HIGHLAND DOTS.

Saturday was pay day here and things were pretty lively and interesting among our foreign friends that evening and all day Sunday. Grudges that they had in keeping for each other for some had in keeping for each other for some time were resurrected and the result was fights were plentiful. Several of the men who took part in the fights were pretty badly used up whether they deserved it or not. Some efforts should be made to quell disturbances of this sort, especially on Sunday.
