The Hawaiian question presented itself yestenday in the senate in two separate and distinct phases. It came up first in the shape of a resolution reported from the committee on foreign relations declaring it to be unwise and inexpedient, under existing conditions, to consider at this time affy project of annexation of the Hawaiian territory to the United States; that, the provisional government as a proposed of the Hawaiian territory to the United States; that, the provisional government having been duly recognized, the highest international interests require that shall pursue its own line of poor and that foreign intervention in the positical affairs of the island would engarded as an act unfriendly to the government of the United States. The shall pursue the unanimous report of the committee, except as to the conditions of the committee, the unanimous report of the committee, except as to the conditions of the committee, the unanimous report of the committee, when the deart of the committee, when the condition of the committee, which is the shawiin of the proposed by Mr. Callom, rep., Ill., based on Mr. Frye's resolution of non-intervention, and severely eriticising the administration. The Peffer resolution, asserting that the secretary of the treasury has no authority in law to issue and sell bonds as proposed in his recent notice, was referred to the committee on finance after a speech in its support by Mr. Stewart, rep., Nev. Mr. Wilson, rep., In., and Mr. Chandler, rep., N. H., made speeches in opposition to the house bill to repeal the federal election laws, and then the bill was informally laid aside. The senate adjourned at 5 p. m.

Bids for Bonds

Bids for Bonds

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Mr. Low, the new designer, employed by the bureau of engraving and printing, treasury department, arrived here Saturday, and began work. He will touch up the old plates which will be used for printing the new bond issue and will sketch a new plate for printing bonds of the denomination of $50, the plates of the old 5 per cent. issue not being of so low a denomination. The number of offers to bny bonds have been surprisingly large. Hitherto these offers had come from the east, but as the western mails come in Chicago and other western cities are heard from. Many telegrams are daily received announcing that formal offers by mail to buy bonds are on the way. Most of the offers come, of course, from banks, but many come also from individuals.

A pensioner in Ohio writes that he has accumulated $3,000 and desires a safe investment. It is stated that the bonds will be ready for issue about February 3.

No Invitation.

No Invitation.

Washington, Jan. 22.—Gossip in diplomatic circles, Jan. 22.—Gossip in diplomatic circles is busy over an incident of the state dinner at the white house. Wetnesday night. In the published list of invited guests, as printed in the newspapers, the name of Secretary Hastings, who, in the absence of Minister Thurston, is charge d'affaires of the Hawaiin legation, was included. Mr. Hastings was not among the guests at the dinner, and, it is now learned, that he received no invitation. This omission, whether accidental or intentional, excites comment, because both the secretaries of legation of Korea and Columbia, who, in the absence of their respective ministers, are, like Mr. Hastings, charges des affaires, were conspicuous among the list of guests, which, in fact, included the head of every legation now in Washington except the Hawaiian legation.

Suit Over Rental of Grazing Land Suit Over Rental of Grazing Land.
Washington, Jan.-24.—The suit of William Walter Phelps against Sam Lazarus, involving the rental for grazing purposes of 176,000 acres of land in Texas, was argued yesterday in the supreme court of the United States. The case comes up on appeal from the circuit court for the northern district of Texas, which court rendered a judgement against Mr. Lazarus of 88,47 for the rental of Mr. Phelps lands for two and a half years.

Dr. Harris Will Hold Over.

Washington, Jan. 24.—Upon the recommendation of the secretary of the interior the president has determined to continue Dr. Wim. T. Harris as commissioner of education. Dr. Harris owes his retention to the fact that he is not in any sense a partisan and that he has made an excellent officer.

Sanford's Recovery Assured.

Amsterdam, N. Y., Jan. 24.—William Cochran Sanford, who was recently taken bulletins have grown encouraging. Mr.

Sanford's complete physical and mental recovery is now thought to be assured.

Attempted Train Wrecking:

HACKENSACK, N. J., Jan. 23.—A large barrel of oil, about twelve pine railroad ties, a tree and a wagon were placed on the New Jersey and New York railroad tracks near Oradell just before a passenger train was due. Engineer Ackerman saw the obstruction and stopped his engine within Jersey City at 9.15 p.m. The passengers were much frightened. Detectives were hunting for the would-bevreckers all night. There is no clue. The oil was stolen from the Oradell dept.

The "Mince Pie" Case Settled.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Jan. 24.—A special dispatch from Albany says that Judge Wailace, in the United States circuit court, has rendered a decision in the celebrated "mince pie" case, in which it was sought to restrain the manufacture by M. Doyle and company, of this city, of a preparation of mince meat known as the "Eagle" brand. The suit was a test case, many manufacturers of mince meat throughout the country being involved. The complaint was dismissed and injunctions against the Rochester firm and others were ordered vacated.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Jan. 24.—Mr. Wood, ex-treasurer of the Brooklyn tabernacle, declares that there is nothing in the allegations against him. He says he can account for every dollar which came inthis hands, and that he courts investigation. Dr. Talmage said to-day: "I don't

The Fight.

Jacksonville, Fia, Jan. 24.—The eve of the day originally set for the big flight between America's champion heavy weight James J. Corbett and England's champion Charlie Mitchell finds this staid old town in great excitement, a company of militia called out for active service enamped within its corporate limits, and the belief general that martial law will te declared to-morrow morning.

As to the fight, everything is still problemetical. The matter of the permanent injunction is to be decided to-day, but that does not seem to interest the sporting element near as much as the final disposition of that $20,000 cheek. Referee Kelly, with a crowd of newspaper men at his heels, presented the check at the bank for payment, but was told that until the conditions on the back were fulfilled the money could not be drawn. Kelly then got the members of the club together and proceeded to do some very emphatic talking. The result was that the club members went into secret conference and had what came nearer being a fight than anything that has, or is likely to occur, in this neighborhood for some time. It is generally believed that the check will never be cashed until the club has sold enough tickets to recoup themselves for their contributions towards the purse.

There is no denying that the appearance of the soldier boys has greatly angered the majority of the citizens, who are anxious to have the contest pulled off as at first planned. Major Lowell says he has received no further orders than to report to the sheriff, which he has done unto every ten of the militamen would like to witness the fight.

like to witness the fight.

The matter of postponing the fight until Saturday will be determined after the decision on the injunction application is handed down. It is understood that both Corbett and Mitchell have agreed to a postponement, but it is more than likely that if the contest does not take place tomorrow, it will not at all, at all events, not under the supervision of the Duval club.

club.
On the whole, the situation to-day is of a comic opera nature, with the outlook for a fight, or a series of fights, between the club members and others interested in the matter far brighter than are the chances of Corbett and Mitchell coming

Hawaiian Matter.

Hawaiian Matter.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 24.—Soon after the state senate was called to order the concurrent resolution passed by the assembly congratulating the president and the people of Hawaii on the abandonment of the Hawaiian policy came up. Senator Saxton asked that it be adopted at once. Senator Cantor made a sarcastic speech proposing that a petition be drawn up asking congress not to take any action without first having consulted this senate. Why should congress and the state senate change places? Of course the Hawaiian question figured largely in the elections last fall and members of the senate were elected on that issue. He sasked that the resolution be sent to the finance committee and that the committee be empowered to send for President Cleveland and for the queen and to crossquestion them.

Senator Saxton said that the resolution was not at all unusual, as Mr. Cantor very well knew. He had no doubt that all the senators were fully in accord with the statement made in the resolution, democrats as well as republicans. He could see no reason why the resolution should not be adopted at once.

Senator Cantor said that the resolution should not be passed without having been examined. There had been no "abandoment of the policy of the administration."

The question had merely been referred to congress.

After some further discussion the resolution was not a sadastal he wise very size.

A government official said that President Peixoto and Admiral da Gama had agreed to submit their differences to the United States for arbitration, but that certain well-paid officers were trying to prevent the agreement from being carried out. President Peixoto expects that the war will be ended by Jan. 25.

There is now a large fleet of American warships in the harbor. The object of their presence here, it is said, is to prevent European interference in the settlement of the matters in dispute between the government and the insurgents.

William and Bismarck.

William and Bismarck.

BERLIN, Jan. 24.—The announcement that Prince Bismarck has promised to visit Emperor William has caused a sensation here. Bismarck's friends in the reichstag assert that the emperor was led to invite Bismarck to Berlin by the recent Mittnacht incident in the reichstag. The emperor's sense of uprightness, according to Bismarck's friends, was shocked by the public declaration that Prussla had broken faith with Wurtemberg. Herr von Kardorff already sees Bismarck returning to bower. Outside of the circle of enemies of Chancellor von Caprivi, however, a reconstruction of the cabinet, with Bismarck behind the scene, is held to be impossible. The emperor declared awea ago that he fittily scool by the chancellor.

Both the press and the public are engrossed with the subject of Prince Bismarck's coming visit to Berlin. The North German Gazette says that the invitation to Bismarck was made entirely on the emperor's initiative.

The National Gazette rejoices at the rapprechement between the emperor and Bismarck, and that the nation generally will be pleased.

Has Mello Been Deposed?

Has Mello Been Deposed?

Washington, Jan. 22.—The United Press cable from Rio, stating that Mello had been deposed from the command of the Brazilian insurgents and was on the warship Republica as a private citizen only, was shown to Minister Mendonca. He said he had received no advices concerning the report, but stated that he had no doubt it was true. He had received from Rio several days ago, as already stated in these despatches, news of the failure of the insurgent land forces in the south of Brazil to effect a junction with Mello on the coast, and it was quite probable that the disappointment over this failure had expended itself upon Mello, although, in the opinion of Senor Mendonca, he was not to blame. The land forces simply could not reach the coast.

Paris, Jan. 19.—The hearing of the action of Princess Colonna, step-daughter of John W. Mackay, the American millionaire, against her husband for a judicial separation was again postponed. Maitre Dabuit, the advocate for the princess, was absent, and his junior asked the court to grant a further adjournment. The solicitor for the princess handed to the court papers supplementary to her previous demand. She now asks, if the court admits Prince Colonna's plea that it has no jurisdiction in the case, for an order giving her provisional charge of the children, the order to be maintained until a definite judgment shall be given.

Bridgeport, Conn., Jan. 22.—The strike of the Traction company's employes is assuming a serious phase. Mayor Boatwick and the potice commissioners went to the station and the mayor read the riot act to 2,000 people. Crowds gathered on the line of the road in East Bridgeport last last night and the entire police force was kept busy trying to disperse them. The company made several attempts to send out cars, but they were stoned and finally abandoned by the men brought here from New York. One car lies on its side in Congress street. The labor unions have agreed to co-operate with the strikers. The latter have done no violence and they threaten none. Not a car is running in the city or on the line to Stratford.
