He was accidentally struck on the knee by an ice cream tub at the firemen's excuron August 25, and this renewed an old injury there. The wound has caused considerable swelling and is very painful, requiring constant attention.

Home Comfort Ranges.

People using the Home Comfort steel ranges speak as follows:
Freeland, September 3, 1894.

We have a Home Comfort steel range that we purchased from the company's salesman last month. It has proved itself a comfort. We have had it in use about three weeks and tested it quite thoroughly. For roasting, baking and boiling, in fact any kind of cooking, it cannot be excelled. We therefore cheerfully recommend it to anyone wishing a fine range. It takes about half as much fuel as our cast range did to give the same amount of heat,

An Important Case Decided.

A case of great interest to Catholics of this part of the state has just been de-cided. It is the suit of two nieces of the late Rev. Father O'Haran, of Wilkes-Barre, against Bishop O'Hara and the diocese of Scranton, and resulted in a victory for the defendants. Father O'Haran had collected a fortune of $75,-000, with which it was his intention to build a large school, and he had purchased the ground for $19,000 and was making preparations to commence the building when he died. His illness was so sudden that he had barely time to make a will before he breathed his last All the money the priest possessed in his own name, about $55,000, was willed to Bishop O'Hara, to be used for church

When the contents of the will becam known Father O'Haran's relatives in Ireland were not at all pleased. They thought they were entitled to some share of it, and at once gave notice that they would contest the will. The prosecutors were nieces of the deceased priest, Miss Mary O'Haran and her sister, Mrs. Josephine B. O'Connor.

The case was called in the United

The case was called in the United States court at Williamsport last October and after a three days' trial the jury failed to agree. The case was called a second time in Williamsport on last Thursday. The trial lasted until Saturday night, when the jury returned a ver-dict for the defendants, that is to say the will stands and Bishop O'Hara gets the money.

The nieces sought to establish the fact that their uncle had made promises that he would start them in business when he would start them in b they came to this country.

E. B. Leisenring Ill in Germany

Edward B. Leisenring, of Mauch Chunk, the well-known president of the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company, is lying dangerously ill at Hamburg, Germany. Mr. Leisenring is the only brother of John Leisenring, of Upper Lehigh, the Republican congress candidate in this district. Cablegrams received by his family and friends this week indicate that his condition is precarious and the family is much alarmed. The ailment is said to be angina pectoris, or neuralgia of the heart. The gentle-man, in company with Daniel Thomas, of Catasauqua, and George H. Myers, of Bethlehem, started on August 23 for the continent, expecting to restore his health at the famous springs at Hom-burg. Upon landing at Hamburg, how-ever, the party was deterred from going further by reason of Mr. Leisenring's change for the worse.

Water Said to Contain Paris Green.
What appears to have been a deliberate attempt to poison a well used by the people of No. 5 Lattimer, was discovered yesterday and is now being investigated by the coal and iron police, says the Plain Speaker this morning. The extreme scarcity of water has placed that commodity at a premium in the vicinity of Lattimer. Recourse was then had to a well, the water of which was used by almost every one in the village for domostic purposes.

The using of this well has on several occasions given rise to disputes and bad occasions given rise to disputes and bad blood was aroused. It is thought that some one who had been worsted in a dispute over the right to draw water from the well had resorted to this method to get square.

Discoveries made by the officers point Discoveries made by the officers point very strongly to the parties who are guilty and evidence has been found to prove that the paris green, with which the well had been poisoned, was prepared there. The poison was carried to the well in a can. A considerable portion of it was spilled on the way and a trail was plainly marked out. was plainly marked out.

THE PASSING SHOW.

am Boyd in the Wilkes-Barre Newsdo A representative man from the fourth district, who is doing jury duty this week, is Ben. F. Davis of Freeland. week, is Ben. F. Davis of Freeland. Mr. Davis is one of the substantial men of Freeland, at which place he is engaged in merchandizing, is a stalwart Republican in politics and is a very active and busy man. On all matters of progress and advancement that appear to be of benefit or advantage to that bor-ough Mr. Davis takes a prominent in-terest and aids it so far as he can with his means and his influence. In standing up and maintaining the interests of his home town Mr. Davis shows that business judgment and sagacity that is always allied to a man who has carved out success by his own efforts and skill. Such men do not wait for opportunities to come to them, they strike out and make them, no matter what obstacles beset their way. A dozen of such men in a town are worth more to its progress than an army of the kind that fears to put their ventures out, and Freeland is to be complimented in the possession of a go-ahead enterprising citizen of his kind.

Manager Ferry, of the Tigers, states there is no game scheduled yet for his club on Sunday next. Some of the Hazleton newspapers have been advertising the State league team of that city to play here on that day, but this has been done without authority from the Tigers manager. The probabilities are that there will be no game here on Sunday.

Pastoral Association Meeting

The Lutheran Pastoral Association of the Upper Lehigh Velley met on Monday at the residence of Rev. W. H. Strauss, Lehighton. At 10 a. m. the president, Rev. E. A. Bauer, called the meeting to order and it was opened with prayer by Rev. Blum, of Summit Hill.
The minutes of the former meeting were read and approved. The following members were present: Revs. Bauer, Strauss, Keeder and Longacker, of Lebishton, Rev. Plant 1997. highton; Rev. Blum, of Summit Hill; Rev. Lindenstruth, of Mauch Chunk; Revs. Schlenker and Raush, of Hazle-ton; Revs. Kuntz, Hauser and Schmidt, of Freeland; Rev. Bruening, Ph. D., of White Haven; and Revs. Schaeffer and Scandkos of Wilhen

Seneker, of Wilkes-Barre.

The first business, "Homeletics," by Revs. Bruening and Blum, brought outines of sermons on psalms 145, verses 15 and 16. They had studied the text well and were therefore prepared. The verses were fully discussed and agreed upon. Greek was then taken up. The tenth chapter of St. John was read and verse by verse exegetically discussed. By this time the hour of 12.30 had set in, and the association adjourned until 2.30 p. m. They were called into the p. m. They were caned into the dinner prepared by the esteemed wife of

At 2.30 p. m. the association was called to order again for the afternoon session. First, some routine business was disposed of, then the Rev. Schlenker brought a very well prepared paper on "Demonology." After the reading of the paper, it was thoroughly discussed. Rev. Keeder presented a good paper on "Benevolent Objects." Rev. Seneker, benevoient Objects." Rev. Seneker, of Wilkes-Barre, had a perfectly finish-ed paper on the relation of "Pulpit Topics for the Present Day." By this time the

Another Fatal Explos. On Tuesday afternoon a terrible exlosion of gas occurred at the Centralia colliery operated by L. A. Riley & Co. George Electra was instantly killed, James Fergarty was fatally injured and John Cook was seriously burned. Two Hungarian laborers whose names could not be learned were also injured. The gas was ignited by Electra's naked lamp. His body was frightfully mangled and burned. Fergarty was thrown a dis-tance of thirty feet along the gangway, and was injured internally. The dam-age to the mine was slight.

It was at first thought that several miners were closed in, but they had escaped through an air course.
