LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE OF NEIGHBORING TOWNS.

Items of News, Bits of Gossip and Readable Personals Sent in Today by Our Bright Correspondents at Jeddo and Drifton.

Special and regular correspondence from the surrounding towns is solicited by the TRIBUNE. Communications or items intended for publication must be accompanied by the name of the writer.

JEDDO NEWS.

The chestnut season is in and the small boys are having a delightful time wandering through the woods, climbing trees and gathering them.

Neil Dagan, one of our young men who is a student at Villa Nova college, and returned home on account of illness, is able to be around again.

Michael Lynch, of Harleigh, and James Heenan, of Lattimer, were in town an evening last week.

Daniel Roarty, who was injured in No. 5 slope last week by a fall of coal, is recovering slowly at Hazleton hospital.

It was not so much the dog and gun as the spade and basket that furnished pastime for our residents last week. The crops on the whole are very good in this section.

The collieries were idle here several days last week for want of cars.

The company of this place deserves praise for the comfort they are trying to give their employes by repairing the houses before winter sets in. A large gang of men have been employed all summer at this work and now the borough is to have sidewalks and other improvements.

Several of our play-goers attend the opera house at Hazleton pretty regular. We wonder if such plays as the "Country Circus" is their chief attraction?

One of our young men bought a dog for $3.00 last week and the animal killed some fowl the first day at his new home. That evening a young man, a gun and a dog on a rope were seen going up the hill toward Drifton. The animal was tied to a tree, the young man took deadly aim and shot the rope in two, and the dog started for his former home at a rapid gait unharmed. No reward will be offered for his return.

DRIFTON ITEMS.

Rev. J. P. Buxton, of St. James' P. E. church, is enjoying the World's fair this week.

Last week the collieries made full time and the prospects for steady work during the fall and winter months are very good.

On Thursday Neil Boyle moved his family from this place to Silver Brook. A farewell party was given them on the evening previous in which many of our residents took part.

Mrs. Kellar, who is now a resident of Virginia, is here on a short visit to her mother, Mrs. Kessel.

William Brogan, who has been in the western states for a year or more, was here visiting his parents last week.

Rumor has it that William Iles, of Oneida, who is now off on a trip to the World's fair, will succeed P. M. Boyle as mine foreman at No. 2 slope when he returns.

Harry Jones, who held the position of hostler at the local house, resigned and left for the Wyoming region last week. Peter Carr, a local engineer, succeeds him.

E. A. Oberender and wife and Samuel Salmons and wife are off on a trip to Chicago.

E. J. Sweeney was called to Allentown last week, where his mother is lying dangerously ill.

Evans Reese moved his family to Plymouth on Thursday.

Miss Lizzie Edmunds is lying very ill at the residence of her parents.

The Fearnots presented their catcher, Patrick Boyle, with a handsome gold temperance badge the evening before his removal from here to Silver Brook.

Miss Bridget McGeehan, one of our accomplished young ladies, who was lying dangerously ill, is able to be around again.

A large delegation will leave here tomorrow to take part in the parade at Wilkes-Barre.

Two new cabooses came in for the D. S. & S. last week.

Miss Ellie O'Donnell, of Wilkes-Barre, is here visiting her parents.

James Ferry, of Freeland, who is a local fireman here, had his ankle sprained one day last week by a ladder slipping from under him in the ware house at No. 2.

Young Men's Ball.

The sixth annual ball of the Young Men's T. A. B. Society, which will be held tomorrow evening at Freeland opera house, promises to be the most successful yet given by the society. The members are decorating the opera house in a beautiful manner for the occasion. DePiero's orchestra will be present, and as an additional attraction the society has secured the services of both bands of town to entertain the visitors who do not dance.

During the first intermission the St. Patrick's band will render the following pieces:

Overture.....(H. C. Miller
"World's Columbian Exposition."
Waltz.....(W. S. Ripley
"Twilight Hours."
Schottische.....(H. Round
"Bright and Bewitching."

After the above the Mayberry band will play the following:

Overture.....(Von Suppe
"Poet and Peasant."
"Sleep, Gentle Lady".....(H. R. Bishop Overture.....(F. L. Griswold
"Arie Adieu."

The admission to the ball and musical entertainment is 50 cents.

Thieves About.

On Friday night some parties stole two rocking chairs and a quantity of flower pots from the porch of C. O. Stroh, Thomas Powell and Dr. A. S. McKnight, on East Main street. The night being wet the foot-prints of a person were followed from the porch across the street to the sidewalk, but further traces of them were lost.

A search warrant was sworn out by Mr. Stroh on Saturday to search certain houses, but after doing so Constable Quigley found nothing. The chairs stood on the porch all summer and nothing was missed until Friday evening.

Leg Broken.

While returning home on Saturday evening a team of horses driven by George Malinky became frightened while coming over a bridge near the Lehigh Valley railroad crossing between Freeland and Drifton. The sudden start of the horses threw Malinky from the team and the wheels of the wagon passed over his leg, breaking it in two places.

He was brought to his residence at Main and Fern streets, where the injured limb was attended to.

Installation of Officers.

At the last meeting of Macheleck Tribe, No. 221, I. O. R. M., the following officers were installed:

Prophet—Edward M. Jones.
Sachem—B. F. Rute.
Senior sagamore—Henry Knyriem.
Junior sagamore—Walter Moses.
Trustee—B. F. Rute.
First sannah—Henry Williams.
Second sannah—Philip Price.
Guard of Forest—Archie Kears.
Guard of wigwam—Edward Nichols.

Killed Himself With a Razor.

John Brown, aged 67 years, of West Pittston, committed suicide on Friday morning by cutting his throat with a razor. The man went to Pittston about three months ago from Olyphant to go to work as a miner in Steven's shaft.

After working a month Brown was taken sick. He had Bright's disease, and while he was not confined to the house he suffered most intense pain, and his suicide was probably caused by despondency.

Christian Endeavor Convention.

One of the most notable gatherings ever held in Reading will be the state convention of the Christian Endeavor societies of Pennsylvania, October 11, 12 and 13, for which extensive preparations are being made by a host of local committees. Fully 3,000 delegates are expected, and every denomination as well as every county and district will be included in its representation.

At West Chester School.

Among the 557 pupils in attendance at West Chester normal school this term are the following from this county: Miss Laura E. Koons, Freeland; Miss Maggie Carr, Frank T. Brogan, Joseph V. Gallagher, Drifton; Miss Lizzie M. Powell, Miss Mary Aubrey Powell, Upper Lehigh, and Miss Elsie F. DeWitt, Wilkes-Barre.

The Vigilant Won.

The first of the series of races between the American yacht Vigilant and the English yacht Valkyrie was run over a fifteen-mile course near New York city on Saturday. The contest was close and exciting, and the Vigilant won by 5 minutes and 48 seconds.

Look Here!

We work for the people. Have your watches, clocks and jewelry repaired at Meyer's jewelry store, two doors below the Central hotel.

The Revenue Collectors.

A dispatch from Washington says that the papers for the two internal revenue collectorships in this state yet vacant are ready for the attention of Secretary Carlisle.

Of the thirteen applicants in the twelfth district there are only three who are "in it"—Grant Herring, supported by the state administration Harry-Wolverton syndicate; T. M. Coniff, of Plains, Representative Hines's candidate, and George W. Esser, of Mauch Chunk, recently entered by Representative Howard Mutchler. The tide has generally been running in favor of State Senator Herring, but the appearance of the son of the late Democratic war horse of Northampton in the field with a candidate has somewhat disarranged previous calculations.

In this three-cornered contest Herring has the concentrated backing of the Democratic state machine, while Coniff and Esser represent the divided congressional anti-state administration combine. There is some talk of R. Bruce Ricketts as a possible compromise.

THE WORLD OF LONDON.

In Shakespeare's day there were three private and four public theaters in London.

ELECTRIC lighting spreads gradually over London. Now Hampstead plans its adoption.

OVER a thousand children are annually suffocated in bed with their parents in London.

LONDON music halls are more prosperous than ever. Theaters droop, but music halls flourish.

The national portrait gallery has at last some prospect of taking possession of its new home. Part of the building now being erected will be fit for use by next spring.

It is seriously proposed to bring London and Edinburgh—a distance of five hundred miles—within six hours' ride of each other. The locomotive with which it is hoped to achieve the feat is in progress of construction by a Glasgow firm.

At three of the large London railway stations—Charing Cross, Cannon street and London bridge—as many as 32,000 movements for signal and point levers have to be made every twenty-four hours, quite apart from the telegraphic communications.

THE art of ragpicking is understood in other places beside Paris. The revenue from the rubbish from the streets of the city of London last year was £1,133; bottles, boots, knives, iron, corks, string, paper, rags, tins and other odds and ends each contributing their quota. An unopened letter, containing a check of great value, was found among the refuse and was forwarded to the address on the envelope.

ABOUT PERSONS OF NOTE.

SARASATE has had thirty-two watches given him at various times, several in the shape of violins.

Mrs. ANNIE MOORE, president of a national bank at Mount Pleasant, Tex., is the only woman who fills such an office in the United States.

MR. GLADSTONE astonished some of his auditors in the house of commons the other night by using the word "gumption," yet who could employ it more appropriately, seeing how much of the quality the g. o. m. possesses himself?

Mrs. SARAH B. COOPER, who organized the first kindergarten in San Francisco in 1880, has received more than three hundred thousand dollars to enable her to carry on the work. There are now sixty-five kindergarten schools in that city.

PROF. PELLAT, of the Paris Sorbonne, has invented an apparatus for preventing collisions between trains. It consists essentially of a band of traveling paper, impregnated with iodine of potassium. A platinum stylus moves over this paper and leaves a blue mark on the paper, as in the chemical telegraph of Bala. The motive current is sent by the train, which thus is made to report its own exact position.

Mail Carrier in Custody.

Ely Leader, a driver for M. J. Coggin, contractor for carrying the United States mails between the Scranton postoffice and the city depots, now occupies a cell, charged with criminal negligence in handling the mails, and the prosecution will be pushed by officials of the government.

Leader was on duty Friday night, and made the trip to the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western depot for the mails coming in on the northern division train. That mail consisted of nine pouches, one of which comes from Montrose. When Leader deposited the mail at the post-office there were but eight pouches, the one from Montrose being missing. A search was made for the missing one. About midnight it was found by a passenger at the depot in a dark corner of the water closet. The lock had not been tampered with.

There was not the least doubt that some one had carried the mail pouch there with the intention of carrying it off as soon as the search for it died out. Leader's carelessness in allowing some one to secure it without his knowledge led to his arrest, and there is a suspicion that he had a knowledge of the theft.

Killed on the Rail.

Lehigh Valley passenger train which left Hazleton at 10 o'clock Friday morning ran into a Pennsylvania coal train on the curve below New Boston Junction. Frank Keene, a brakeman on the coal train, was standing between the caboose and rear car of his train when the crash came.

The caboose and three cars were knocked in the air and then rolled over the high embankment. Keene was carried down with the wreck. When extricated he was still alive, but was horribly bruised and cut, and died shortly after. The engineer and fireman of the express jumped and saved themselves. Although the passengers were severely shaken up none were badly hurt.

Laws for Hunters to Remember.

There are many unfamiliar with the game laws of this state and we invite them to clip out the following and paste it in their hats for future reference:

Squirrels, September 1 to January 1; hares or rabbits, November 1 to January 1, ferrets prohibited; wild turkeys, October 15 to January 1; plover, July 15 to January 1; woodcock, July 4 to January 1; quail, November 1 to December 15, puffed and pinnated grouse, October 1 to January 1, railred birds, September 1 to December 1; wild fowl, September 1 to May 1. Sunday hunting and shooting and torch lights are prohibited.

Measuring Township Roads.

The Reading Company is preparing to act on the provisions of the new road law. A force of men is engaged by that corporation to measure the length of the roads in the many townships in Schuylkill county in which the company is the owner of some of the land.

Evidently the management purpose making the roads as they have been doing in some of the townships heretofore, and the roads are measured so that they may make proper estimates as to the cost of keeping the highways in repair.

The G. A. R. at Allentown.

Thursday was a big day at Allentown, being the great parade of the Grand Army posts of the Lehigh Valley and surrounding counties, with strong delegations from Philadelphia, numbering in all probably 3,000.

There was an extensive display of the red, white and blue all through the city and thousands of people witnessed and admired the scene. The camp fire in the evening, was equally interesting and the large hall was packed with people.

Severe Winter Predicted.

Winter, according to the greatest of weather prophets, Dr. Ira Hicks, will begin with storms of more or less severity, about the middle of November, and "march prolong in at the last, we may reasonably say that we expect upon the whole a hard winter."

He adds a word of advice: "We candidly think that the man who begins early and prepares well for a disagreeable and hard winter, will have no regrets, but cause for rejoicing."
