The rough and ungainly appearance of many of the buildings in town is a topic that is very often commented upon by strangers who visit Freeland for the first time, and indeed, many of them are not slow in expressing disappointment at some of the shabby sights that meet their gaze. I met a gentleman of this kind on Thursday and he was very emphatic

PROGRESS OF TARIFF

What the Senate Has Done After Eight Weeks.

Washington, May 29.—The first day of the ninth week of the consideration of the tariff bill in the senate was devoted entire-ly to lumber. No vote was reached, and this schedule will probably consume two more days.

more days.

From the 2d to the 25th of April general debate was in order, and many carefully prepared speeches were delivered, two of them, those of Senators Quay and Dolph, cecupying each portions of six days. But since the 25th of April the bill has been under consideration by paragraphs, for amendment, and in that time 37 pages of the bill have been disposed of, leaving 194 pages still unacted upon.

When the senate adjourned on Saturday evening three schedules—the chemical, the glass and china, and the metal—had been completed.

When schedule D, with four paragraphs, relating to lumber and manufactures of wood, was taken up, and an amendment was offered by Senator Hale to insert, as a preliminary paragraph, the provision of the existing law by which a duty of a dollar per thousand feet is levied on sawed lumber and (in addition) 50 cents for each side that is planed of finished; one dollar when planed on one side, and tongued and groovel, and $1.50 when planed on two sides and tenser capaths, and stoker died of yellow er.
