What has Congressman Hines ever done to deserve a renomination from the Democratic party?

Tobacco smokers have been some what alarmed by an alleged discovery that use of the weed is a frequent cause of color blindness.

As an illustration of the slowness of promotion in the army, the Register shows that Edward Davis, first lieutenant of the Third artillery, has a son who is second lieutenant of the Eighth cavalry.

The Reading Browns came as far as Pottsville yesterday morning, but as it was still raining heavily when they arrived there, they concluded to return home.

Mr. Cox's positive refusal to have any personal share in the campaign as far as the candidate goes destroys a hope the twelfth district Democrats have long considered as the only avenue left them this year to victory.

Now that the position of Mr. Cox is thoroughly known through his declaration, it is beyond question that Congressman Hines will be given the renomination he seeks, and the campaign in Luzerne will be just as interesting and exciting as it was in 1892, when he introduced methods that were partially repudiated last year by the defeat of the Democratic county ticket.

The nomination of John Leisenring, the bright and hustling young Republican, who knocked the props out from under the ex-Senator Morgan B. Williams so neatly and deftly, also means a fight equal to the brilliant contest conducted by ex-Congressman George W. Shonk against John B. Reynolds in 1890, in which Shonk won by 1,484 majority.

Patrick Carey has commenced proceedings against H. R. Lacey and G. S. Christian, doing business as the Freeland Beef Company, for $10,000 damages.

On September 9, 1893, the son of the plaintiff was kicked in the head and body by a vicious horse which was negligently allowed to run at large by the defendants. It is stated that the boy was seriously injured and for some time his life was despaired of.

The common council of Middleport, O., according to a local exchange, has passed an ordinance affixing a penalty of fifty dollars to the offense of playing progressive euchre.

In paying the world's fair 10 per cent dividend, 17,385 checks for varying sums, one, two, five and ten dollars were sent out. Half a million dollars went to the city, and $123,643 to the Columbian museum for stock donated to it.

COULD NOT PLAY BALL.

Hazleton's Y. M. C. A. Club Made a Poor Showing Against the Tigers.

The Y. M. C. A. club of Hazleton put up the worst game of the season at the park on Saturday afternoon. The Tigers had an elegant time pounding the ball for two hours and twenty minutes, and batted up runs until they were tired batting.

That was all they could get in, as the home team settled down to work and played a good game after the first few innings. Costello, of Lattimer, threw nicely for the Tigers, and only six hits were made off him.

Following is the official score:

Table with official score: Hazleton (H.) 1, Tigers (T.) 4, Runs (R.) 1, Hits (H.) 6, Errors (E.) 1.

When the directors made it mandatory on the part of the teachers to read a few lessons of the bible every morning they wished no doubt to inculcate into the minds of the pupils a few moral lessons.

The attendance at the last game showed that Saturday base ball would not pay here. The crowd was the smallest of the season.

The Tigers will take a strong club down to Ashland on Wednesday and intend to win the two games there, if possible.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

Freeland, August 10, 1894.

Editor TRIBUNE.—Monday morning, the day of opening our borough schools, will be an eventful day to teachers and pupils. A thousand things will crowd upon them at the same time and each will demand prompt and judicious attention on their part.

What a ludicrous moment it will be for one of the teachers when she reads from that book of sectarian faith? What a sense of incongruity will dawn upon the minds of the pupils when they will have expounded to them dogmas of faith which she does not understand and what a folly it is for teachers to read to pupils of things the expressed language of which their little minds are utterly incapable of comprehending.

When the directors made it mandatory on the part of the teachers to read a few lessons of the bible every morning they wished no doubt to inculcate into the minds of the pupils a few moral lessons.

PICKED UP BY THE WAY.

THINGS SEEN AND HEARD IN THE TOWN AND VICINITY.

Matters of a Local Nature Written up and Placed Before the Readers of the "Tribune" by the Saunterer—Something Here May Interest You.

It is strange the effect a railway accident will have upon some persons for a time after it occurs. Since the recent collision on the trolley line last week I have heard a dozen people remark that they would "never ride on those cars."

Trace out the consequences of a nervous, soft and too indulgent discipline, when it comes to bear fruit in after life. Consider what a man is likely to be who has no resolution enough to resist public opinion, to refuse to pronounce the follies of his party, to abstain from display and expense which he cannot afford, to emancipate himself from bigotry which he feels to be narrow and selfish.

Further, it must be borne in mind that every one of the departments of teaching with which we deal in schools carries with it its own special ethical lessons. Those intricate though graceful drills that delighted the audience at the opera house a few months ago carry their own load of merit.

History is a large field that is covered with golden examples by which moral character may be developed. One looks back over the annals of our race and recalls the past. The echoes of far-off contests and of ancient heroisms come down to us through the ages.

There is some talk around the lower end of town about organizing a new fire company. It appears that the people of the Points think the present location of the fire apparatus is too far away from their properties, and that a blaze has too much chance to spread before the hose could arrive.

It begins to look as if the annexation question is to be opened up again. I hear that some of the pushing citizens of South Heberton are out, or will be in a few days, with a petition to have that place and Alwintown annexed to Freeland.

There is a population of about 1,200 east and north of the borough that should be within the limits, and if the gentlemen who have taken the matter in charge will persevere their efforts will surely be crowned with success.

Old Mother Foster has trouble enough on her hands already, and there is not much objection expected if Freeland does adopt a few more of her grown-up children.

McDonald offers you the choice of a silverware set with every $50 worth of goods bought at his store.

J. C. Berner sells Schweitzer, brick, limburger and domestic cheese. Try it.
