A Dog With Two Legs

From the Sentinel. S. M. Woodring, of Drums, is the owner of a two-weeks-old pup that only has two legs. They are hind legs. The dog is known as a beagle. It is well developed and is healthy looking for its age. The animal now creeps about on age. The animal now creeps about on the floor.' Mr. Woodring thinks that when it grows larger and stronger it will be able to walk about on its two hind legs Many people have visited Mr. Woodring's home in order to see the strange freak of nature. A dime museum ha already offered the owner a neat sum to place the dog on exhibition, but he has refused all offers.

Married on Tuesday. At St. Ann's church on Tuesday after noon Edward J. Doggett and Miss Han-nah Dougherty were married by Rev. M. J. Fallihee. The groomsman was William Doggett, a brother of the groom, and Miss Kate Fallon, of Hagleton, was the bridesmaid. After a pleasant drive the party returned to the residence of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Brennan, on Main street, where they received the congrat-ulations of their friends. Both young people start life with the best regards for success from all who know them. Democrats Organize for the Campaig The Democratic candidates for county healthy offices met on Tuesday at Wilkes-Barre to perfect an organization for the cam-paign. All the candidates were present and discussed the situation thoroughly. J. C. Weigand, the prothonotary, was
