

FREELAND TRIBUNE.

PUBLISHED EVERY MONDAY AND THURSDAY.

THOS. A. BUCKLEY, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

OFFICE: MAIN STREET ABOVE CENTRE.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES. One Year... $1.00 Six Months... .75 Four Months... .50 Two Months... .25

Subscribers are requested to observe the date following the name on the labels of their papers.

Grover Cleveland's name means that Grover is paid up to June 23, 1895.

FREELAND, PA., JULY 9, 1894.

What has Congressman Hines ever done to deserve a renomination from the Democratic party?

Found Himself in Virginia.

Miller H. Cooke, the Wilkes-Barre business man whose disappearance two weeks ago caused much trouble to his friends, wrote to his wife on Friday, stating that he had just found himself in Alexandria, Va.

Fell and Broke His Neck.

John Buchal, of Nanticoke, was returning home early on Thursday morning after celebrating the Fourth and made a short cut over the No. 5 breaker.

The watchman, who saw the fall, went to Buchal's rescue and found he was dead; his neck had been broken.

Amenities and Medics.

Dr. Wisemann (examiner of the medical college)—If a tramp should die of delirium tremens on your hands, to what would you ascribe his death?

The Student—To drunkenness.

Dr. Wisemann—And if the victim were Mr. Munnybags, the millionaire?

The Student—To acute alcoholism superinduced by nervous trouble.

Dr. Wisemann—Here's your diploma.

Chicago Record.

No Time to Waste.

Mrs. De Style—I should just like to know who that young man is that you seem to be encouraging.

Miss De Style—His family came over in the Mayflower, and among his ancestors are William the Conqueror, King Egbert the—

Mrs. De Style—That will do. People with family trees like that are always too poor to marry. Dismiss him.—N. Y. Weekly.

A Complimentary Accusation.

Mrs. Brown—Some people say that our minister is preaching exactly the same sermons he delivered two years ago.

Brown—Such statements ought to make him feel happy.

Mrs. Brown—Why?

Brown—They indicate that some one has been listening to him.—Puck.

Surfrage Again.

"I have no patience with you, John; you are utterly unreasonable about it. Women should have the same privileges as men everywhere. I don't think it's very polite of you, either, to sit there with your hat on while I'm talking to you standing up."

"You are enjoying a man's privilege, my dear!"—Harper's Bazar.

Bright Idea.

Uncle Staten—I bought this little bottle of gold paint on Fourteenth street for ten cents.

Mrs. Staten—What are you going to do with it?

Uncle Staten—I thought it wouldn't hurt the fillings in my teeth to be touched up a little.—N. Y. World.

Met Her Fate.

Little Ethel—Your sister is engaged isn't she?

Playmate—Who says so?

"Nobody."

"Then how do you know?"

"When the letter carrier rings, she goes to the door herself."—Good News.

A Subtle Distinction.

Officer Phancyhann—I hear you was fired for sleeping on duty. Is that so?

Ex-Officer McBrodie—No, Mike, no; never say that. It wasn't for the sleeping; 'twas for the wakin' up too late.—Chicago Record.

Afraid of Getting Tired.

Judge (to prisoner)—We are now going to read the list of your former convictions.

Prisoner—In that case perhaps your worship will allow me to sit down.—Le Baillage.

Papeterie.

Johnnie—Papa, Mr. Brown said he had some paper to meet to-day; what kind of paper is it?

Papa—Note paper, my son.—Detroit Free Press.

The Reason Why.

He loves to rise at early dawn When others love to lie; This is the finest time for him, Because he is a fly.

—Life.

Fine line of shirt waists, McDonald's.

Men's hose at McDonald's for 5c.

Subscribe for the TRIBUNE.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington, D. C., July 6, 1894.

The small attendance in both house and senate shows that lots of senators and representatives are disposed to extend their holiday over the rest of the week. For the ten days previous to the passage of the tariff bill the senate certainly had a hard time with daily sessions from 10 to 6 o'clock or later and the thermometer constantly in touching proximity to ninety degrees. It is not surprising that the passage of the bill, a few minutes before the beginning of Independence Day, by a vote of 39 to 34, should have been followed by an exodus to the mountains and seashore and that the witted senators should be a little slow in returning to their duties.

Everybody is speculating on what the result of the conference on the bill will be, and everybody is agreed that many changes will be made, but there is no agreement as to the nature of the changes, further than that they are likely to be mostly towards the original Wilson bill. Representative Holman says on the subject: "It is an almost invariable rule that if there is an overwhelming sentiment in the house for a particular line of action it finds expression and overcomes all delays and obstacles of parliamentary procedure. I feel certain that in the issue between the senate and house the latter will carry the day."

Representative Bynum, of Indiana, is at the head of the sub-committee of the Democratic congressional campaign committee that is charged with compiling a text book to be used by Democratic speakers in the congressional campaign. The work is progressing, but cannot be completed until the tariff bill has finally been disposed of by congress. The choice of Mr. Bynum to direct this work was a happy one. He will be certain to include in it everything that can help the stump speaker in his arguments, as he believes that the stump speaker is away ahead of the literary bureau as a vote getter, because the average man will listen to a clever speech while he will not read pamphlets, however cleverly they may be prepared.

Representative Springer, chairman of the house committee on banking and currency, says he considers it extremely doubtful whether the sub-committee recently instructed to prepare and report to the full committee a currency reform bill will complete its work at this session of congress. One reason for the delay is that Representative Culbertson, of Texas, a member of the sub-committee, has been detained at home by the serious illness of Mrs. Culbertson.

Representative Catchings, of Miss., who is a member of the house committee on rules and therefore in a position to know, says he does not consider it possible for congress to adjourn as early as the first of August, but it is certain that it will do so very shortly after that date.

The grand jury this week indicted the newspaper correspondents who declined to give the senate investigating committee the sources of their information concerning the alleged sugar trust scandal, and like the two stockbrokers previously indicted, they gave bail for their appearance when wanted for trial. The grand jury has yet to act upon the cases of Havemeyer and Searles, of the sugar trust, who were also certified for refusing to answer questions. It is expected that the constitutionality of the law under which these indictments were found will be argued some time in August, and if the law is upheld by the local court the case will be appealed to the United States supreme court, as it is of the utmost importance that the question should be passed upon by our highest court.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75c.

See McDonald's 25c baby caps.

What Archie Had Heard.

Little Archie (at the dinner table)—Did Mr. Stale-Latte take any of the umbrellas from the hall last night, Ethylle? Ethylle (blushing slightly)—Why, of course not. What makes you ask such a stupid question? Why should he?

Little Archie—That's what I'd like to know, but I thought he did, cos I heard him say when he was going out: "I am going to steal just one!" and—Archie's Father and Mother (in chorus)—Why, what's the matter, Ethylle?—Brooklyn Life.

Quite Willing. Mrs. Norris—Oh, I'll tell you where I want to go. Will you take me to the crematory some day? Mr. Norris—Certainly, if those are positively your last wishes.—Brooklyn Life.

Cause and Effect. First Chicago Statistician—Divorces seem to be on the decrease. Second Chicago Statistician—Yes; there have been fewer marriages.—N. Y. World.

At Piano Recital. Jess—Thumperweld is undoubtedly a coming lion. Bess—His hair is just the right length and color for it.—N. Y. World.

A CASE OF NECESSITY. THE American Lady Vernon, formerly Miss Lawrence, who has been an invalid for several years, is at Pau, and is gradually recovering.

THE actress Kate Bateman (Mrs. Crowe), the Leah of a former generation, is a grandmother. Her daughter, Mrs. Hunter, has a little girl who has been named Leah, after her grandmother's famous heroine.

QUEEN VICTORIA and her daughter Beatrice are accomplished straw-plaiters, and can do make handsome hats for their masculine relatives. The German emperor is reported to value very highly divers hats made for him by his grandmother.

A YOUNG Englishwoman, Lady Mildred Jessup, has written an opera which has been produced and enthusiastically received at Florence. Her husband wrote the libretto. Lady Mildred is the youngest daughter of Lord Strathmore and is about twenty-five years old. She calls her work "Ethelinda."

WOMEN in "smart" London society dress magnificently with quantities of jewels for ornament at balls, concerts and dinners in the season. For their country-house gayeties also they prepare gorgeous costumes; but at the theater and at London dinners in the autumn or winter they prefer to wear what they call "little gowns"—pretty and rather simple black dresses, worn without jewels, not too low-necked and with a goodly quantity of sleeve.

THE suburban race—chasing a train.—Philadelphia Record.

THE bright summer girl and the snap camera will be among the most talking things of the season.—Syracuse Courier.

Mrs. JENKS—"Do you know, I always look best in calicoes." Mrs. Thorpe—"Who told you so?" Mrs. Jenks—"My husband."—Life.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

SO MANY people imagine they have done their duty by their friends in trouble by promising to help them when they get rich.—Texas Siftings.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

NEWS NOTES FROM EUROPE.

NELSON's old battle ship, the Foudroyant, is being exhibited at various ports in Great Britain. It is said that every timber of the old ship is scanned to-day as when she was launched, a hundred years ago.

In the annual parade of truck horses held in London recently there were two gigantic horses, each measuring eighteen hands—that is, standing just six feet high at the shoulders—and weighing at least a ton.

The British royal commission to the World's Columbian exposition says in its official report that the exhibition was by far the most magnificent ever held, and that it was not appreciated in Europe at its proper value.

AMBROSE THOMAS, the composer of "Mignon," was decorated with the grand cross of the legion of honor by President Carnot a few weeks ago. This is the highest honor France can give, and no musician has hitherto attained to it.

ALTHOUGH Queen Victoria rules over an empire that embraces possessions in every part of the world she has never traveled outside of Europe, and even there her trips have been short ones in France, Holland, Germany and Italy only.

VENICE is preparing for the first of a series of biennial international art exhibitions, which is to be opened in April of next year. It is proposed to ask leading artists of all countries to take part in the exhibitions, and valuable prizes will be awarded.

WOMAN'S CHAT.

THE American Lady Vernon, formerly Miss Lawrence, who has been an invalid for several years, is at Pau, and is gradually recovering.

THE actress Kate Bateman (Mrs. Crowe), the Leah of a former generation, is a grandmother. Her daughter, Mrs. Hunter, has a little girl who has been named Leah, after her grandmother's famous heroine.

QUEEN VICTORIA and her daughter Beatrice are accomplished straw-plaiters, and can do make handsome hats for their masculine relatives. The German emperor is reported to value very highly divers hats made for him by his grandmother.

A YOUNG Englishwoman, Lady Mildred Jessup, has written an opera which has been produced and enthusiastically received at Florence. Her husband wrote the libretto. Lady Mildred is the youngest daughter of Lord Strathmore and is about twenty-five years old. She calls her work "Ethelinda."

WOMEN in "smart" London society dress magnificently with quantities of jewels for ornament at balls, concerts and dinners in the season. For their country-house gayeties also they prepare gorgeous costumes; but at the theater and at London dinners in the autumn or winter they prefer to wear what they call "little gowns"—pretty and rather simple black dresses, worn without jewels, not too low-necked and with a goodly quantity of sleeve.

CURRENT NOTES.

THE suburban race—chasing a train.—Philadelphia Record.

THE bright summer girl and the snap camera will be among the most talking things of the season.—Syracuse Courier.

Mrs. JENKS—"Do you know, I always look best in calicoes." Mrs. Thorpe—"Who told you so?" Mrs. Jenks—"My husband."—Life.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

"I don't think I would like to marry any girl unless I knew she was self-sacrificing." She—"But wouldn't that prove it?"—Detroit Free Press.

PICKED UP BY THE WAY.

THINGS SEEN AND HEARD IN THE TOWN AND VICINITY.

Matters of a Local Nature Written Up and Placed Before the Readers of the "Tribune" by the Saunterer—Something Here May Interest You.

One week from today the Democratic legislative convention will be held, and from appearances McNelis will not encounter much opposition on this side of the district. In Freeland, Foster, Butler (Upper Lehigh) and Jeddo there are fourteen or perhaps fifteen delegates to be elected, and his friends claim that he cannot lose more than one or two of these polls. Twenty delegates are necessary to secure the nomination, there being thirty-nine voting places, and of the remainder Mr. McNelis' friends feel certain of securing enough in Hazle township, to say nothing of a few in Hazleton city, to give him the nomination without any trouble. These claims may be somewhat exaggerated, nevertheless it looks at this distance as if McNelis has by far the best chance to win.

[Owing to an accident in our mechanical department this morning the balance of this letter cannot be published today.]

The Great Railroad Strike.

The strike of the railroad employes belonging to the American Railway Union now extends from Cleveland, Ohio, to Portland, Oregon, and from San Francisco, California, to Birmingham, Alabama. Chicago is the pivotal point of the trouble, and nearly 10,000 United States regulars, state militia and deputies are massed there to preserve order. Several conflicts have already occurred between the troops and strikers, and about half a dozen of the latter have been killed while rioting. Serious trouble is apprehended in other cities throughout the West, and the army department is hurrying troops to all points where mobs are in control. It is impossible to estimate the number involved in this great strike.

At Hammond, Ind., twelve strikers were killed by United States regulars yesterday, and a score more were wounded. Hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of railroad property was destroyed in several cities during the day, and the situation has become so critical that President Cleveland issued a proclamation calling upon all unlawful assemblages to disperse before noon today.

Federal troops are being rushed to different points, and considerable loss of life may result before the strikers give in. Property to the amount of $2,000,000 has been burned up or wrecked along the routes of the railroads in the West.

Examine McDonald's $3 velvet rugs.

See McDonald's 15c baby caps.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

FOR CONGRESS—

JOHN LEISENRING, of Upper Lehigh. Subject to the decision of the Republican congressional convention.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE—

JOHN J. MCNELIS, of Drifton. Subject to the decision of the Democratic convention of the fourth legislative district.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE—

JAMES A. SWEENEY, of Hazleton. Subject to the decision of the Democratic convention of the fourth legislative district.

FOR JUDGE OF ORPHANS' COURT—

D. L. RHONE, of Wilkes-Barre. Subject to the decision of the Democratic county convention.

BREED TO A PRODUCING STALLION.

HAWKMER. By Beverly, 472, 2254. Hawkmer is a handsome dark sorrel, 15 1/2 hands, weight 1,050, foaled 1890. Special low rate, $10, for season of 1894. Can be seen on application to Joseph Schatzle, White Haven, Pa.

MRS. S. E. HAYES, Fire Insurance Agent. Birkbeck Brick, Centre Street. None but Reliable Companies Represented.

WANTED.—A position as housekeeper or to do general housework, by a widow. Apply at this office.

FOR SALE.—A fine piano, also bedroom suit and household goods. Inquire of Jacobs & Barsch.

DISTRICT CONVENTION.—In accordance with a resolution adopted by the Democratic district committee May 12, 1894, a convention will be held at the Cottage Hotel, Freeland, Monday, July 16, at 10 o'clock a. m., to nominate a candidate for the legislature. Delegate elections will be held at the regular polling places by the Democratic vigilance committees, Saturday, July 14, between the hours of 4 and 7 p. m. Election districts are entitled to one delegate for every one hundred Democratic votes or portion thereof above fifty, as at the last preceding county election. Such vote being based upon the average vote of all the county candidates. John J. McNelis, Bernard McLaughlin, secretaries.

— $1.50 — Will Bring You the Tribune For a Year.

JOS. NEUBURGER'S.

PRICES STILL ON THE DECLINE! For this week we have many special bargains, which will prove of big interest to you.

NOTIONS: Three-yard ecru taped lace curtains, one dollar value, for this week, 65c per pair. Good bleached towels, 5c each. Ladies' fast black hose, twelve and one-half cent value, this week 3 pair for 25c.

FURNISHINGS: Men's silk embroidered fancy night shirts, 49c; a seventy-five cent value. Men's negligee percale shirts, with laundered collars and cuffs, 45c; regularly sold at 75c. Ladies' muslin underwear in endless varieties of the most perfect fitting and best makes.

CLOTHING: Boys' twenty five cent knee pants, 15c per pair. Boys' two dollar knee pants suits, $1. Men's three seventy-five all wool custom-made trousers, $2.25 per pair. Men's fine all wool custom-made bound cheviot suits, twelve dollar value, at $8.

DRY GOODS, SHOES, LADIES' CAPES AND JACKETS at prices on which we defy competition. A visit of inspection is requested of you.

JOS. NEUBURGER, In the P. O. S. of A. Building, Freeland, Pa.

This Rocking Chair $2.75.

Baby Carriages $4 to $20. A Handsome Line of Various Designs Selling Cheap.

J. C. Berner, Washington and South Sts.

CITIZENS' BANK OF FREELAND. CAPITAL, - $50,000.

OFFICERS: Joseph Birkbeck, President. H. C. Koons, Vice President. B. R. Davis, Cashier. Charles Dusbeck, Secretary.