FROM CORRESPONDENTS.

LETTERS THAT MAY CONTAIN BITS OF NEWS FOR EACH READER.

All the News and Many Personalities in Short, Pungent Paragraphs by Reliable Correspondents in Upper Lehigh, Eckley and Highland.

Regular correspondence from the surrounding towns and communications upon local or general subjects are solicited by the TRIBUNE. The name of the writer must accompany all letters or items sent to this office for publication.

UPPER LEHIGH NOTES.

Michael Mulligan, Sr., came up from Nesquehoning last week to see his many friends around here again.

George Buchman removed his family from No. 5 to Main street.

Quite a number of our young men are awaiting the opening of the night school.

Parents should warn their boys to stay away from No. 9 slope. It is a bad place and some of them may get hurt.

Samuel Herring, removed from No. 3 to No. 5, this week.

On account of Saturday being payday here our boys are wearing a broad smile.

Rev. J. W. Bischoff is at Tyrone this week, attending to business in connection with the Presbyterian church.

ECKLEY CLIPPINGS.

Patrick O'Donnell and wife, of Highland, were visitors here on Sunday.

Andrew O'Donnell and wife took in Pleasant Hill sights on Sunday.

Thomas McGinty, of Hazleton, visited friends here on Monday.

William Moore, of Carbon county, spent Sunday in town.

Frank McGill, 2d, has given up the carpenter trade and is talking of starting a blacksmith shop.

It is rumored that the colliers here will work five days this week.

Pay-day came on Saturday and was a welcome visitor.

Miss Katie Cull, of Freeland, spent Sunday in town.

Howard Kerchner has accepted a position as fireman on the steam shovel of Contractor Coyle.

John Ryan has accepted a position on the D. S. & S. at Roan Junction.

J. F. O'Donnell is now employed as screen-boss for Markle & Co. at No. 5 Jeddo.

Miss Annie Maloney is visiting relatives at Carbonale. Her friends in this vicinity regret her departure very much.

It is rumored that one of our young men on Main street intends taking a better hall in a short while.

HIGHLAND DOTS.

The active politicians of town have dropped into a silence that no person here can explain. The men of both parties seem to have a tired feeling and unless some of the candidates can shake things up a little the vote will be light.

Thomas Young, mine foreman at No. 5 Jeddo, removed his family from here to that place on Tuesday.

The colliers are still working half time with no immediate hopes of doing better.

Our residents are awaiting for Saturday in hopes that pay-day will make its appearance also.

This place is over-run with insurance agents. They find it a pretty hard town to work on account of the slack time.

Miss Mattie Brown, one of our young ladies who is attending Bloomsburg normal school, left on Monday to resume her studies after spending a few days with her parents.

The father of the young mite, whose troubles were mentioned last Thursday, requests us to inform the parties who are threatening him that he will have his son's tormentors arrested if they do not let him alone.

Trouble Ahead for Somebody.

Freeland Cor. in Plain Speaker.
The now famous case of Elliott vs. the high constable, in which the plaintiff alleges that the first official of the borough seized his horse illegally and has held the animal in default of the fine, promises to mark an epoch in the history of Freeland. For many weeks past, the constable has been more than willing to return the animal, less his fee, but the gentleman who has fed and cared for his horse all this time modestly asks that he be reimbursed ere the animal leaves his present quarters.

With Mr. Elliott firm in his refusal to settle the case, except at his own terms, which practically means that he shall not only be exempt from any costs in the lease, but that he shall receive compensation for the time in which he has been denied the use of his horse. Mr. Ludwig is in a quandary, and to add to his troubles his bondsmen are becoming alarmed over the turn affairs have taken and they threaten to take action to protect themselves from possible loss; council will necessarily have to shortly. It is to be hoped that the outcome of the affair will have a good effect on future generations of high constables.

Wants $10,000 Damages.

An important damage case was begun at Wilkes-Barre yesterday, in which John Shewak asks $10,000 for damages from the Lehigh Valley and Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Companies. The plaintiff alleges that on September 17, 1892, his wife, Annie Shewak, of Alden, 40 years old, took passage on the Lehigh Valley Railroad, then leased by the Reading, to visit friends at Freeland; that at Penobscot the passenger train collided with another engine going in the opposite direction, and that said plaintiff's wife, who sat on a front seat, was thrown violently against a stove and severely injured; that she was brought home and lost her reason and is now demented and in the Danville insane asylum. The case is still on.

Let His Prisoner Go.

From the Wilkes-Barre Leader.
Officer John Jones had a rather warm reception at a Polish wedding over at Grand Tunnel Monday evening. A warrant was issued by Squire Powell for the arrest of a Pole who was charged with assault. The officer proceeded to Grand Tunnel to make the arrest and when he arrived there he found that his man was attending a Polish wedding. When he arrived at the house his man was indulging in drunken hilarity but John was not to be daunted.

He approached, and in a short time found a whole swarm of Poles lighting on his anatomy. He returned alone, and glad he was to get out with his life. Warrants were issued next morning for the arrest of those who interfered.

At the Opera House Tonight.

The celebrated orator, Ralph Bingham, in his seventeenth annual season, who will be at Freeland opera house this evening, has, with his sister Ruth, a record of success unequalled by any other entertainers on the English-speaking platform of today. Ralph and Ruth Bingham will not fail to entertain the audience in a style unsurpassed by any other platform entertainers now before the public. The Mayberry band will also be present.

The entertainment is under the auspices of the Mining and Mechanical Institute, and the proceeds will go to the support of that worthy institution. Reserved seat tickets can be obtained at Christy's store.

Suit for Damages.

E. A. Lynch and E. F. McGovern have commenced suit for their client, John Newton, against the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company for $5,000 damages. The plaintiff's statement is as follows: On July 6, 1894, he purchased a ticket in Wilkes-Barre for transportation to Hazleton. When the train arrived at White Haven they were told to change cars. He started to leave the train, and while on the steps of the car in the act of getting off, the train was put in motion by a sudden jar. This threw the plaintiff to the ground, giving him serious injuries, from which he still suffers. For this he claims the damages stated above.

Appreciate a Good Thing.

Have you noticed the many new suits that can be seen every day in town? Ask the wearers where they got them, and nine cases out of ten the answer will be "At Refowich's." The people of Freeland appreciate a good thing and hundreds have availed themselves of the opportunity to have a neat suit or an overcoat made to order at ready-made prices. If you haven't tried him, call this evening.

All his goods are new, bright and of the latest style and suits will be made to order at ready-made prices. He has no rent to pay and can easily do it. The best fits are guaranteed and clothing made by him will be kept in repair free for one year. Nothing like this has ever been seen in Freeland before. Give him a call. Square treatment assured.

POLITICAL PICKUPS.

The Democratic committee of the fourth legislative district met on Monday evening at Hazleton. The reports from the various polling places indicate the election of John J. McNelis as representative. Arrangements were made for a vigorous campaign.

Eckley B. Coxe, Jr., of Drifton, has been elected a member of the executive committee of the University of Pennsylvania Democratic Club, of Philadelphia, an organization which is doing considerable work for the party in that city.

William M. Singler, the Democratic candidate for governor, will speak at Hazleton on Thursday evening, November 1.

The local Republicans have not yet decided upon the dates for their meetings in the fourth district.

Anthony Stahl, Charles Dusheck and John Shigo have been elected members of the Democratic legislative committee.

General Hastings will hold a reception and make an address at Wilkes-Barre next Wednesday. Owen Fowler, Joseph Neuberger and Frank DePiero, of Freeland, and Dr. H. M. Neale, of Upper Lehigh are members of the reception committee.

The United Presbyterian Ministerial Association has passed resolutions calling upon the clergy and religious press to oppose the election of Walter Lyon, the Republican nominee for lieutenant governor, on account of his efforts at the last session of the legislature to secure a modification of the Sabbath laws.

POULTRY POINTS.

APPLES are excellent for geese in winter.

HALF-BLOOD Brahmas make good sitters and good mothers.

POULTRY cannot be kept healthy on wet ground or in damp houses.

THE goose should have good pasture. The cow does not need grass more than the goose does.

THE farmer or village poultry-keeper should have a good poultry house. It is half the battle.

BEEF blood is highly recommended as food for poultry. It is not fed often but twice a week.

In building a poultry house make it convenient in every respect. Have the grain bins, vegetable supply and water handy.

NEVER pluck geese too close to winter. In the south they can be plucked three times a year; in the north not more than twice.

FACTS AND FIGURES.

THERE are 150,000,000 opium smokers in China.

TWELVE average tea plants produce one pound of tea.

THE railroads of this country employ 33,136 locomotives.

IT is estimated that the land in the United States is worth $12,800,000,000.

THE king of Samoa has forbidden his subjects to sell or to use intoxicating liquors.

THE University of Chicago conferred its first degree of doctor of philosophy upon a Japanese.

AN ant's brain is larger, in proportion to the animal's size, than that of any other creature known.

LAST year the postmasters of this country handled about 4,000,000,000 pieces of stamped paper.

SEN JOHN HAIB declares that the Chinese pay every year for their national curse, opium, $100,000,000.

That Settled It.

He had proposed, but she seemed somewhat reluctant to give him the sunshine of her consent.

"If you should hear that I am frivolous, vain, that I spend half my time before my mirror, what would you say?" she asked.

"If I had a face like yours I should be tempted to be there the whole time," he answered.

Cost a Quarter.

Ragged Robert (with a mysterious air)—I saw your husband down town, mum, and 'of you'll give me a quarter I'll tell you what kind of a place I saw him go into.

Mrs. Greeneye—Goodness me! Here's the quarter. Tell me quick. What was the place?

Ragged Robert—The post office, mum.—N. Y. Weekly.

Could Not Separate them.

Jack Conley—Look here, Willy! Because you have lost your heart to that girl, it is no reason why you should lose your head.

Willy Wakelap—Well you see, Jack, my heart was in my mouth when I proposed to her, and in accepting my heart she took my head with it.—Harper's Bazar.

An Enjoyable Entertainment.

From the Philadelphia Times.
Ralph Bingham and his sister, Miss Bingham, gave one of their enjoyable entertainments at Memorial church, Eight and Cumberland streets, last evening, which was noteworthy on account of the unusually large attendance, one of the largest, in fact, that ever greeted a performer in this class of amusement.

E. B. Leisenring's Will.

There are several benevolent bequests embodied in the will of E. B. Leisenring, deceased, which was admitted to probate in Philadelphia on Monday. To Annie W. Leisenring, the widow, one-third of the decedent's personal estate is bequeathed, "provided that it shall amount to $500,000," and also the right to occupy the residence recently built in Philadelphia. To the daughter, Mary W. Leisenring, on her arrival at the age of 25 years, and to any other child that may be born and may reach the age of 25 years, is given jointly another third of the estate, provided it shall amount to $500,000. In this connection there is repeated the stipulation "that my wife and child shall have at least one million of dollars, provided my estate shall yield that amount."

The benevolent bequests to come out of the one-third residue will become operative only in case the above provisions can be complied with, and among them are the following:

To St. Luke's hospital, South Bethlehem, $10,000, to be used to endow free beds, to be called the "Edward B. Leisenring beds."

To the Presbyterian hospital, Thirty-ninth and Market streets, Philadelphia, $15,000, to endow similar free beds.

To the First Presbyterian church of Mauch Chunk, $5,000, and to the Sabbath School, $2,000, for the purchase of books.

To the First Presbyterian church of Aulendorf, $1,000, and to the First Presbyterian church of Upper Lehigh, $1,000.

To the Young Men's Christian Association, at Mauch Chunk, $5,000, providing the same has not been paid by the testator during his lifetime.

To the poor of the borough of Mauch Chunk, $500, to be distributed by the executors annually for five years succeeding the death of the testator.

The following bequests were made to private parties: The wife of Dr. John S. Wentz, $200,000; John L. Kemmerer, Gertrude Kemmerer, Daniel Wentz, John L. Wentz and Edward L. Wentz, $100,000 each when they attain the age of 25 years; John Leisenring, his brother, $25,000; Edgar Twining, $5,000; Mrs. Rebecca Leisenring, $500 per year; her daughter Miss Emily, $1,000, and $500 to the family coachman, William Herpel.
