London, Nov. 15.—The Melilla corre-spondent of the United Press telegraphs as follows under date of Monday night: "At 11 o'clock last evening the electric search light of the Spanish cruisers Al-fonso XII, Conde de Neuadito and Melilla fonso XII, Conde de Nenadito and Meilla suddenly illuminated the whole country around, taking the Moors by surprise. A terrible caunonade was opened by the warships and the forts at the same mo-ment. The terrified Moors could be seen running about like madmen, seeking shelter in the caves. Many were killed. "Yesterday a company of Spanish cav-alry made an excursion into the country, going further than any other Spanish troops have gone since the war opened, and meeting with no opposition. It is beliaved that serious operations will begin this week."

Spanish Settlements May be Attacked. The Moors in the vicinity of Gomera and In a Morrs in the vicinity of combra and Albucemas, Spanish possessions on the the coast of Morocco, are divided on the question as to whether they shall attack the Spanish settlements. The peace party has hitherto been in the majority, but the agitation is increasing and it is feared that those favoring peace will soon be overborne by the war party.

Yesterday she exhibited much violence as Mrs. Beecher, wife of the sheriff, was giving her breakfast and trying to make agriants those favoring peace will some set by the war party. The minister of war confirms the report of the expulsion of the London Daily Tele-graph's correspondent from Meilla and the expulsion of other foreign correspondents. It is said that the war minister will ask a vote of 14,000,000 pesetas for the Meilila as an a needed, when of the solution, was more comfortable. A muse of 500,000,000 is expected by the d ocrats of the ways and means commend from the moderate income tax which they pro-pose to incorporate in the new revenue bill. The rate of the tax will probably be 2 per cent. and the exemption will be high enough to exclude the great mass of labor-ing men and people on small salaries. The limit now under discussion is from $3,500 to $4,000. A good many statistics have been pre-pared by the treasury experts on the in-comes of the country and the rates of revenue obtained under different plans, and it is believed that the 2 per cent. rate will yield a handsome addition to the revenue of the governm. May Increase the Rates.
