in the Times recently with a veteran Democrat in which he presented the claims of Alexander and Brislin as against those of McGarry and some other man, for the offices of treasurer and register, was not based on flimsy calculation or personal favoritism is foreshadowed in a prophecy made to the "Saunterer," a regular writer for the FREELAND TRIBUNE, as to the complexion of the ticket that will be named by the Democratic convention.

"When the 'Saunterer's' article was shown to the gentleman first interviewed by the Times, he said: 'I am not surprised that the lower end prophets should forecast such a result. I think he is off, however, in his makeup of county commissioners.' 'What is your idea as to that part of the ticket?' asked the scribe. 'I am pretty certain as to one man. He is Tom Dullard. I know that the leaders are against him and will work for his defeat in the convention.' 'Why is that?'

"One reason is that they think Dullard's candidacy will affect McGarry's," he replied.

"Do you think Dullard is strong enough to make the fight?" "Yes, I do. He had a heap of friends before he went into office and he has made many new ones since. The old will stick to him and the new will do their best for him."

"How did he come to make new friends?" asked the scribe.

"Simply by attending strictly to the business of the office. You could always find Dullard in his place and no official was ever more obliging and courteous."

"Does he still hold agreeable relations with the workmen?"

"He is as strong as ever with them and it is his influence particularly that will help him in this year's fight. Dullard has got some pretty big men in the Democratic party behind him too."

Battle With Snakes.

An awful battle with rattlesnakes and copperheads was fought by three men at Brush Valley, near Mt. Carmel, on Monday. While hunting on the mountain near Brush Valley, Schardel Weist, Arron Mummah and John Orwig went through an experience calculated to raise their hair and set all their nerves twitching. Weist fell down through a hole in the ground that was screened by a clump of bushes, upon a very big nest of reptiles.

Before the startled snakes had recovered from their surprise, Weist drew quickly away from them, and fired a shot into their midst. He then started to beat them with the stock of his gun. He now he was in great danger, and yelled for help. Weist was nearly exhausted when Mummah and Orwig came to the rescue, and fired so many shots that the snakes gave up the battle. Thirty-two rattlesnakes and three copperheads were killed.

One of the Founders of the K. of L. Dead.

The death of James L. Wright, one of the founders of the Knights of Labor, at his home in Philadelphia, has been announced. Mr. Wright was 70 years old. He was born in the province of Ulster, Ireland. His ancestors were of Scotch-Irish descent. When quite young his parents emigrated to the United States and settled in Philadelphia.

Mr. Wright with six others founded the Knights of Labor in 1869, the formation being due to a division in the Association of Garment Cutters, the parent organization. In 1891 he was expelled from the organization, being charged with attempting to change the order to a visionary association. He explained his position and was then reinstated.

Hines Took a Front Seat.

In the selection of seats at the opening of congress on Monday the Pennsylvania Democratic representatives fared very well with a few exceptions. Hines was the first called and he selected a very prominent seat in the second row from the front on the Democratic side. If he carries out his reputation made in the state senate he will be a frequent applicant for the speaker's recognition.

Hines' opinion of the president's message, after he had heard it read, was that Cleveland "had handled the question in an admirable manner, exposing the dangers of the Sherman law with striking effectiveness."

WORK OF THE COUNCIL.

MATTERS OF INTEREST TO THE BOROUGH ACTED UPON.

Chief of the Fire Department Reports a Plug Out of Order—A Committee Unable to Agree With the Water Company—More Sewers to Be Laid.

The borough council met in regular session on Monday evening with Messrs. Williamson, McLaughlin, Moore, DePiero, Fritzinger and Rutter present. The following bills were read and approved:

Cody Boyle, feeding prisoners.....$ 1 50
Coxe Bros. & Co. box of explosives..... 2 00
Condy Boyle, janitor..... 12 00
Fenna, Globe Gaslight Co..... 40 63

The treasurer's report was read as follows:
Balance July 1.....$1,382 57
Received from street commissioner..... 1 20

Paid out on orders..... 930 77
Balance July 31.....$ 452 86

The reports of the burgess for June and July were read, and the report for June was laid over as to receipts and expenditures. The police report for June, as well as July, was ordered paid. The report for July was accepted.

The following amounts were presented for police service for June and July: Wm. Fritzinger, $14.00; Patrick Welsh, $14.00; Daniel Gallagher, $11.00; James M. Gallagher, $8.00; James Kennedy, $4.00; Patrick McLaughlin, $7.00; T. A. Buckley, one hearing, $1.25; total $59.25.

Complaint was made by the chief of the fire department that the plug on the corner of Front and Ridge streets was broken and unable to be used for the past four months. It was decided to withhold the payment for that length of time from the next quarter's rent of plugs. The Water Company was instructed to place a plug at Ridge and Chestnut streets.

The report of the committee which viewed the ground required to be fenced by the Water Company was presented. They reported that the Water Company insisted upon having 135x150 feet of the eastern portion of the park fenced, in a line with Birkbeck street, and that they did not favor such a proposition, but recommended that the fence and ditch be run at an angle so as not to take in so much ground. It was decided that the committee stake off what it thinks is proper, and if that is not satisfactory to the Water Company they can appear before council and state what they do want.

The report of the borough solicitor on the Johnson street matter was read. The report was accompanied with a map of the original road as laid out in 1871, showing that the road at that time was laid out and confirmed by the court at a uniform width of fifty feet. It was agreed that the borough surveyor be instructed to run the lines over the tract and locate the centre of the streets which the old road passed through the borough.

The question of opening up more sewers was taken up. It was decided to open Walnut and Front streets a distance of 639 feet, and to begin on Walnut street at once.

The president appointed a committee consisting of E. W. Rutter, Thomas J. Moore and Frank DePiero to see parties holding sewer bonds maturing in November next, with a view to have them hold the same until next May, and also to devise ways and means to complete the two streets named above. They are to report to the president on or before the next regular meeting.

The street commissioner's bill for work on sewers for month of July having been allowed at the last special meeting was not read. It amounts to $340.00.

A Blessing to Thousands.

Years of study, experiment and scientific investigation have given the world Hill's chloride of gold tablets, the only sure cure for the tobacco habit known. They have proved a great blessing to the thousands who have found health and new life through them, and the testimonials received breathe the sentiments of grateful thanks. They are sold by all leading druggists.

Lutheran Day at Glen Onoko.

The excursion of the Lutheran congregation of the Lehigh Valley to Glen Onoko took place yesterday. Nearly all the towns of the Lehigh Valley were represented. The morning exercise began at 10 o'clock a. m. Rev. Kislack, of St. Peter and Paul's Slavonian church, Freeland, led in the opening in German. Rev. Wecknagel, D. D., of Muhlenberg college, spoke on German foreign missions, and Rev. R. Howe, D. D., of Allentown, in English on education. Rev. E. A. Bauer, of Leighton, closed with prayer.

In the afternoon session Rev. Nelson F. Schmidt led in prayer. Rev. G. P. Muller, of Germantown, spoke on the Lutheran Orphans' Home, and gave a very interesting history of the institution. He spoke of how they work and what they are doing at the Home in Germantown. Rev. W. J. Passavant, Jr., of Pittsburg, general superintendent of home missions of the general council of Lutheran Church of North America, was invited to be present but could not attend. Rev. H. H. Bruening, Ph. D., of White Haven, took his place and gave a very interesting lecture.

Rev. Biemuller, of Freeland, was called upon to give some information of the labors and life of the home missionaries in the northwest. The closing prayer was given by Rev. Hanneman, of Tamaqua, in German. The session passed off very pleasantly.
