When the McKinley bill was passed its schedules were arranged by the protected interests according to their notions of what was the limit of popular endurance.

This is the way the London Daily News presented the status of the Coxe movement in this country to its readers on April 21: "Washington is threatened with a new invasion."

British troops have been rushing through Maine for several months, the activity being especially noticeable at present; but no one in Maine has got excited over the matter.

Ex-State Senator Morgan B. Williams, of Wilkes-Barre, is doing his best to shove aside John Leisenring in the congressional race in Luzerne county.

The Democratic candidate for governor, whoever he may be, will not stand a very sure chance of being elected, but the candidate for lieutenant governor will have a great deal in his favor from present indications.

The actual land area of many of the older states is a matter of uncertainty. The more recently admitted states and the territories have been carefully surveyed by United States engineers, and the land areas and water areas have been distinguished.

PLEASE CALENDAR.

Modern Educational Methods.

The difference in principle between the old and the new educational methods is this: At the present time, if the scholar is not induced to study by the attractive methods by which learning is now imparted, if the arts of moral suasion do not overcome juvenile indolence and obstinacy, the scholar goes into the world with no knowledge or discipline of mind.

THREE twenty dollar bills and seven ten dollar bills of Uncle Sam's good money have been causing the city treasurer of Philadelphia more anxiety than all the millions that roll into his strong boxes in the course of a year.

OLD-FASHIONED country folk who have seen rural quilting parties would be astonished to know how quilts are made by wholesale in this town.

A NEW English invention is intended as a substitute for the horse and horseback-riding. It is a machine or stand on which there is a saddle. It can be so adjusted that with a slight exertion you can trot or gallop, and take as violent or gentle exercise as you choose.

THE use of the smallest sizes of coal for the purpose of generating steam has been a veritable bonanza to the owners of coal mines.

A DELINQUENT tenant at Whateom, Wash., laughed at all the landlord's efforts to legally remove him from the house. At last the landlord forced him to get out by taking off a portion of the roof.

WANTS TO BUT DURST NOT.

I never have to bother about what children need. I'm not obliged to furnish bread and other things to feed.

THE SAVING OF COOTS.

BY GILBERT PATTEN.

Copyright, 1894, by the Author.

HE THOUGHT her divine; but he was only a curly-headed boy, not more than twenty, and sentimental at that.

They were both stopping at the same wretched actors' boarding-house, on a side street that ran from Broadway to the Bowery, and at dinner she sat opposite him at the long table around which gathered nightly a rare collection of chorus girls, ballet dancers, song and dance artists, variety performers, and broken-down and hard-up people of the "legrit."

One day Coots came to Daisy with a strange look of mingled grief and joy on his face.

AND COOTS WAS WALKING AWAY WITH HER.

Energy and mirth are contagious. A drunkard is a beast minus the instinct. Decet is a cockatrice and its eggs are suspicion.

Easy to Collect.

Miss Waitin—O, Mr. Hangbaque, did you read in the papers about the tax which they impose upon bachelors in Belgium?

There are times, said the man with the oratorical manner, "when we are overwhelmed with humiliation at the powerlessness of the human mind."

Recognized the symptoms. "Who has No. 23?" asked the hotel clerk.

His Thoughts. "You had a high old time in Europe?"

It Had Lost Its Attraction. "May—So Jennie has given up bicycling, has she?"

The Final Test. "A man may be hungry, a man may be faint, and so cold that he's ready to freeze; but he isn't completely shut out from the world."

Played Too Well. "Actor—He can play 'drunken parts' better than anyone in the profession."

$100 Reward, $100. "The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh."

BUSINESS BRIEFS. Wash silks, 50c at McDonald's.

Announcement. The second grand concert of the first series will be given in the Presbyterian church, Hazleton, on Tuesday evening, May 15, 1894, at 8.15 o'clock.

About Castoria. Castoria is truly a marvelous thing for children. Doctors prescribe it, medical journals recommend it and more than a million mothers are using it in place of paregoric, Bateman's Drops, so-called soothing syrups and other narcotic and stupefying remedies.

Castoria is put up in one-size bottles only. It is not sold in bulk. Don't allow any one to sell you anything else on the plea or promise that it is "just as good" and "will answer every purpose."

THE LITTLE 400. The beaux and belles of Washington have a dancing-class called the "Little 400."

Subscription to the TRIBUNE, $1.50 per year, entitles you to the best reading twice a week.

DOLLS OF FASHION.

Long before ladies' newspapers were started and fashion plates in their modern form were thought of, ladies derived their knowledge of the fashions from dolls dressed in model costumes, which were sent from one country to another, most especially from Paris, which then as now was the leading center of the mode.

Very heavy white satin is used for the wedding gown, writes Isabel A. Mallon, in Ladies' Home Journal.

PRETTY HOLDERS. Dark cloth bound with braid, the lettering being done with Turkey red marking cotton.

Care of Curtains and Portieres. When any cleaning or sweeping is in progress the heavy curtains and portieres should be removed, and after being thoroughly brushed and shaken should be allowed to hang in the air until the rooms are cleaned and ready for their return.
