Professional Courtesy. Two Texas doctors met on the street. "I feel sorry for you. You ought not to be out in this kind of weather. You are a sick man," said Dr. Blister. "I am not feeling very well," replie? Dr. Soonover. "What doctor is treather on the

What doctor is treating you?"

"I am prescribing for myself." "You shouldn't do that. You are liable to be arrested for attempted sui-cide."—Alex Sweet, in Texas Siftings.

No Recommendation. "How's business?" asked Jimson of the furniture man. "Bad. Our advertising agent made a fool of himself," said the dealer. "How was that?" "Oh, he bragged too much. In dwell-ing on the furniture of our make he said that it was always in the van, and people who have had experience in mov-ing didn't want that kind of furniture." -Harper's Bazar.

In the Dark.

Bobble Bingo (at his mother's dinner party)—This is the first dinner mamma would let me sit at the table with the company. One of the Guests—Then you are not very well acquainted here, are you, Bobbie? Bobbie? Bobbie—No, sir. I don't even know who all this silver belongs to.—Brook-

Deafness Cannot be Cured

Defines Cannot be Cared by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to care deafness and that is by consistintional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed con-dition of the materia limit of the custachian table. When this tabe gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entire-ly closed deafness is the result, and un-less the inflamation can be taken out and this tube restored area.
