Special and regular correspondence from the surrounding towns is solicited by the TRIBUNE. Communications or items intended for publication must be accompanied by the name of the writer.

HIGHLAND DOTS.

Mrs. Peter Keller is visiting friends at Pittston this week.

The vacant houses are being filled rapidly for several weeks past by families from nearby mining towns. This week six more were occupied, the majority of whom came from Hazle Brook.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Snyder, of Hazleton, were here visiting on Sunday.

The members of the literary club have commenced to furnish their room and will have it completed this week. The boys propose to make their quarters the very best of its kind in this section.

William Keller was on the sick list last week.

Miss Maggie O'Donnell is lying very ill at her home here.

Robert Oliver visited his parents here on Sunday.

The work at the strippings continues very brisk.

Last week the collieries worked five days and there are prospects of this being continued until the end of the year.

A large number of our young men attended the excursion to Wilkes-Barre on Tuesday.

The majority of our residents are now busy getting their stoves in order for the cold weather.

Christian Staltz and wife called on friends here on Sunday.

Mrs. A. Snyder, of Sandy Run, was in town on Sunday.

UPPER LEHIGH NOTES.

Dr. H. M. Neale and wife returned from Chicago on Saturday evening.

James A. Meehan made a business trip to Hazleton yesterday.

Mrs. John Leisenring returned home from the World's fair last week.

Suicide to End His Troubles.

Last Saturday a handsome and well-dressed man entered the Bristol House, Wilkes-Barre, and registered as H. Brown, Kansas City. He acted in a gentlemanly manner and retired rather early on Monday night. The next morning the clerk detected a peculiar odor, the door was broken open and the man was found dead. On his person was found a bunch of keys and eleven cents.

It is thought he was in trouble and was too proud to ask assistance. On a piece of paper lying on a stand in the room was the following: "Am a Mason and an Odd Fellow." Beside the bed was a box containing morphine.

The man yesterday was identified. His name Howard Brader and he was born and brought up in Wilkes-Barre. He leaves a wife and one child in Cart-hage, Mo.

Mrs. Harker and a Cow.

From Today's Speaker.
Mrs. George Harker, of Harleigh, narrowly escaped being yester to death by a maddened cow yesterday. The animal strayed into a field where Mrs. Harker's cow was grazing a short distance from the house. The woman was engaged in the kitchen when she discovered the animal in her field. The dog was sent to drive the animal out of the field, but Mrs. Harker seeing that the dog failed to drive it off, decided to do it herself.

After getting within the enclosure she had not advanced very far when the animal dashed for her. The woman ran for the gate but she barely reached it when the infuriated animal caught her on its horns and tossed her over the fence. Being unhurt, Mrs. Harker again entered the field, determined to drive the cow from the pasture. When the cow again caught sight of her red dress it became wild and raced for the woman, head down. The latter ran into a house on the opposite side of the road which was being constructed.

The crazy animal did not stop at the door, however, but rushed in. The woman, thoroughly frightened, crouched into a corner beneath the staircase. The brute was unable to reach her here, but tramped and tore at the structure which threatened to give way. Fortunately a carpenter, who was on the roof at the time, heard the women's screams in time to save her life.

Meeting of Lutheran Pastors.

The monthly meeting of the Lutheran Pastoral Association of the Upper Lehigh Valley was held on Monday at the residence of Rev. E. A. Bauer, Lehigh-ton. The ministers present were: Revs. H. H. Brunig, White Haven; J. J. Kuntz, Conyngham; J. H. Schmidt, Freeland; J. H. Kuder and W. H. Strauss, Lehigh-ton; J. H. Longacre, Weissport; D. H. Siebolt, Summit Hill, and L. Lindenstruth, Mauch Chunk.

Two sermons based on Matthew 12:30, were discussed by Revs. Kuntz and Brunig. Then followed the reading of Malachi, chapter 4, in Hebrew, with grammatical and exegetical remarks.

In the afternoon Rev. Kuntz read a fine paper on the Levites. The remainder of the time was occupied with the serious consideration of the Sunday question in all its various bearings. Rev. Brunig presented a carefully prepared paper on that subject. The next meeting will be held November 6 at White Haven.

Six Men Burned by Gas.

An explosion of gas occurred in the Columbia colliery at Duryea, near Pittston, on Monday, injuring six men, two of whom may die. They are: Thomas Joyce, 35 years, wife and three children, Duryea, dangerously burned and back bruised, may die; Martin Tigue, 28 years, wife and three children, Upper Pittston, seriously injured internally, may die; Patrick McNulty, 34 years, Duryea, painfully burned; Dominick Mullin, 32 years, Duryea, burned on head; Thomas Hall, Plains, and Jeremiah Hogan, Duryea, slightly hurt.

The six men composed a shift and were engaged in driving an opening when the explosion occurred. The cause of the explosion cannot be accounted for.

Permanent Certificates.

The Permanent Certificate Committee of Luzerne county will hold an examination on Saturday, October 28, in the High School Building, Wilkes-Barre. Applicants must be present promptly at 9 o'clock a. m.

J. F. Santee, examiner in spelling, geography and civil government.

B. F. Meyers, examiner in grammar, algebra and rhetoric.

D. M. Hobbes, examiner in arithmetic, geometry and penmanship.

W. H. Gillespie, examiner in physiology, reading and drawing.

T. M. Conniff, examiner in history, theory of teaching and physics.

Farewell Sermon Next Sunday.

Rev. C. A. Spaulding has resigned as pastor of the Bethel Baptist church, and will preach his farewell sermon on Sunday evening, October 15, commencing at 6 p. m. This date is also the thirtieth birthday of Rev. Spaulding, and the friends of the church and pastor are cordially invited to attend the services upon this occasion.

Rev. Spaulding has been an active and earnest worker in the cause of religion since his coming here, and largely through his efforts the handsome church at Ridge and Walnut streets was erected. He goes from here to Hazleton.

Tuesday's Parade.

The parade of the societies connected with the Catholic Total Abstinence Union of the Scranton diocese took place at Wilkes-Barre on Tuesday. It is estimated that over 7,000 men and boys were in line, and the demonstration was in every way a very creditable showing for the temperance people of northeastern Pennsylvania.

The lower end societies turned out strong, and with their good music took a prominent part. The weather was perfect, and the 103d anniversary of the birth of Father Matthew, the apostle of temperance, was fittingly observed.

Refused to Transport a Corpse.

Leander R. Anstin died in Allentown of typhoid fever and his family, in order to fulfill a desire of the dead man, arranged to have the body interred at Mainsburg, Tioga county, the birthplace of the deceased. The Lehigh Valley Company refused on Tuesday to carry the body for fear of contagion.

The family had no other alternative than to take the body there by team, and on Tuesday morning the corpse of Mr. Anstin started on its journey. It will take until tomorrow evening to reach the destination.

Want Cameron to Resign.

Indignation among Scranton business men over the speech of United States Senator Cameron on the silver question culminated on Monday night in a repeal bill meeting under the auspices of the board of trade of that city.

Hot speeches were made in favor of repeal and resolutions were adopted demanding that Cameron either place himself in harmony with his constituents or resign.

To Whom It May Concern.

Dr. E. A. Esterbrooke, the expert dental surgeon, will be at the Central hotel, Freeland, on Monday, October 16, and remain a few days. Dr. E. is the man who gained such notoriety in Hazleton a few weeks ago, and the Hazleton people stand by him and say, "He does just what he claims to do," namely, extract teeth without administering gas, ether, chloroform, etc., "positively without pain."

All those having bad teeth will do well to avail themselves of this extraordinary opportunity to get rid of them without the suffering so universally dreaded. Money paid for extracting allowed on new teeth.

Democratic Mass Meeting.

On Thursday evening of next week the Democrats of Freeland and vicinity will hold their first mass meeting of the campaign. The opera house has been engaged for the evening, and the speakers will be Hon. C. Ben Johnson, of Wilkes-Barre; Assistant District Attorney P. A. O'Boyle, of Pittston, John M. Garman, Esq., of Nanticoke, and others. All the Democratic county candidates will be present, and the citizens of Freeland and nearby towns are invited to attend the meeting.

Young Men's Ball.

The ball of the Young Men's T. A. B. Society on Tuesday evening was a great success in every respect. The selections given by the St. Patrick's and Mayberry bands were very good, and the large crowd had a very pleasant evening. Master of Ceremonies, Charles F. Haganey and Miss Elsie Scott led the march, followed by more than 100 couples.

Papering and Painting.

A. A. Bachman, having purchased the Gibbon property, near the Central Hotel, (Watkins' old stand) and fitted it up, has on hand a large and varied stock of wall paper, paints, etc.

Wall paper from 8 cents a double roll up. Painting and paperhanging done on short notice and by good workmen. Call and see samples.

Trustee—Elizabeth Schaub.

A number of visiting members were present from Hazleton and Weatherly, and after the installation ceremonies lemonade, cake and fruit were served.

Schuylkill Towns Without Water.

A water famine prevails throughout the Schuylkill region. The Girard Water Company, which furnishes water to the towns of Girardville, Colorado, Lost Creek, William Penn, and all collieries on Girard estate, has restricted the use of water to but one hour out of every twenty-four, giving the collieries water sufficient only to supply boilers.

It is feared complete suspension of these workings will be necessary in a few days. Schuylkill Traction Company, whose plant is also supplied by the Girard Company, are able to run but two cars between Shenandoah and Ashland.

Knights of Malta Convention.

The grand commandery of the Knights of Malta will meet in annual session next Tuesday at Berwick. Delegations from Commandery No. 6, of Drifton, and No. 8, of Freeland, will be present. They will leave Freeland on Tuesday morning on the 6.05 train, and will be run on special train from the Lumber Yard to Hazleton, where connection will be made with the Pennsylvania Railroad.

The question of amalgamating 6 and 8 will come up at this session.

No Race Yesterday.

The second race between the American yacht Vigilant and the English yacht Valkyrie was won on Monday by the Yankee boat, which beat its opponent at every point and in weather supposed to be most favorable to the Valkyrie.

The third race was run yesterday, but the wind was so light that the boats could not get over the course within the six-hour limit. The Vigilant led by half a mile when the time expired.

Carbon Democrats.

From the Standard.
The Democratic standing committee of Carbon county held a meeting in the court room at Mauch Chunk on Tuesday and after considerable discussion re-elected Michael Cassidy county chairman. The candidates for county office on the Democratic ticket were present.

It was decided that the funds for the campaign be distributed by themselves instead of by the chairman, as was the custom. It was also decided that the candidates select the watchers for the different polling places in the county.

BRIEF ITEMS OF NEWS.

LOCAL JOTTINGS GATHERED FROM VARIOUS SOURCES.

Little Ones of Interest About People You Know and Things You Wish to Hear About—What the Folks of This Vicinity Are Doing.

Rev. Bernard J. Dever, of Summit Hill, was a visitor to town this week.

The Lehigh Valley Company will pay its employes on this division next Thursday.

Tim J. Gallagher, of New York city, is spending his vacation at his home in Drifton.

Robert Scott, of Oneida, has sold his property on Centre street, in the Points, to Agnes Brady, for $2,500.

The Hazleton Sentinel, it is said, has been sold to a company of Philadelphia men, who took charge today.

A new Lehigh Valley Railroad time table will go into effect on the first of November. Several changes are expected.

Don't fail to read Neuburger's advertisement on the last page of this paper during their fall opening for the next ten days.

The Democratic county candidates intend to make a tour of the fourth district next week. They will commence at Hazleton on Monday.

The Freeland Beef Company proposes to enlarge its building on Washington street. The present quarters are too small for the amount of business done.

It is reported that the collieries of W. T. Carter & Co. at Beaver Meadow have been purchased or leased by A. S. VanWinkle & Co., operators of the Milnesville workings.

The Young American Social Club, which was recently organized, has elected the following officers: President, C. F. Paul; secretary, George Hartman; treasurer, Harry Reifsnnyder. The club will hold a ball on December 1.

Two women of West Hazleton have informed Poor Director Monroe that they saw Fannie Siddons near that place Monday night, and her appearance is described as wild and haggard. They say she wore scarcely any clothing.

Constable Hoodmacher, of Weatherly, claims that Charles Conaghan, the murderer of Brislis at Buck Mountain, is in hiding near where the crime was committed. He says he is too busy at present to arrest him and will let some one else get the $200 reward.

Friday, October 20, will be Firemen's Day at Weatherly, where a new fire engine house will be opened and a parade and inspection will take place in the afternoon at 3 o'clock. It is expected that at least half a dozen companies from other towns will participate.

Two Jersey Central passenger trains, one of which was filled with excursionists for the Wilkes-Barre parade, collided at Scranton Tuesday morning. The only person injured was Miss Florence Blewitt, who, in the excitement, jumped from the train and suffered a fractured leg.

DEATHS.

NAGLE.—At Eckley, this morning, at the residence of George Knyrim, Edith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nagle, aged 3 years, 4 months and 25 days.
