Married Yesterday.

Married Yesterday.

At 10 o'clock yesterday morning Hugh Shovlin and Miss Mary A. McGeady, of Highland, were married by Rev. Edward O'Reilly at St. Ann's church. Miss Cassie McGarvey was bridesmaid and Alex. Mulhearn acted as groomsman. After the ceremony a short drive was taken, and at 11.30 they arrived at the residence of the bride's mother, where a short reception was held. A number of handsome presents were received by the bride.

At 12.25 the young couple left Highland on their wedding tour to Buffalo and Niagara Falls. Both are well-known here, the groom being assistant freight agent at the Freeland station, and their friends wish them joy and success dur-ing their trip through life.

Died at Philadelphia

In a Philadelphia hospital on Sunday Ambrose Dunleavy died of dropsy. He was at one time a resident of Jeddo and was also well-known in Drifton where he resided until about two years ago. He was aged about 40 years. On Tuesday morning a requiem mass was read over the remains in St. Theresa's church and that afternoon they arrived here. The interment was made at St. Ann's cemetery.

Frank McGarvey, of Mauch Chunk, a line man for the Allentown Electric Light and Power Company, had a narrow escape from death Friday morning. He was climbing a pole in Allentown and came in contact with a live wire. He began crying out piteously for assistance and as he was hung on to the wire with contracted muscles he suffered excruciating pain.
