JEDDO NOTES.

Michael McCafferty, better known as "Squire," of Bridgeport, Pa., visited his friends at this place on Monday. Squire has been away from the coal regions quite a while, and he received a hearty welcome while on his visit.

At last a number of our boys have turned over the new leaf. We know it is rather late, but it takes long meditation to settle anything to the satisfaction of our boys. We hope now that when they have started in the right direction they will keep going on and receiving for themselves the noble appellation which we heard lately used in contrasting the town a few years back with some of the present class, "the promoters, of virtue, temperance and intelligence." We would not repeat what was said of the present class.

We have seen boys who were so self-satisfied that they seemed (to their own mind) to have rounded the circle of education, made the circuit of knowledge and skill complete, and closed their

BRIEF ITEMS OF NEWS.

LOCAL JOTTINGS GATHERED FROM VARIOUS SOURCES.

Little Ones of Interest About People You Know and Things You Wish to Hear About—What the Folks of This Vicinity Are Doing.

Cal McCarty, ex-champion light-weight, will be at the opera house on Saturday evening with the Yucca Specialty Company.

Edward Cunningham and Mrs. Ann Campbell, both of Hazel Brook, will be married yesterday at Eckley Catholic church by Rev. Thos. Brehony.

The heavy snowfall of Tuesday blocked the turnpikes through the region and several roads are impassible. The Hazleton electric cars were not run until yesterday.

The senate in executive session on Tuesday, confirmed the nomination of Oliver A. Claus to be postmaster at Lehigh, against whom charges were made in committee.

The Democrats of the borough will hold their convention at Cottage hall this evening. Quite a number of candidates are looking for office, and all voters of the party should attend the meeting.

The first annual ball of the Tyrolean Beneficial Society will be held at the opera house this evening. DePiero's orchestra will be present and the society extends an invitation to the public to be present.

Thomas Rowan, a miner of Plains, died on Sunday of black fever. Before the nature of the disease was known a number of people had visited the house, and it is feared the disease may spread.

Madame Yucca, the strongest woman in the world, with a large and talented company of specialty artists, will appear here on Saturday evening. Her strength is marvelous and surprises everybody who sees her exhibitions.

Tom McGraw, of Beach Haven, who was a Democratic candidate for county commissioner last fall, has failed in business. Executions against him to the amount of $2,500 were placed in the sheriff's hands on Tuesday.

The case of F. P. Malloy, charged with assault and battery upon Patrick McFadden, of the Points, came off at Wilkes-Barre yesterday. The jury rendered a verdict that the defendant was not guilty, but would have to pay the costs.

District 16, Knights of Labor, comprising all the assemblies of the order in northeastern Pennsylvania, passed a resolution on Tuesday at Wilkes-Barre opposing the issue of bonds by Secretary Carlisle. T. H. Hayes was elected master workman.

The shoe store of John Smith was closed by the sheriff yesterday upon executions held by the following parties: Thomas Birkbeck, $2,650; Ludwig Brandmeier, $1,310; John D. Hayes, $163. Mr. Smith has the sympathy of the community in his financial troubles, and all wish to see him again in business soon.
