WELCOME TO VETERANS

OLD SOLDIERS COMING TO SEE THE MONUMENT UNVEILLED.

the Grand Army Posts and Civic Societies Which Are Gathering to Take Part in Today's Demonstration

What promises to be one of the greatwhat promises to be one of the greatest days in Freeland's history began this morning. Through the the energetic work of Maj. C. B. Coxe Post, No. 147, G. A. R., the beautiful monument recently erected in Freeland cemetery will be unveiled this afternoon in the presence of several thousand people. To the visiting Grand Army Posts, civic To the visiting Grand Army Posts, evic societies and spectators in general, Freeland extends a hearty welcome and is prepared to accord them the hospitable and generous treatment that our town is noted in giving to strangers.

The town today has a beautiful appearance. The projucy decorations of the tax levying committee.

The town today has a beautiful appearance. The profuse decorations of business places and residences are far greater than upon any past occasion, and the reputation of Freeland as one of the most patriotic spots in the state will not suffer any today from the criticisms that may be expected from our visitors. The town from end to end is as clean and as bright-looking as a newly-coined dollar.

Neither expense nor labor has been spared by Freeland people to show the interest taken in today's event.

THE PARADE.

The parade will form in the order published on Monday, and at 2 o'clock will move over the following route:

Down Washington street to Carbon, to Ridge, up Ridge to Walnut, to Centre, down Centre to Carbon, countermarch up Centre to Walnut, to Birkbeck, down Birkbeck to cometer, where the upvail. Birkbeck to cemetery, where the unveiling of the mohument will take place and addressess will be delivered by distinguished guests.

THE MONUMENT.

The monument is of granite and is situated upon a solid foundation of masonry twelve feet in thickness. A circular mound elevate! two feet above the surface of its surroundings and 35 feet in diameter encircles the base. The base is 9 feet and the shaft is 32 feet in height, including the statue, which is 6 feet 8 inches. Facing the east is the statue—a soldier in the position of "Parade Rest," looking towards the cemetery gate. Below are two swords crossed, the word "Antietem," the emblem of the G. A. R., the word "Gettysburg," and an inscription, "Erected by circular mound elevate! two feet above burg," and an inscription, "Erected by Maj. C. B. Coxe Post, No. 147, G. A. R., and friends, Aug. 23, 1894." On the base is the inscription, "Maj. C. B. Coxe Post, No. 147, G. A. R."

On the south is inscribed "Petersburg," the G. A. R. emblem, the word, "Beverlyford," and "A tribute to the heroes who saved the nation in the war for the union 1861-1865." The west side of the monument is inscribed with, "Appomattox," the G. A. R. emblem and "Cold Harbor." On the north is the word, "Atlanta," the emblem of the G. A. R., the word "Spottsylvania" and the inscription, "A memorial to all reportations."

The shaft was made by J. T. Masters, of Shenandoah, and all expenses in-cluded has cost the post $2,650. Con-sidering the small number of members in the post here, and the difficulties which the committee met on account of the times, the monument is a standing testimonial to their season and account the times, the monument is a standing testimonial to their energy and perseverance. Though other towns may be able to erect finer and more costly tributes to the memory of the veterans who have answered the last call, none

Special Council Meeting

An adjourned meeting of the council was held last evening for the purpose of levying an additional tax of five mills. A committee was appointed to wait on the borough solicitor in reference to the same. The complaint against the high constable was laid over until the next meeting, as was also the report of the street committee on the Yannes nui-

Corner-Stone Laid.

The corner-stone of St. Paul's P. M. church on Fern street was laid on Monday afternoon with appropriate cere-monies. George Bird, one of the leading members of the congregation, placed the stone in position. Addresses were delivered by Rev. Wm. F. Nicholls, of Hazleton, and Rev. F. M. Bateman, of Girardeville. Per C. A. Scaelling. Girardsville. Rev. C. A. Spaulding, of Hazleton and Rev. S. Cooper, the pastor of the church, took part in the services. Music was rendered by the P. M. choir of Hazleton. The dedicatory sermon was then preached by Rev. Bateman.

D. Gross has purchased the clothin and gents' furnishing store of J. Gross, in the Points. In company with Mr. Leitchman, who will act here as manager, the new proprietor left here this morning for a week in New York and Philadelphia for goods. They will equip the store with a complete line of cloth-ing, hats, caps, gents' furnishing goods, etc. Prices will be made to suit the times and you are invited to call and learn their low figures.

Reformed Church of Eckley

Articles incorporating "St John's Re-formed Church of Eckley" were filed in the prothonotary's office at Wilkes-Barre on Tuesday. Rev. H. A. J. Benner, of Freeland, is mentioned pastor of the new congregation; and the following are officers: Andrew Wagner, Sr., William Karchner, elders; Frederick A. Wagner, Abraham J. Lentz and I. H. BASE BALL POINTS.

The game between Tigers and Jeanes ville should draw a large crowd to the park this afternoon. It is some years since this club has appeared on the local grounds, and as the rivalry between local grounds, and as the rivalry between the teams is very strong, a first-class game should result. Jeanesville's battery will be Keener and Schmear, and the Tigers will be represented by McGill and Gaffney. The game will commence at 3.30 o'clock.

The Stroudsburg normal school club will play against the Tigers at the park on Sunday afternoon. The club is com-posed of several well-known ball players who attended school at Stroudsburg last year, and they are anxions to test their strength against the home club. McGill and Bellas will be the battery for the

Silver Wedding Anniversary

The members of the Legion of Honor tendered Mr. and Mrs. D. J. McCarthy a grand reception at Cottage hall on Tuesday evening to commemorate the twenty-fifth anniversary of their mar-riage. Mr. McCarthy is commander of Union Council No. 300, and the members, together with the members of Council 509, took this method of show-ing their appreciation of the efficient work done for the order by him.

The evening was passed pleasantly up to 12 o'clock in dancing and listening to addresses and at that hour all were invited to partake of the supper that had been prepared for the security. been prepared for the occasion.

Mr. McCarthy and wife were the re cipients of a number of valuable and useful presents, among them being a silver fruit stand, silver butter dish, silver tray and cake basket, the gifts of the Legion of Honor. The presentation ad-dress was made by Rev. J. W. Bischoff.

An Important Suit Decided

On Tuesday morning, at Ebensburg Judge Barker, of the Cambria county court, filed his opinion in the celebrated case arising from the employment of nuns in the Gallitzin public schools. Action was first commenced in the case when at the March term of court State Councilor William Kerr, of Pittsburg, in the interest of the Junior Order United American Mechanics, applied for an inunction restraining the nuns, who had 3.30 o'clock.

Hazleton still hangs on to next to last place in the State league, and its efforts to dislodge Philadelphia from its position as tail-ender has so far proved unsuccessful.

of schools. The judge decided that the teaching of the catechism after school hours in the public schools was a misuse of public school property and that it was in adversion to the laws of the state.

The injunction restraining the nuns from using the garb of their order in their teachings was dissolved. The judge says there is nothing in the laws of this state to prevent teachers from wearing whatever dress they wish, also that it is no violation of law for directors to employ sisters as teachers, when they properly qualify and prove they ar

The case had attracted widespread attention and the opinion of Judge Bar-ker has been anxiously awaited since May by the anti-Catholic societies throughout the state. Prominent members of the Junior Mechanics say that Councilor Kerr will appeal the case to the supreme court, and if the decision is sustained he will endeavor to have the legislature pass a law making it illegal to use sectarian garb in public schools.

A Saengerbund Meeting.

A convention of the United Pennsylvania Saengerbunds was held in Wilkes-Barre this week. All the important towns in the eastern part of the state were represented. The object of the meeting was the election of officers and the selection of a place to hold the state saengerfest next year. President Louis saengerrest next year.
