FREELAND, SEPTEMBER 21, 1893.

Negroes in Mexico.
A Mexican paper not long ago published an article calling on the negroes, who found themselves in uncomfortable social and political circumstances in the United States, to come to that country, where, it assured them, they would be gladly received on a plane of entire social equality, and could make a good living with the greatest ease. It appears that this paper only expressed its own individual opinion, for the Two Republics takes it up and says the scheme is impracticable and the assurances untrue. It says that the Mexican government is not likely to look with favor on any very large immigration of a people who aspire, as their history shows the negroes do, to take a hand in the government of the country, and who might aspire to revolutionize the part of Mexico where they settled and set up an Afro-Mexican government; and it says that Mexicans are not by any means free of a race prejudice against the negroes, as became very apparent a few years ago when the government made a contract authorizing negro colonization on a limited scale.

Appropriate Nicknames.
Down in Marblehead, Mass., nearly every one has a nickname. The Boston Journal states that on the wharf the other night a jolly summer tar suggested that the thinking cap be donned and somebody should keep score. When remembrance was exhausted and the list was footed up of everybody that could be thought of who bore a nickname the sum total was found to be but a couple short of one hundred and fifty. A veteran boatman, whose never limbs describe almost a circle, is given the euphonious appellation of "Ice-Tongs," and answers to it now among his friends congenial as readily as to his own family patronymic. Another townsman who walks stiffly along the winding streets with both arms hanging straight down before him is hailed as "Half-Past-Six," both hands down, you know.

The Feared Fly.
A fly will lay four times during the summer, about eighty eggs each time, and careful calculations have demonstrated that the descendants of a single insect may from June 1 to the end of September exceed two million. Were it not for bats, insect-eating birds and the innumerable microscopic parasites with which the fly is particularly afflicted there would be no worse pest in the world than the fly.

Drawn as Jurymen.
The following have been drawn to serve as jurymen at the court of quarter sessions for the week commencing November 13: Owen Fowler, Joseph Neuberger, Freeland; Bernard Gallagher, David Handlong, Thomas Scott, Foster; J. M. Cumin, W. A. Straw, Butler.

A. A. Bowen and John J. Mooney, of Jeddo, and Thomas Butler, of Butler, have been drawn for November 20.

Papering and Painting.
A. A. Bachman, having purchased the Gibbon property, near the Central Hotel, (Watkins' old stand) and fitted it up, has on hand a large and varied stock of wall paper, paints, etc.

Wall paper from 8 cents a double roll up. Painting and paperhanging done on short notice and by good workmen. Call and see samples.

READ THE TESTIMONY

Of One Who Suffered Years and Tried Many Physicians Both of Philadelphia and New York

WITHOUT GETTING RELIEF. AND IS NOW CURED BY DR. RIEGEL.

I have been a sufferer for a number of years with catarrh in its worst forms. Had constant headaches, matter dropping in the throat, dizziness, nose stopped up, difficulty in breathing and no doubt would soon have been a consumptive, had I not met Dr. Riegel.

Before that time I had tried every well-known remedy and doctored with many physicians, not only of Hazleton but of New York and Philadelphia, but could get no relief anywhere. As soon as Dr. Riegel began treating me I felt relieved and continued to improve until now I feel like a new man, and knowing that there are many others suffering as much as I did I write this for publication, so that others may avail themselves of Dr. Riegel's treatment before it is too late. He can cure you if you take it in time.

I am willing to answer any letters of inquiry from persons wishing to consult him. James McCool, 189 North Wyoming Street, Hazleton, Pa.

Hereafter Dr. Riegel, the leading specialist in catarrh and all chronic diseases, will be at the Central Hotel, Freeland, THREE DAYS A WEEK ONLY.

Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, FROM 10 A. M. TO 2 P. M., and from 8.30 TO 10 P. M.

Office hours at Hazleton, same days, from 3 to 8 p. m.
