FROM SUBURBAN POINTS.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE OF NEIGHBORING TOWNS.

"Tribune" Reporters Gather Up the Latest Items in the Towns of Drifton, Jeddo and Upper Lehigh—A Column of Notes from Our Neighbors.

Special and regular correspondence from the surrounding towns is solicited by the TRIBUNE. Communications or items intended for publication must be accompanied by the name of the writer.

JEDDO NEWS.

One of our young men came home one evening last week with a valuable prize on the end of a rope in the shape of a dog that he found somewhere. As the dog was a fine looking animal, he went to the dog from going away. They fed it on molasses, meat, cake and everything that they thought would coax him to stay. The next morning he went out to inspect the dog only to find the poor animal had no tail and he is kicking himself since because the dog won't go away. He says the owner can have it by calling and no charge will be made for the molasses, etc.

A heavy brush fire raged furiously all day yesterday in the vicinity of Pinkash.

Miss Kate Quigley, of Philadelphia, is at home on a visit.

Patrick Timony had a leg sprained while at work on Friday.

Miss Ella Mulligan, of Philadelphia, is here on a vacation.

Dennis Burns, a laborer in No. 5 slope, Pinkash, had his hand injured by having a pick run into it.

Miss Kate Harkins, of Philadelphia, is at home visiting her parents.

Walter Hindemach is now employed as a bookkeeper here.

Peter McMonigle is on a trip to New York city.

A force of men are improving the streets in Japan.

George Wise, Sr., is on a trip to the World's fair.

A. P. Goedecke and N. B. E. Peters left on Saturday evening for the World's fair.

Water is pretty scarce in this place at present.

The carpenters working at No. 2 Oakdale b.eaker are making rapid progress. It is said that No. 5 Pinkash colliery will be the star colliery in the region for shipping coal before another year.

Bernard McCafferty, of Bridgeport, Pa., is spending a few days here with friends.

We have a few scamps in and about town, if what several of our young ladies say is true, that deserve to be whitecapped for the insulting language they use toward people whom they meet on the street after dark. These young men will come to the end of their rope before long if they keep on.

DRIFTON ITEMS.

Perry Wentz and Louis Ortoner returned from the World's fair on Friday evening.

Mrs. David Hughes, of Hazleton, was among the visitors here last week.

Miss Maggie Murphy, of Mahanoy City, spent a few days here with friends last week.

George Birkbeck bairied a two-year-old child on Friday.

Mrs. John Robert, of New Buckmountain, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Williams, at No. 2.

There is a rumor through town that two of the most prominent members of the Fearnots base ball club have accepted positions as night watchmen in a lace factory at Philadelphia.

The Sons of Rest boast of a large membership here.

Drifton is furnishing more visitors to the World's fair than any town of its size in the region.

Patrick Gillespie received a severe kick on the right leg from a mule which he was passing in No. 2 slope on Thursday afternoon.

On Saturday evening the Fearnots Association will hold a picnic at the ball park and the young men will be liberally patronized by the people of town. They are arranging to play a game in the afternoon with a strong club, and this will prove an inducement. The picnic will commence early and DePierro's orchestra will be present.

UPPER LEHIGH NOTES.

Mrs. Edward Collitt, who resided a number of years ago at No. 3, called on friends and acquaintances last week.

Miss Sallie Boyer celebrated her eighteenth birthday by tendering to her many friends a party at the residence of her parents last week. Krommes' full orchestra furnished the music for the occasion.

An ice cream festival will be given by the Christian Endeavors in the Presbyterian church basement on Friday evening.

James Rhoda, Jr., had his hand injured last week.

A. J. Keenan and George McGee are now employed under Markle & Co. at No. 5 Pinkash, Jeddo.

The struggle to be a delegate to the Democratic county convention is now being pushed with great vigor.

ECKLEY CLIPPINGS.

A eucher party was held at the residence of John Sneddon Saturday evening. Games and amusements of all kinds were played. At 11 o'clock all partook of an elegant lunch, consisting of all the delicacies of the season, after which they departed for their homes well pleased with their evening of amusement. Among those present were: Miss Mame Brelsford, of Freeland, Miss Ray and Lizzie James, Calvin Sheidy and Ben Reynolds, of Freeland, John James and Wm. Werbaugh.

Miss Kate Hill, of Hazleton, Sundayed in town with relatives.

Mrs. George John, of Reading, is visiting her parents here.

Ben Reynolds, of Freeland, visited in town yesterday.

John James was with friends at Lattimer yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. David James Sundayed at Freeland and attended the dedication exercises of the Baptist church there.

C. H. Hill and wife, of Hazleton, Sundayed in town.

Miss Lizzie James has returned to Kutztown normal school, after spending a vacation with her parents.

The funeral of Jennie Reed was largely attended Saturday afternoon. Service was held in the Episcopal church by Rev. Twing. Jennie was a favorite among all her playmates and was very well thought of by all that knew her.

BUSINESS BRIEFS.

Try Fackler's home-made bread and rolls—baked fresh every morning.

Picnics supplied with ice cream, cakes, etc., by Laubach at reasonable rates.

If you want a happy home get your wife a box of "Orange Blossom." Sold by Amandus Oswald.

To bake good bread only the best flour should be used. Washburn brand leads all others. Sold only by B. F. Davis.

Air Brakes for Electric Cars.

Inventive genius bids fair to annihilate many of the dangers connected with the operation of electric railroads. A Boston man has invented an air-brake which is in successful operation on street cars in that city. Cars can be stopped instantly, so suddenly as to throw passengers from their seats. What this means in the avoidance of accidents on streets can be easily seen. The cost of the device is said to be $200 for each car, but doubtless those figures would be much reduced on a large contract.

Yesterday's Ball Game.

At the end of the fifth inning of a game of ball at the park yesterday between the Jeanesville Stars and the Tigers the manager of the former club called his team off the field and refused to continue the game. Shortly before this an argument over Umpire Donohue's decision took place, but the Stars were given the point and their action in leaving the field was a surprise. The score was 15 to 13 in favor of the Stars, but as they refused to play Umpire McKinley gave the game to the Tigers, 9 to 0.

Will Be Laid This Afternoon.

The corner stone of the Welsh Baptist church will be laid at 2.30 o'clock today. Services were held yesterday at 2 and 7 p. m. The church was crowded, and addresses were made by Rev. Morton, Evans and others.

Rev. Henry Lewis, of Swansea, Wales, will be present this afternoon and conduct the ceremonies of the corner stone laying.

Will Use "Pennys" Tracks.

It is stated on what is regarded as excellent authority that the Lehigh Valley Railroad will begin about August 26 running its trains into Jersey City over the Pennsylvania Road from East Newark. This was the route used by the Lehigh Valley prior to the Reading lease.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.

When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.

When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

LEHIGH VALLEY RULES.

Result of the Conference Held With Vice President Voorhees.

As a result of the recent conference between employees of the Lehigh Valley Railroad and Theodore Voorhees, vice president of the Reading, the latter has addressed a letter to the general superintendent of the eastern division, in which he sets forth certain rules governing the employment of the men. Though the Lehigh Valley is no longer under the Reading's control, it is stated that the conclusions reached at the conference will be observed by the Lehigh Valley. Following is the substance of the concessions:

From August 1 the pay of locomotive engineers on the eastern division shall be $2.70 per day, from promotion; during the second six months, $3 per day; after the first year, $3.25 per day; engineers in the yard service, $3 per day. Mine engineers will be classed as yard service, and work and gravel train engineers as road service, and take road hours.

No employes shall be suspended without a hearing and investigation. If found blameless they shall be paid in full for lost time.

Any employe dissatisfied with the decision of any official shall have the right to appeal to the general superintendent, after having first submitted his case to the division superintendent.

No employe shall be asked to make an extra trip after working twenty consecutive hours, without having at least eight hours rest, except in case of a wreck or washout.

In making promotions, where merit is equal, seniority shall have the preference.

Engineers and firemen who go out between 10 p. m. and 6 a. m., irregularly, shall be called not more than one and a half hours before leaving time.

Crews shall be called as nearly as possible one hour before leaving time.

No conductor shall be compelled to take out more than one inexperienced brakeman on any train.

When conductors and firemen leave the service of the company, a letter shall be given them, if they so desire, stating their time of service and the capacity in which they were employed.

At relay offices where two or more operators are employed, ten hours shall constitute a day's work for day operators; at other than relay offices, where two or more operators are employed, twelve hours (including meal hours) shall constitute a day's work.

An Interesting Occasion.

Bar Harbor, Me., August 11. The birthday of Miss Ellie Boyle, of Freeland, was the occasion of an enjoyable tea on the evening of August 10. Miss Boyle is spending the summer months at York Harbor, Maine, but, though far from home the celebration of the eventful day was eminently successful. As there were no formal invitations, guests were not as numerous as they might have been, but those who were present manifested much good will and respect for the fair heroine of the occasion.

At 7.30 p. m. the company sat down to tea. The table, which had been arranged under the able supervision of Miss Bid Dugan, presented an appetizing spectacle. The fish, fresh from the cool blue depths of the York river, were much enjoyed. The cake was the centre of interest, and certain articles found embedded therein caused much merriment.

The principal guests were: Mrs. Vowdy, Mr. Chas. Vowdy, Miss Veenie Vowdy, and Mr. Horace Young, of York; Miss Bid Dugan, Miss Mary C. Morgan and Mrs. E. G. Miller.

The remainder of the evening was spent on the water after which ice cream was partaken of and the company dispersed with many good wishes for the health and happiness of Miss Boyle.

Miss Boyle was the recipient of a handsome Japanese vase, a china tea pot, and a quaint cup and saucer, also a handsome souvenir of the Isles of Shoals.

P. O. S. of A. Meeting.

The twenty-eight annual session of the state camp, P. O. S. of A., will be held at Chester, commencing Tuesday next, and as the time draws near candidates for state officers are becoming quite numerous. The following have thus far announced themselves: For President, F. G. Hobson, of Iron Bridge, and Major R. M. Reed, of Philadelphia; for vice president, P. M. McKee, of Allegheny; H. F. Kaehlea, of Scranton, and H. E. Ritter, of Liverpool; for master of forms, Wm. F. Frantz, of Lebanon.

Treasurer Irwin S. Smith, of Reading, and Secretary Wm. Weand, of Philadelphia will each be candidates for reelection. Wilkes-Barre, Easton and Allentown will each make a strong fight for the state camp sessions of 1894.

A Miraculous Escape.

From the Sentinel. John Lyman the large and good natured conductor on a passenger train on the Lehigh Valley Railroad running between this city and Freeland had a narrow escape from instant death on Thursday. The Lumber Yard was the scene of the almost fatal accident.

John was engaged in flagging a freight train which was backing towards him and on the track he was standing. Failing to move quickly enough the bumper of the front car struck him on the shoulder. The force of the collision knocked him into the ditch. Had he been knocked down on the spot where he stood the cars would have passed over him and death would have been the result.

Novelties Made of Coal.

James Cunningham's coal goods factory, at Summit Hill, is turning out large orders for the World's fair. The goods are handled in the fair building by John Evans, a former resident of Summit Hill, who has a position in the mining department. Mr. Evans reports that they are selling quite freely.

He experiences much difficulty to convince western people that the articles, which consist of all sorts of useful and ornamental novelties, are in reality manufactured from pure anthracite. The statement is too astounding to them to believe, and even some of the directors of the fair considered the business a fake and at first refused to give Mr. Evans a stand on which to exhibit.

Hung Herself to a Door.

Mrs. Mary Bearholter committed suicide on Thursday at her home in Hazleton by hanging herself to her bed-room door. Mrs. Bearholter was of advanced age and had a family of grown-up children, with one of whom, Mrs. Balliet, she resided since the death of her husband. Four months ago she was persuaded to sell some of her property.

The transfer was not satisfactory to Mrs. Bearholter and the idea that she had wronged her children took possession of her mind. Melancholia developed and while suffering she went to her room and taking a piece of dress goods hung herself. Her little grandchild was the first to discover the lifeless form hanging to the door.

An Interesting Paper.

The Hazleton Plain Speaker is getting to be quite an interesting paper of late, and should be above stooping to petty things. We congratulate it upon its good selection of matter when it reprints our Highland and Eckley correspondence and a half-column of Freeland news, but an acknowledgement from where it obtained all this information would only be just. The TRIBUNE has no intention of charging it space rates.

Jr. O. U. A. M. State Convention.

The annual convention of the Jr. O. U. A. M., of Pennsylvania, will be held at Johnstown in September, and on the nineteenth of that month the annual parade will take place. The convention will be in session four days, and 1,200 delegates are expected. One of the important contests at the convention will be the election of a representative to the national convention.

List of Patents.

Among the patents granted to Pennsylvania inventors last week, reported by C. A. Snow & Co., Washington, D. C., were the following:

J. Beadle, Shickshinny, miner's squib; F. J. Keck, Allentown, window-chair; T. R. McEachen, Scranton, apparatus for drilling walls; J. W. Sargent, Scranton, steam engine.

Feast of the Assumption.

Tomorrow being one of the important holidays of the Catholic church, the Feast of the Assumption, mass will be read at St. Ann's church at 7.30 and at 9 a. m. and devotions at 7 p. m.

At St. Kasimer's Polish church mass will be read at 9 a. m.

Rev. Joseph Ligday, of Nanticoke, will celebrate mass at St. John's Slavonian church at 8 and 10 o'clock, tomorrow morning.

So that every one suffering from catarrh or chronic diseases of any kind that have baffled the treatment of other physicians, may avail themselves of this offer.

If any of the following questions apply to you, you had better answer them at once.

They apply to a great many people in Freeland and vicinity who really do not know what the matter with them. Whoever reads this will be able to determine if they have catarrh for these are some of the prominent symptoms of that dread disease, which means, if neglected, consumption and the grave. Below are the questions.

Are you nervous? Are you dejected? Have you a cough? Is your throat sore? Is your eyesight poor? Is your memory poor? Is your appetite poor? Do you hawk and spit? Is your stomach weak? Are your eyes watery? Do you have headaches? Have you lost ambition? Do you take cold easily? Do you have heartburn? Are you dull and stupid? Is your nose stopped up? Is it always full of scales? Is your breath offensive? Are your bowels costive? Is your hearing affected? Do you have shooting pains? Does life seem a big burden? Are you cranky and irritable? Is your throat easily irritated? Are you sleepless and restless? Do you wake up tired and stiff? Do you have pain in your back? Do you have smothering attacks? Do you have unpleasant dreams? Have you ever had night sweats? Do your hair ring in your ears? Do you feel sick and full after eating? Is your tongue frequently coated? Do you have roaring in your ears? Do you feel palpitation of the heart? Is there a sense of fullness in the throat? Is your mouth full of slime upon rising? Do you belch up sour taste in the mouth? Do you see spots floating before your eyes? Have you hot and cold flashes over the body? Have you bloated or feeling in the stomach? DR. RIEGEL, Mans' Block, West Broad Street, Hazleton, Pa.
