Disgraceful Scenes. The meeting of the republican members of the senate and chamber of deputies last evening to select a candidate to be voted for at Versalles to-day for president was characterized throughout by an indescrib-able noise and continuous brawling. Deputies and senators shouted at the tops of their votes over one another's heads. Some demanded a vote without debate. Blows were exchanged by several mem-bers, and inkstands were thrown about freely.

Frequencies Frequencies Deputy Marc Sauzet, member for Ard-eche, tried to stand upon the table and was pulled foreibly to the floor by M. Ber-teaux, member for Seineet-Oke. An-other member who tried to hide the ballot box was struck and thrown down. Finally some of the calmer members proposed a recess, and a motion to adjourn was car-

A large number remained in the hall, and after a short period of quiet Senator de Verninac, who presided, asked whether the meeting desired to vote.

Conflict Provoked by Socialists. Conflict Provoked by Socialists. The tumult was renewed immediately, and as it was impossible to restore order M. de Verninae declared the meeting closed and left the tribune. Free fighting en-sued for fully a quarterofan hour. Event-ually the hull was cloared. The conflict was provoked by the socialists and ex-treme radicais in order to prevent a de-cisive rote.

was prevoked by the socialists and ex-treme radicals in order to prevent a de-cisive rote. During the fight Deputy Humbert, so-cialist, seized the ballot-box in which vote was being taken, and, heading it up, threw the pieces in the faces of his opponents. Under the circumstances a record of the vote was considered worthless. Two hundred republicans met subse-quently in the committee room, Deputy Deluno-Mentand presiding. Resolutions were adopted expressing the sories of the plenary assemble had been prevented from eccomplishing its purpose by such that the plenary assemble had been prevented from eccomplishing its purpose by such that the plenary assemble had been prevented from eccomplishing its purpose by such that the optimistic propose by such the plenary assemble had been prevented from eccomplishing its purpose by such the plenary assemble had been prevented from eccomplishing its purpose by such that the optimistic propose by such differences and that this course was likely to ensure the election of M.  No Intimation of What Will Be Done About Croker.
 Ne WYORK, June 27.—The senate police investigating committee resumed its labors, and there is every indication that the session this week will be a lively one. Lawyor Goff has been since Friday has sending out subpornas.
 It is runnored that Inspector Williams will be called before the adjournment takes place and it will be a case of Greek meeting Greek when Mr. Goff wants him to tell all he knows about the police department of New York.
 Mme. Ename Charles of the Tenderloin district is also on Mr. Goff's list, and it is expected that she will have an interesting story to tell of that well-known district. Ex-Police Commissioner Stephen B. Prench may also be heard on the stand. As matters now stand the committee will not stafter July 4. An adjournment will take place before that date and the committee will not stafter July 4. An adjournment will take place before that date and the committee will not his views.
 It is said that Chairman Lexow has been in the receipt of threatoning letters almost daily. He, however, denies that such is the fact and sys that he has not received any such epistels.
 The rather sudden return of Richard Croker was not expected by the committee to called. Mr. Goff is very reticent as to what his intentions are towards Mr. Croker.

Dramatic Pirates

WASHINGTON, June 27.-Mr. Covert, of New York, the chairman of the house com-We wants to be a set of the bouse com-mittee on patents, will at once report fa-vorably the bill to punish the pirating of dramatic compositions. As the law now stands there is no practical way of punish-ing these offenses. The purpose of the Covert bill is to remedy these defects. The bill has been championed by Bronson Howard of New York and other gentlemen equally well-known in the dramatic world. It has the cordial support of the majority of the patent committee and Speaker Crisp has promised Mr. Covert that a day shall be given to bim during the present session s promised Mr Covert that a day shall given to Fin during the present session which the bill may be considered. The ponents of the measure base their objec-n upon the ground that it is not advis-le to add to the catalogue of crimes in federal and state courts. Mr. Covert leves that this argument will not inflaence the house to any extent, and so far as he can see, the bill is likely to meet the approval of a majority of the members and pass without serious difficulty.
