IS HINES A DEMOCRAT? WE DENOUNCE PROTECTION AS A FRAUD.

While Hines is denying all connection for pay, with the tariff schedule in behalf of the Hazard Company...

Hines so far forgot his duty to his party as to accept an attorney fee from a lace company...

John H. Rice's Loyalty. The strength that John H. Rice has developed in his tour through the county...

State of New Jersey, Board of Mediation and Arbitration. Trenton, October 20, 1894.

John H. Rice, Esq., Wilkes-Barre, Pa. My Dear Sir—I am in receipt of your communication of the 11th inst., and personally...

Your letter was laid before the board of arbitration of the state, and, by resolution passed unanimously, I am instructed to say to you officially that the manner in which the negotiations were carried on...

But unexpected results are quite common in modern politics. It proved so in this instance. The letter of Congressman Hines by some unexplained means came into possession of ex-Senator Eckley B. Cox...

The result was that Grant Herring, of Bloomsburg, was immediately appointed collector of internal revenue for the district, and T. M. Conniff and his host of warm personal friends were added to the number of hard-working Democrats in Luzerne, who have been victims of misplaced confidence and duplicity on the part of the self-seeking little congressman...

We do not propose, because we are a Democrat, to be bullied or driven into an open advocacy of men who are not only traitors to the party they represent, but who have violated every obligation in their dealings with their fellow men.

Three Costly Mistakes. The three congressional districts in the anthracite region would return three Democratic congressmen under ordinary circumstances...

Subscribe for the TRIBUNE. The Democrats of Luzerne should not fail to vote for the party's candidates for congressmen-at-large, Messrs. Meyers and Collins.

Some More Inside History.

There is another instance cited to show more of the mercenary methods and political treachery resorted to by Mr. Hines toward his party and his friends...

As the story goes it appears that President Cleveland delayed considerable time in making the appointment in hopes that Mr. Hines and his colleagues might agree.

It is more than hinted at by Democrats in position to vouch for the truth of their statements that when the appointment of Conniff had been practically agreed to by President Cleveland...

This proposition was at first rejected by Hines with utter contempt. He informed the agent of ex-Collector Staples that he had every reason to be assured that Conniff would get the appointment in a few days.

POLITICAL PICKUPS.

Freeland Democrats ought to give the Democratic state candidates and the orators who accompany them a rousing reception at 2 o'clock on Thursday afternoon.

"When Hines pays the obligations that are charged against him on our books we will place his name at the head of our columns" is the reply of the Newsdealer to the Leader's insinuations...

During his visit to New York last week President Cleveland did not give his opinion of the contest in that state, neither did he register as a voter.

Billy Hines should call off those of his friends who are predicting that certain saloonkeepers will not get licenses next year unless they turn in and work for the congressman.

The Philadelphia Record has caused the arrest of eighteen assessors in that city for placing false names on the registry lists.

Knowing ones predict that Jacob Shappert, the candidate for prothonotary, will have the largest majority on the county ticket.

There is not a Republican in East Foster, nor Democrat either, for that matter, who can conscientiously vote for W. R. Jeffrey for the legislature.

District Attorney Garman and Revenue Collector Herring upheld their reputations last week as public speakers in the western part of the state.

Candidates Singery and Hastings will change platforms at Norristown on Saturday night, after speaking before their own audiences.

To some of his county seat friends Hines has been telling that he invited the editor of the TRIBUNE to the stage to discuss his (Hines') record with him at the Democratic meeting here recently.

Maj. J. M. Carson, the Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger, who recently spent several days in this district, had a column in that paper on Friday on the Luzerne political outlook.

John J. McNelis is making a splendid fight for representative, and is uniting in his efforts to make the fourth district Democratic by a decisive majority.

The Democrats of Luzerne should not fail to vote for the party's candidates for congressmen-at-large, Messrs. Meyers and Collins.
