LETTERS THAT MAY CONTAIN BITS OF NEWS FOR EACH READER.

Upper Lehigh and Highland News and Personal Notes in Bright and Breezy Paragraphs by Reliable Correspondents in Those Towns.

Regular correspondence from the surrounding towns and communications upon local or general subjects are solicited by the TRIBUNE. The name of the writer must accompany all letters or items sent to this office for publication.

UPPER LEHIGH NOTES.

A very painful accident happened to John Hurley, one of popular residents, while at work on Tuesday. He is employed as foreman of company men at No. 5 slope. While driving a cut-spike into a plank the spike glanced off and struck him in the eye, and it is said the sight is destroyed. He went to Hazleton hospital yesterday to have injured member attended to.

Bob Campbell's base ball team played at South Heberton on Sunday and vanquished the boys of that place by a score of 28 to 25. The South Heberton boys are dissatisfied and want to play for money, but Bob's team says its too late in the season.

A christening at No. 3 brought a large number of the foreign element together on Sunday and after having a day of merriment, in the evening a quarrel arose which ended in a free fight. Several of the men were badly used up.

It is reported that Samuel Wallace, one of our bright young men, was married yesterday to a young lady of Stockton.

August Lesser has purchased ground near Washington street, Freeeland, and will build a residence in the near future.

Thomas Parry was severely injured on Monday by a fall of coal in No. 7 slope.

Miss Nellie Morrissy, of White Haven, is here spending a few days with friends.

Mrs. Larry Mulhall, of Scranton, was here this week calling upon friends.

Mrs. John Nagle, of Wilkes-Barre, is here visiting relatives.

M. Schwabe, of South Heberton, who has been prospecting for coal a short distance from his residence, struck a small leader on the outcrop of the vein which No. 6 and No. 7 slopes of this company are sunk upon.

HIGHLAND DOTS.

The excitement was intense here on Sunday evening when word was brought to town that the highwaymen were again at work that evening on the road between this place and Freeeland. Several parties left here heavily armed to dispute the highwaymen's claim to the road, but no collision occurred. The news of one of them being captured by the Freeeland police was gratifying to our people, but it was also a source of regret to many, who have been abused on this road, that the police did not string him up on the frestling instead of taking him to jail.

A Hungarian, whose name could not be learned, fell over the bank into the stripping at the Sandy Run road, between Freeeland and this place, on Tuesday night. He was under the influence of liquor, and his cries for assistance could be heard nearly a quarter of a mile. When taken out it was found the left arm was broken and his shoulder dislocated. He resides at Freeeland.

The public schools are closed this week owing to the teachers attending county institute.

Theo. Wackley changed his residence from the main street to one of the houses at the old mill.

Alex. Elliott, of Duryea, greeted several of his friends here on Monday.

About half time is all the collieries are running here.

Sunday was a day of enjoyment among the foreign people of town.

Freeeland's Election Officers.

C. O. Stroh, Esq., presented to the court on Monday the following list of election officers and polling places, which was necessary owing to the reapportionment of the voting districts of the borough:

First district—Polling place, council room, Front street; judge, William Williamson, inspectors, J. M. Powell, M. E. Fritzing.

Second district—Polling place, Peter Timony's building, Centre and Carbon streets; judge, Hugh Shovin; inspectors, George McGee, William E. Martin.

Third district—Polling place, Mrs. C. A. Johnson's building, Centre street above Luzerne; judge, James McKinley; inspectors, William J. Eckert, Peter Magagna.

Fourth district—Polling place, Hugh Boyle's building, Ridge and Walnut streets; judge, Salvatore DePierro; inspectors, William Marshman James Gallagher.

A new district for Foster has been made for the voters in the Coxie addition and such parts south and west of the borough that are not yet annexed. The polling place has been located at Woodside schoolhouse. The election officers are: Judge, C. W. Barton; inspectors, W. Scott Young, William Oberrender.

Blessing the Bells.

The ceremony of blessing the new bells, which were received at St. John's Slavonian church a few weeks ago, will take place on Sunday. Mass will commence at 11 a. m., after which the bells will be blessed about 12.30 o'clock. Bishop O'Hara, of Scranton, will have charge of the services if he is able to come, but if not Rev. M. J. Fallihee, of St. Ann's church, will perform the interesting rites, assisted by Rev. J. F. Pribyl, of Hazleton. Sermons will be delivered in English and Slavish.

At 2 p. m. a parade of several societies will take place in honor of the event. John Hudak has been selected as marshal. Societies from Hazleton, Audenried, Pleasant Hill and Freeeland will participate. The route of parade will be from the church up Ridge to Chestnut, to Washington, to Carbon, to Centre, countermarch on Centre to Walnut, down Centre to Luzerne, then to the church.

Accidentally Shot.

John Page, the twelve-year-old son of Stephen Page, was accidentally shot on Monday afternoon in the stable owned by M. Zemany. The young lad was helping about the place and went to put some feed in one of the boxes. At the bottom of the box he saw a revolver, which he picked up to place somewhere safer. While holding the weapon in his hand it was discharged, and the ball, a 32-calibre, passed into his left leg at the knee-joint and came out a few inches below.

He was taken to his home by some friends, and the wound was dressed by Dr. McDonald. The boy is now improving and will be around in three or four weeks.

A Frenzied Father's Deed.

Morris Dunn, of Pittston, in a quarrel with his wife on Monday, fatally injured his four-year-old child. Dunn's wife threw a large bread knife, which struck the man on the wrist and inflicted an ugly wound. He then threw a large pitcher at his wife, which narrowly missed the woman and struck the child on the head.

By this time the neighbors arrived and separated the combatants. The child was picked up unconscious and bleeding. Its skull is fractured and it will hardly recover.

Died in the South.

Patrick McMonigle, who was a resident of this vicinity several years ago, died on the 13th inst. from malarial fever at his home in Seguin, Texas, where he resided with his brother Roger. The news of his death was received here on Tuesday by Condy Boyle, of Ridge street, who was an old friend of the deceased. Mr. McMonigle spent a few months here for the benefit of his health in 1893. He was a gentleman who had many friends wherever he was known.

Services at St. Paul's P. M. Church.

Sunday, October 28, at 10.30 a. m., subject, "The Ideal Man;" at 6.30 p. m., subject, "Lost and Found." Special services each evening next week, commencing at 7 p. m. with the following subjects: Monday, "A Comparison;" Tuesday, "The Best Friend;" Wednesday, "An Effective Touch;" Thursday, "An Important Journey;" Friday, "A Hiding Place."

All are welcome and cordially invited to attend. Rev. S. Cooper, pastor.

Mr. B. Raphael, of Philadelphia, a practical cutter, is now regularly employed by I. Refowich. He comes highly recommended, and as an inducement to prove the quality of his work Mr. Refowich is offering special bargains in custom-made clothing. See page 4.

EMPLOYES AND EMPLOYER.

Resolutions and an Answer Which Give Evidence of Good Feeling.

Just before the recent wedding of Daniel Coxie, superintendent of the D. S. & S., to Miss Margaret White, the employees of the railroad had arranged to present the young couple with a testimonial in the shape of a miniature silver locomotive, as evidence of the esteem in which Mr. Coxie was held by those under him. Mr. Coxie did not approve of this, and at his earnest request the presentation was not made. The following, however, was unanimously adopted by the employees:

Whereas, We, the employees of the Delaware, Susquehanna and Schuylkill Railroad Company, contemplated the presentation of testimonials to Mr. Daniel Coxie, superintendent, for the purpose of demonstrating to him in which he is held by them, because of his manly and discriminating justice in the official discharge of his duties, and

Whereas, We learn with regret, that from his stern sense of duty, he disapproves of our making any demonstration that would cause the expenditure of any money, therefore be it Resolved, That we, the employees above mentioned, in mass meeting assembled at Roan, Penna., this 10th day of October, 1894, congratulate him upon his most auspicious marriage, and that he and his estimable wife may live long to enjoy their conjugal relation thus happily begun, is our earnest wish. Committee

To the above Mr. Coxie replied as follows on Tuesday:

Drifton, Pa., October 23, 1894.
To committee of D. S. & S. employees.
Gentlemen—I am in receipt of your esteemed favor of 22nd inst., enclosing the resolution adopted at Roan on October 10. I feel very much gratified that you interpreted my letter of the 10th as it was meant, and Mrs. Coxie and I fully appreciate and value the testimonial of good feeling you have so kindly sent us. Thinking you very much and hoping that our relations in the future may always be as pleasant as they have been in the past. I am, very truly yours,
Daniel Coxie, superintendent.

Coal Operator Thomas Waddell Dead.

Thomas Waddell, a prominent coal operator of the Wyoming valley, died at his home in West Pittston on Tuesday morning at 4.30 o'clock of heart trouble, after an illness of more than a year's duration. He was born in Edinburgh, Scotland, in 1820. In 1850 he emigrated to America, locating in Carbondale, where he found employment in the mines. After a few months residence in that city he removed to Pittston.

In 1855 he went to California and amassed a snug fortune in mining gold. He was the owner and operator of the Bennet colliery in Miners Mill, the Waddell colliery in Luzerne and another colliery in Winton, Lackawanna county.

A Hard Worker for the Order.

From the Mauch Chunk Times.
H. V. Morthimer, Jr., of the Lehigh-ton Advocate, has announced his candidacy for grand sir herald of the Knights of the Golden Eagle. Mr. Morthimer is a well-known secret society man in this section of the state; he has been connected with the above-named order over eight years, and has a record second to none for hard work in its interests, being always found ready and willing to advance the cause. He is serving the fifth term as district grand chief of Carbon county; during his incumbency he has organized and instituted four castles. When the sir knights of Pennsylvania vote for grand sir herald, if merit is to be rewarded, they should not forget him.

Judges Accused of Violating Laws.

Paterson, N. J., Oct. 23.—Game and Fish Warden Charles A. Shriner swore out warrants for the arrest of Judge Jonathan Dixon, of the supreme court and the Bergen and Passaic county circuit and county of errors and appeals; James Enslly, judge of the Passaic county court; Reuben Wells, superintendent of the Rogers locomotive works, and Charles R. Fitch, general superintendent of the Erie Railway Company, upon the charge of violating the game laws of New Jersey. They are accused of shooting ducks from a steam launch on Greenwood lake. Judge Dixon is alleged to have steered the craft while the others shot the game.

Electric Power for Buffalo.

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 23.—A petition from the Niagara Falls Power company asking for a grant to wire the city for the distribution of electric power was transmitted to the board of aldermen. This petition bears a peculiar interest, because it is the first official step in Buffalo in an enterprise which it is believed will revolutionize the industries of this city and place them in the most commanding position by giving them the cheapest and most abundant power in the world.

Meeting Notice.

All members of Garfield Commandery, No. 6, Knights of Malta, are requested to attend the meeting on Monday evening in the P. O. S. of A. hall. Business of special importance is to be considered. By order of the sir knight commander, Stephen Page.

Lutheran Association Meeting.

The Lutheran Pastoral Association of the Upper Lehigh Valley met on Monday at the residence of Rev. J. H. Longacre, Weissport. The following ministers were present. Revs. J. H. Schmidt and J. J. Kuntz, Freeeland; J. O. Schlenker and J. C. Rausch, Hazleton; Charles H. Hemmeth, Conyngham; D. G. Gerberich, Weatherly; L. Lindenstruth, Mauch Chunk; E. A. Bauer and J. H. Kuder, Lehighton, and J. H. Longacre, Weissport. At 10.30 a. m. the chairman, the venerable Rev. E. A. Bauer, called the meeting to order, Rev. D. G. Gerberich offering prayer. The minutes of the former meeting were read and approved.

Revs. Kuntz and Hemmeth presented outlines of their last Sunday's sermons. Rev. Rausch also gave an outline of his, which a farewell discourse preached at West Hazleton and at Audenried. A resolution expressing regret at his departure from the association was adopted. His successor will be Rev. E. F. Ritter, of Freemansburg, who will take charge of the parish next Sunday.

Rev. Schlenker read a paper on "Elijah the Prophet," Rev. Kuntz one on "The Wise Men of the East" and Rev. Lindenstruth on "Pastor's Relations to Secret Societies."

In the evening a largely attended meeting was held in the church, at which the subjects of "Education," "Luther Leagues" and "Why Am I a Lutheran" were discussed. A vote of thanks was tendered to Rev. Longacre for the kind entertainment he had given, and at 9.30 p. m. the association adjourned.

The next meeting will take place on Monday, November 19, at the residence of Rev. J. H. Kuder, Lehighton. S.

Didn't Like His Necktie.

From the New York Post.
Patrick Murray, of Perth Amboy, N. J., had an exciting experience a few days ago with a mine mule at Summit Hill, Pa., which he will never forget. When he reached the bottom of the slope and proceeded to explore the gangway he attracted the attention of one of the mules. He is at a loss to know what angered the animal, but the beast came for him at full speed, and Murray started for a "heading" with nothing but the light of a miner's lamp to guide him.

It was a race for life. The mule was rapidly closing the gap, when the Jerseyman reached two mine cars. He plunged between them. The mule counter-marched and began using his hind feet with terrific effect. He kicked the stout oak planks of the car into kindling wood, and while he was occupied in this manner Murray made his escape and returned to the surface. He is fully satisfied that the mine mule is not to be trifled with, especially if you are a tenderfoot with a red necktie.

Trouble Over a Saloon.

From the Hazleton Standard.
A large crowd was present at Alderman Laubach's on Monday to witness the hearing of Austin Harvey, of Hopeville, who was charged with breach of contract by John Fairhurst. Harvey had agreed to dispose of his saloon for $250, and accordingly Fairhurst paid him $50 as a guarantee of good faith, and at once came to this city, packed all his household effects and engaged teams to move to Hopeville. In fact every preparation had been made for the transferring of the hotel.

The following morning Fairhurst received notice not to move, as Harvey had decided to sell his saloon to a Pleasant Hill Hungarian. After hearing several witnesses, the alderman gave judgement in the sum of $50 and costs against Harvey and in favor of Fairhurst.

Heavy Damages Awarded.

The jury in the case of John Shewak against the Lehigh Valley Railroad was ended after a four days fight. The jury returned a verdict of $5,850 for the plaintiff. The case is the one mentioned a week ago in this paper. The plaintiff alleges that on September 17, 1892, his wife, Annie Shewak, of Alden, took passage on the Lehigh Valley road, then leased by the Reading road, to visit friends at Freeeland; that at Penobscot the passenger train collided with another engine in the opposite direction, and that said plaintiff's wife, who sat on a front seat, was thrown violently against a stove and severely injured; that she was brought home and lost her reason and is now demented and is in the Danville insane asylum.
