John David Hayes was born in the city of Limerick, Ireland, on April 4, 1853. He came to America in 1869, and after working in New Jersey for a short while came to this region and obtained employ came to this region and obtained employ-ment in the mines at Harleigh. Later on he was promoted to pumpman and then to engineer. At an early age he recognized the value of an education. He had attended St. Michael's academy in his native city, but circumstances in his native city, but circumstances would not permit him to complete his studies. To attain that end he worked hard and unceasingly for about eight years. Then having the means to gratify his ambition to become a scholar he entered De LaSalle college, Toronto, Canada, from which he graduated some years later with high honors. Returning to Harleigh Mr. Hayes stood examination before Prof. Cough lin, then county superintendent of the schools, and was given a teacher's certi-ficate. He began teaching in Hazle township, and shortly after entered the law office of Senator C. W. Kline, of Hazle-ton. In a few years he obtained a pro-fessional certificate and then a perma-nent one. On June 11, 1881, he was admitted to the Luzerne county bar as an attorney, and has since been given per-mission to practice before the state supreme court. In 1882 he was married to Miss Sallie

Reilly, of Lattimer, and then removed to Freeland, where he opened a law of-fice and for a few years held the position of principal of the borough schools. His practice, however, became so large that he soon had to devote all his time to it, he soon had to devote all his time to it, and he relinquished the principalship. During his residence in Freeland he won the friendship and respect of all the people by his manliness and straightfor-fuge and trickery in his dealings with others, and his independence, in such respects as men should be independence, in such teristics.
