There is a legend olden—
Clear in my thought it shines
That she who's first beholden
On sweet "St. Valentine's,"

Shall be to him who chances
Her features to divine,
The fond one of his fancies—
His bonny Valentine.

VALENTINE DAY IN AFRICA.

In Glasgow last year 577 persons were arrested and fined for failing to sweep their steps or pavements.

THE City of Mexico has 451,000 people and 2,302 police. The arrests last year were 52,223, over one-half for intoxication.

Paris has 2,344,000 population and 7,154 police. Total arrests in 1890, 96,-842, of which 26,822 were for druplen.

Those who attended the last show at the opera house had it their doubts about the individual who was introduced to them as Cal McCarthy, exchampion feather-weight puglist. They thought that the original Cal ought to be able to obtain a position in a better company than Mile. Yucca's, and this doubt attained very large proportions when they saw him outclassed in every respect by one of Freeland's local sparrers. For a man who claimed to have stood up for four hours before George Dixon he showed up wonderfully poor in his exhibition here, but the confidence with which he asserted his claims led many to believe that he was the genuine ex-champion. Undersonsive.—Jack—"Why don't you call on Miss Swellery any more?" Fred—"She won't respond."

A few days after leaving here there was an announcement in a Philadelphia paper that Cal McCarthy was in England, where he was knocked out in one round by a Briton. That apparently settled the question regarding the fellow who was here. He was considered an imposter by all, but he was not downed so easily, and on Thursday last a communication was published from Shenandoah in the Philadelphia papers signed Cal McCarthy, stating that he never was in England but is traveling with the Yucca Company and did not get knocked out as reported. Under the circumstances the sports of town are unable to agree whether or not they have seen the original feather-weight ex-champion, but if he comes this way again several of them will be willing to try to do him as Dixon did.

The citizens who think a slight increase in taxes should not be made for any purpose will likely vote to defeat it and nothing can be said against their action, but the people who are spreading false reports about the amount of the increase, and are trying to create the impression that taxes will go bounding skyward, ought not make such exhibitions of their ignorance. Any school boy can figure out the difference in the amount to be paid, and the opponents of electric light should fight it manly and openly, not juggle with figures as some are doing.

Local politics have been quiet during the past week, due, no doubt, to the fact that the candidates and politicians have been resting on their oars; but as election day is not much more than a week away I expect to see some hustling for votes from now on. In the borough there is some disappointment on both sides from citizes who failed to be nominated, but I think the dissatisfaction is magnified very much and
