A Runaway.

From the Standard.

Robert Huntzinger and Anthony Ferry, better known as Kid, of Silver Brook, hired a horse and buggy at Kunkle's livery stable, and started out for a drive.

In some manner the horse became frightened and ran away near Ebervale, breaking the buggy and throwing the occupants out. Huntzinger was picked up some time afterwards at the Ebervale store, by Undertaker Brislin, of Freeland, in an unconscious condition, who, after considerable shaking, restored him to consciousness, and brought him to this city.

It was at first thought that he was seriously and perhaps fatally injured, but in a short while he regained consciousness and said he felt all right. He, however, is somewhat bruised and scratched about the body, face and hands. To a reporter he stated that it was Ferry's fault that the horse ran away.

Ferry was captured at the Harleigh hotel by Henry Kunkle, who took the horse and what was left of the buggy away from him. Huntzinger had a watch and some money in his clothes, which was taken by Ferry.

They will probably be arrested unless they settle for the damages incurred.

Asthma Cured by Lightning.

During the storm which swept over the Wyoming valley Friday afternoon, a Mrs. Siegfritz, of Pond Hill, and her family were seated around the kitchen stove. Lightning struck the house, and descended through the chimney to the stove and thence to the floor.

Those around the stove were shocked into insensibility and a large strip of oil cloth on the floor was torn into shreds. On recovering it was found that one of the children had a shoe torn off and the foot burned, and a boy who was suffering for years from asthma found himself completely relieved of the disease.

A Big Electric Road.

A big traction company, of Scranton, known as the Scranton and Pittston Traction Company, was chartered at Harrisburg Friday. The capital is $1,000,000.

The incorporators are Thomas Grimwood, New York; Charles H. Mullen, Mount Holly Springs; William F. Sadler, Carlisle; John T. Lenahan, Wilkes-Barre; Lemuel Amerman, Scranton; Louis A. Watres, Scranton.

Work was also begun upon another big trolley road to connect Nanticoke, Glen Lyon, Alden and Wanamie.

They Used Beer Glasses.

Batiste and Masino Marchette, two brothers boarding on Main street met Daniel Enama, in a saloon in the Points on Saturday night. They quarrelled about some trifling matter and Enama got struck with a beer glass on the head.

Dr. McDonald dressed the wound, putting eight stitches in it. Enama swore out a warrant before Squire Buckley for the arrest of the Marchettes. At the hearing they were held to await the result of Enama's injuries. John Yannes became their bondsman.

Kicked by a Horse.

Patrick Carey, Jr., a six-year-old son of Patrick Carey, of Centre street, Five Points, while playing in the rear of his father's residence on Saturday morning was kicked by a vicious horse owned by the Freeland Beef Co. The boy's face is badly disfigured, and his skull fractured. The horse was lost and was grazing on the vacant lots when the accident occurred. The physicians have very poor hopes of the child's recovery.

An Abstruse Quotation.

World's Fair Prizes.

Four great choirs sang in Festival hall at the World's fair on Friday in the chief choral competition of the Columbian esteddfod. Fruits of Advertising.

Advertising pays, whether it is to make known bargains or find strayed Hungarians. An incident of the latter is at hand. The notice which appeared in the last two issues of the TRIBUNE, requesting information about Geo. Mager, of Upper Lehigh, was read by everyone who picked up the paper. It had the expected result.
