

FREELAND TRIBUNE.

VOL. VII. No. 46.

FREELAND, PA., MONDAY, DECEMBER 3, 1894.

$1.50 PER YEAR.

BRIEF ITEMS OF NEWS.

PARAGRAPHS GATHERED FROM ALL PARTS OF THE REGION.

Synopsis of Local and Miscellaneous Occurrences That Can Be Read Quickly. What the Folks of This and Other Towns Are Doing.

The regular monthly meeting of the borough council will be held this evening.

Over 300 men have been thrown idle by the suspension of work for the winter at the Lattimer strippings.

The bond of John Lewis Wagner, clerk of the courts elect, has been filed. It is in the sum of $11,000.

J. C. Bright has disposed of his lumber yard, on the Lehigh Valley road, east of town, to a Schuylkill firm.

Wide-awake business men, who want the North Side people to know what they sell, are advertisers in the TRIBUNE.

Beginning with Saturday all Lehigh Valley officials who received a salary of $1,000 or more a year were reduced 10 per cent.

William Ward, of Ridge street, received an ugly gash on the left hand while at work in No. 5 slope at Jeddo on Friday.

Scarlet fever prevails to some extent at Villa Nova college and the pupils of Freeland and vicinity who attend there are home on a short vacation.

Michael J. Gough, of Hazleton, broke a small bone in his left foot while playing foot ball with his pupils on Friday at Lattimer, where he teaches school.

Equity proceedings have been begun to determine the ownership of the Greek church in North Wilkes-Barre, both the Orthodox and Russian Greeks claiming it.

The dye works of C. A. Linnekin, at Wilkes-Barre, were burned down on Saturday morning, and Charles Deisroth, an employe, was so badly burned that he cannot recover.

James Jones, of Plymouth, formerly of Upper Lehigh, was in town on Saturday calling upon friends before his departure today for California, where he intends making his future home.

E. H. Lawall, general superintendent of the collieries of the Lehigh and Wilkes-Barre Company, will likely be elected president of the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company, succeeding the late E. B. Leisenring.

Ada Gray and her company did not appear here on Saturday evening. A telegram was received by Manager Welsh on Friday stating she was taken ill after her Wilkes-Barre engagement and could not fulfill her contract to play here.

The date of the second annual entertainment of St. Patrick's cornet band has been changed to Friday evening, December 21. By doing this several valuable people, who could not be here any other night, have been secured to take part.

The White Haven Journal completed its fifteenth year of usefulness on Saturday. The Journal is a thoroughly reliable paper, and White Haven people should be thankful for having such a medium to make their town known to the outside world.

The most important general office to be filled in Freeland borough at the February election will be that of assessor. Councilmen and school directors, it is said, will be voted for by wards, providing the proposed division is made by the commissioners on Saturday.

CHURCH CHIMES.

St. Peter and Paul's Slavonian Lutheran church and school, on Washington street, were dedicated yesterday. Several visiting societies were present, and led by the Slavonian band a street parade was made after the ceremonies. The church is under charge of Rev. Carl Houser and was built some years ago. The school was erected last summer, and teaching has already been commenced.

Saturday next will be recognized in the Catholic churches as a holy day of obligation, the Feast of the Immaculate Conception. Masses will be read at St. Ann's church at 7.30 and 9.30 a. m.

Rev. C. W. Twing will preach upon "Awake out of sleep" at St. James' P. E. chapel on Sunday evening next at 7 o'clock. All are invited.

At St. Ann's church tomorrow evening a retreat for the Daughters of Mary Sodality will commence at 7 o'clock. It will be in charge of Rev. John Fulton, a Jesuit priest of New York city, who will deliver lectures to the young ladies on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings. On Saturday morning a reception will be held by the sodality, at which time several new members will be admitted to the society.

A Miner Lost His Way.

From the Wilkes-Barre Record.
Morgan Reese, a miner in No. 1 deep shaft, Nanticoke, left his breast at 11.30 o'clock on Friday morning for the foot of the shaft. There are two manways, an old and a new one. Reese took the new one, and lost his way. His light became extinguished, and he strayed into an old working. As he did not return home at the usual time, 4 or 5 o'clock, an alarm was given, and Daniel Daniels, foreman, and assistant foreman Edwin Davis, Thomas Davis and John Jones made up a searching party.

They found him after a long search in the old workings at 9.45 that night. A large crowd waited at the head of the shaft during the search, and gave Reese a hearty welcome on his return to safety.

For a Sheridan Monument.

The Irish and Irish-American societies of Scranton and Lackawanna county have inaugurated a movement for the erection of a monument to the memory of the late General Phil Sheridan. A meeting was held in the armory of the Sheridan Rifles at Scranton on Friday to perfect the arrangements. Senator-elect Vaughn presided and there were addresses by Captain DeLacy, T. V. Powderly, John Devoy, of Chicago, M. J. Griffin, Professor M. J. Lovern, J. P. O'Connor, of the Truth, and County Commissioner Thomas M. Dullard, of Wilkes-Barre.

A Hanging Postponed.

Antonio Rizzuto, the Pleasant Hill murderer, who is awaiting execution in the Pottsville jail and who was to be hanged on Thursday, has been respited by Governor Pattison. It is alleged that the prisoner is insane and some evidence was produced to show that he suffered mental aberration in the old country. It is also alleged that his ancestors were crazy and that insanity is hereditary in the man's family.

The plea was forcibly presented and the governor consented to stay the execution until February 6, 1895.

"Walliker" Coming.

The audiences at the opera house on Thursday afternoon and evening were well pleased with the entertainment given by the company from the Hazleton Bijou. Another company from the same theatre will play here on Thursday evening, one of the prominent actors of which is "Walliker," the African lion, whose attack upon his trainer at Wilkes-Barre last week was reported in the TRIBUNE. The specialty acts this week are very good, and well worth the low price of admission.

What Walters' Policy May Be.

From the Philadelphia Times.
Alfred Walters, the new manager of Coxie Bros. & Co's interests, was present at the recent meeting of the coal sales agents in New York, and in so far as he made expression was believed to be heartily in accord with the meeting. Interests well acquainted with that official say that he will without doubt work in harmony with the association and will not put into effect the policy of cutting line trade prices which was outlined by the old management.

A FATAL FALL.

An Old Man Missed His Footing on a Stair and Death Followed.

Hugh Ke'ly, aged 68 years, fell down stairs about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the residence of Patrick Dugan, Ridge and Carbon streets. Death instantly followed. Mr. Kelly went to visit Mr. Dugan, who was ill yesterday, and was alone with his friend in a room on the second floor. When he rose to leave he started for the stairs, and upon reaching them missed his footing in some manner. He came down the steps head foremost. The fall broke his neck, and when picked up by Mrs. Dugan and John McNulty, of South Heberton, who were sitting in a room at the foot of the stairs, he was dead.

Mr. Kelly was an old and respected resident of town, and with his wife lived with his daughter, Mrs. James Carey, on Centre street below South. The remains were immediately taken to his home.

Besides his wife the deceased leaves two sons and three daughters. One of the sons, Edward, is in Illinois, the other lives at home. Of the three daughters one is Mrs. James Carey and the other two live in New York city. All have been informed of their father's sudden death, and are expected to arrive in time for the funeral, the time of which is given in another column.

Broke Two Ribs.

Hugh O'Donnell, Sr., of Walnut street, sustained painful injuries on Wednesday evening by falling on the ice in the rear of his residence. Some water, which had been spilled on a board walk, became frozen, and Mr. O'Donnell walked quickly across the ice boards. As he did, he fell, and two ribs were broken by the violent shock. He is suffering considerable pain at present, and although no fatal results are expected the injuries are of such a nature that he will be laid up for some months.

A Serious Fall.

Mrs. Peter Carr, aged about 74 years, a resident of Chestnut and Pine streets, met with a distressing accident on Saturday afternoon about 2 o'clock. She was going around the corner of her residence when she slipped on the ice and fell upon her left thigh, breaking it near the socket. Owing to the old lady's advanced years she is in a critical condition, but her physician, Dr. McDonald, is hopeful of her recovery.

Less Time and Lower Wages.

During December the majority of the collieries will work but three-quarter time. The coal war and the subsequent efforts at patching up a truce have brought no good cheer to the miners. The rate of wages in the Schuylkill region for the month has taken a drop of one per cent below what it was last month, making it 9 per cent below the $2.50 basis.

Four Little Prisoners.

Four fearful prisoners were arraigned before a Wilkes-Barre alderman on Friday, charged with breaking into a house and stealing several small articles. They were Peter Brogan, aged 4; Fred Williams, aged 7; Frank Ryan, aged 6, and John Ryan, aged 7. They admitted their crime, but were turned over to their parents.

Great Railroad Scheme.

From the Mauch Chunk Gazette.
The Atlantic and Pacific Railway Company, behind which there is a powerful English syndicate, has had a corps of sixteen engineers at work here for a week surveying their line through Carbon county. The railway is to be an air line across the continent from New York to San Francisco, and passes through Chicago, which city will be brought within fifteen hours of New York, and San Francisco forty-five hours of New York. The English syndicate, it is said, have contracted to take 150 millions of the bonds, and have placed a bill in the hands of Congressman Childs, of Illinois, asking the government's endorsement of the bonds, in return for which the railway company is to turn over 51 per cent of its capital stock to the government as a present.

The survey is now completed from the Mississippi to the Delaware. Construction is to begin next spring, and the division between New York and Chicago is to be finished within five years. The first town on the line east of Mauch Chunk is Belvidere, N. J., and the first one west is Bloomsburg.

Luzerne Captures Prizes.

The festival of song and music at Allentown on Thanksgiving Day was a success. The attendance during the entire day aggregated nearly 9,000. Mayor Allison presided at the morning session, and Governor-elect Hastings in the afternoon and evening. The chief prizes in the morning, $50 to the successful juvenile chorus and $150 to the best glee, were won respectively by the Boys Chorus of Christ Cathedral, Reading, and the Statington Choral Union. The winners of the chief prizes in the afternoon were the Plymouth brass band, $100, and a medal for the leader; and $100 and a medal by the Mason's Glee Society of Wilkes-Barre.

The chief event of the evening was the competition between four choruses for the grand prize of $500 and a gold medal for the successful leader. The contest was so close that the adjudicators decided to divide the prize between the Wilkes-Barre and Plymouth choirs.

It Was a Success.

The entertainment and social given at the English Baptist church on Thanksgiving evening was a perfect success. The music was under the charge of Miss Mary Parry, and the programme was as follows: Song by the choir; prayer by the pastor, Rev. J. T. Griffith; song by the choir; recitations, Gertrude Jeffrey, Priscilla Roberts, Maud Mellon and Alice Rhoda; song by the choir; recitations, Mary Jane Coster and Evan Paul; song, Lizzie Roberts; recitations, Wille Coster, Rachel Davis and Thomas Roberts; song, Leah Parry; recitation, Jane Marshman; song, Sarah Morgan; recitations, Alfred Buchman, Jennie Marshman, Leah Parry and Sarah Morgan; song by the choir.

The closing feature consisted of two tableaux, representing the "Evening Prayer" and the "Lovers' Quarrel." Both were very pretty.

An Improvement.

The publication office of the Miners' Tribune, of Olyphant, has been changed to Scranton, and the paper appeared last week in a new dress of type. The Tribune is a staunch advocate of workmen's rights, and its publishers are making it one of the best labor papers for miners in the state.

Changes in Mine Foremanships, Personal Gossip and Other Matters of Local Interest Written Up Briefly and Commented Upon.

D. J. Kennedy has accepted a mine foremanship under this company at No. 2 Eckley, and took charge of his new duties on Saturday. Mr. Kennedy is one of the many young men who, by constant study and steady habits, has elevated himself to a position of distinction among mine workers here. If experience is worth anything he will be a mine foreman of ability. Previous to his appointment Mr. Kennedy was foreman of the company men of Drifton collieries, and the position he vacated will be filled by John J. McNelis, who will take charge tomorrow. The friends of the both are pleased to see them start upward.

Manus Carlin, of Freeland, who was loading coal at No. 2 breaker, has been promoted to screen boss at the same place.

Peter O'Donnell, one of our rising young men who is attending school at Villa Nova, is home on a short vacation.

There is much speculation among the heads of several departments of the company as to what may become of themselves. Rumors are numerous, but nothing definite has been made public, and if any changes are contemplated by the company they have not yet been announced.

We Have Had a Hard Time

To convince the people that we are the best, cheapest and most reliable clothiers and tailors to deal with in the coal regions. We have time and time again explained why we thought so. Some people could not be convinced, but during the past ten or fifteen days they have had ample proof to see for themselves, and seeing is believing. Ever since the supposed great railroad wreck sale came to town other merchants have marked down their prices and advertise to sell at cost; and some even at below cost. Through all their slandering and marking down of prices we have stuck to our prices—the prices we advertised three or four weeks ago to sell our goods at, and even now we are at least FIFTEEN TO TWENTY PER CENT CHEAPER THAN THE OTHER MERCHANTS.
