BRIEF ITEMS OF NEWS.

Parts of the new engine for the electric light plant have arrived.
The jewelers of town are making some pretty displays in the show windows.
St. Ann's parochial schools closed yesterday and will not reopen until after the holidays.
Republican candidates in Foster township will be numerous at the coming convention.
Explorers have discovered coal at Rossland, Monroe county, and a company has been formed to work the vein.

A serious cavalcade occurred early yesterday morning at Sandy Run. Two dwelling blocks had to be vacated by the residents.

Council No. 300, Legion of Honor, held an anniversary banquet at the Cottage hotel on Monday evening. The guest enjoyed a very pleasant night.
Work upon the new opera house to be built by St. Ann's T. A. B. Pioneer Corps, at Ridge and Luzerne streets, will commence as soon as the weather permits.

A meeting of Division 19, A. O. H., will be held at 7:30 o'clock this evening at Yarnes' hall. All members are requested to attend.
By order of the president, Jas. P. McNelis.

G. L. Halsey, Esq., who was appointed to marshal the indebtedness of Foster township, began the work here on Tuesday. Another session will be held at Wilkes-Barre next Tuesday.

The Oriental Court, No. 149, Jr. O. U. A. M., will hold a special meeting in the P. O. S. of A. hall on New Year's Day. All members are requested to be present, as business of great importance will be transacted. By order of the secretary.

The commissioners appointed by the court to divide the borough into wards met on Tuesday, and after listening to the arguments presented by several citizens, they decided to recommend two wards, with Main street as the dividing line.
Raphael DeFlurri, of Hazleton, was arrested yesterday for extortion. He is charged with taking $8 from the father of a boy whom he gave a position on the Granite breaker.
DeFlurri is assistant foreman, and the other man placed him under hall to appear at court.

Nicholas Cola, an Italian, was shot and mortally wounded by Anthony Tuella. The men became involved in a quarrel while drinking at Lattimer on Sunday night. Tuella settled it by drawing a revolver and shooting Cola in the back. He is now at Hazleton hospital, but the doctors say he cannot recover.

PATENTS GRANTED.

J. T. Jones, Scranton, ale or beer condenser and cooler.

H. I. Keiner, Wilkes-Barre, automatic funnel.

B. T. Reilly, Wilkes-Barre, cylinder relief-valve.

The Hazleton Sentinel last week issued a fine holiday number, consisting of sixteen pages.

Wilkes-Barre has another newspaper, the Saturday Reporter. It is published by A. W.
Betterly, and its columns show careful editing.
A weekly paper like the Reporter should succeed at the county seat.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS FAIR.

The Knights of Pythias fair in the Cottage hall is drawing large crowds nightly. On Tuesday evening the Mayberry band was present and rendered several selections, and last evening the St. Patrick's band attended.
The fair will last until Saturday evening. The hall is fitted up handsomely and many pretty articles are on exhibition. Music every evening.

GENERAL SHUT DOWN.

In the hope that the stock of anthracite coal above ground will be materially reduced, and a brisk demand and better prices ensue in consequence, all the mines now in operation in the Wyoming and Lackawanna regions will close down on next Saturday, and no work will be done in them during the remainder of the year. The Lehigh and Schuylkill collieries are expected to do likewise.

SMOTHERED AT JEDDO.

Steve Hudak, a Hungarian of Jeddo, employed on the St. Patrick's fair grounds, was caught in a buckwheat pocket while the loaders were drawing coal from it on Tuesday.
He was smothered to death. When it was discovered that the unfortunate man was underneath the coal every effort was made to rescue him, but nearly a half hour had elapsed before the body was reached, then he was dead.

LESLIE ASSAULTED.

From the Wilkes-Barre Newsdealer.
William Leslie, of the Elmira Telegram, was assaulted on Monday morning in front of the People's bank, on the Square, Wilkes-Barre, by P. J. Clark, of Blackman street.
Clark took offense at something Leslie said about him in the Telegram and when they met Clark commenced the attack. Friends separated them after a few blows had been struck. Neither was hurt much.

CHURCH CHIMES.

At the English Baptist church baptism will be administered on Sunday evening, and on Monday evening, Christmas eve, the Sunday school children will have an entertainment, consisting of singing, reciting, etc., followed by their annual Christmas trees.

The young people of the English Baptist church will hold an entertainment in the church basement on New Year's Eve, after which a watch meeting will be held. The admission to the entertainment, including refreshments, is 15 cents.

PERSONALITIES.

Griffith G. Pritchard, of Pine street, has accepted a position as conductor for the Lehigh Traction Company.

Miss Maggie L. Ferry and brother Harvey visited their sister, Mrs. P. F. Harvey, at Mt.
Carmel this week.

Stanley Oberreder left on Monday to accept a position as stenographer with a Philadelphia firm.

Miss Lizzie Janies, of Kutztown normal school, is home on a vacation.

W. A. Fetterman, operator at the Lehigh Valley station here, has resigned to accept a position on the D. S. & S.

Band entertainment tomorrow night.

THE ECKLEY FAIR.

Eckley, December 17, 1894.
Editor Tribune.—The opening of our fair on Saturday evening was a brilliant success.
The hall was filled by a delighted throng of young and old. The floor prize, one of which goes off every evening, is quite a taking feature. I enclose a list of the names of generous donors to our fair, to all of whom I return my most sincere thanks. I must thank in an especial manner the members of Division 19, A. O. H., of Freeland, for the beautiful sideboard of quartered oak presented by them.
They deserve the greater thanks, not being members of this parish, but their previous charity and good will is well known to be wider and broader than any parish or even any division. Yet I must not forget that our own Division 20, of Eckley, though small in numbers, is large in heart, in presenting a splendid bed-room suit of antique oak.
To all who have and shall have helped us in the slightest degree I and my congregation return our best and most sincere thanks.
T. Brehony, pastor.

P. S.—The fair will be open every evening until Christmas eve.

MORE CHARGES MADE.

The leading sensation in Schuylkill county, that of the alleged charges preferred against the officials of the Schuylkill almshouse, was given another airing at a public meeting held in Pottsville on Monday. There were about 1,500 people present, representing various parts of the county. General J. K. Sigrifford, chairman of the special investigating committee, presided at the meeting and Rev. W. B. Beh-meyer acted as secretary. Rev. J. W. Frey, D.
D., of Pottsville, was the principal speaker, and he made a number of new allegations in addition to those made by Rev. George Gaul last week. He charged the almshouse officials with the undue expenditure of the public money. He said $2,000 was expended during the year 1893 for liquor and cigars. Of this amount, he said, $922 went for cigars, few of which, if any, were used outside of the institution, having been given chiefly to visitors; $1,300 was expended for liquor, $500 of which went for the use of the hospital and the balance, he alleged, was used in the office. In addition to these large bills there were other large bills for drugs.

While an investigation was being made last year, the speaker said, scenes were witnessed in the office in the daytime which were highly improper. Doctor Frey said that $30,980.42 had been expended during the year 1893 for indoor expenses, more than $2,000 for outdoor relief, making a total expenditure of more than $22,000.

"Notwithstanding this expense," continued the doctor, "it was only a few weeks ago that an additional appropriation of $30,000 had to be made, a proportional part of which went to pay expenses of the year of 1892 and 1893."

Resolutions were adopted which call upon the district attorney and county officials to make a complete investigation of the charges.

MATRIMONIAL NOTES.

This afternoon at 2 o'clock, Frank O'Donnell and Miss Mary Dewey, both of town, will be married at St. Ann's church by Rev. M. J.
Fallhiser. The bride's maid is Miss Mary Mc-Neil, and the groom's man George McLaughlin.
After the ceremony the party will drive to Hazleton and surrounding towns and return in the evening to the residence of the bride's parents in the Cove addition, where a reception will be held. The young couple are very popular and have the good wish of all who know them for future happiness.

John McHugh and Miss Tessie Mulligan, two of Jeddo's popular young people, were married on Tuesday afternoon by Rev. M. J.
Fallhiser at St. Ann's church. Michael Boyle, of Ridge street, assisted at the ceremony. A reception was held at the home of the bride, after which they left on a wedding tour to New York. Upon their return they will reside here.

Jacob Shellhammer and Miss Eliza Page, both of town, will be married this afternoon at the Heavenly Recruit church by Rev. Hans. They will begin housekeeping immediately at Birvanton.

Cards are out announcing the wedding of Myron Zimmerman, of Freeland, and Miss Maggie Fairchild, of Pond Creek.

A shooting match will take place on Christmas night at the Schuylkill opera house, at the corner of South Heberton, for turkeys, chickens, geese, etc. Every shooter is invited to take part in the sport.

Concluding with the laughable farce, "The Greatest Show on Earth," by the members of the band. This undoubtedly one of the funniest pieces ever written and the members who will take part in it have rehearsed it until they have it perfect.
A few more reserved seats yet remain unsold at Christy's store, and the committee desires all who wish these seats to call and purchase. The admission will be the same for all parts of the first floor, and the reserved seat tickets have been put on sale to accommodate those who wish such seats. The admission to the gallery will be 15 cents.

EXPRESSION TRAIN WRECKED.

The express on the Lehigh Valley road which left Wilkes-Barre at 3 o'clock on Tuesday morning, was wrecked at Plains, three miles above. The engine, four passenger cars and ten gondolas were badly damaged. The wreck was the work of some person who threw a switch and sent the express crashing into a train of coal cars. The men injured are George R. Rimmerman, of Mauch Chunk, express messenger, scalp torn from one side of head; G. B. Mack, of Phillipsburg, baggage man, right arm crushed; William Stevens, of West Pittston, fireman, left leg wrenched and crushed; Henry Warren, Wilkes-Barre, engineer, face cut and severely bruised.

The train was drawn by engine 644, recently built at a cost of $1,000 and one of the finest on the road. There were but few passengers on board. The train was running about forty miles an hour, on the seven-mile straight track from Port Bowley to Pittston. It had just passed Plains when the engine ran off the main track and into the coal train. The passengers were thrown about violently, but though some of them were bruised, none were seriously injured. The loss to the company will exceed $25,000.

BADLY FRIGHTENED.

Miss Katie Heery, aged 19, a well-known young lady of Wilkes-Barre, is lying at the point of death from hysteria caused by fright.
Last Thursday night, as she was going home, it is alleged, she was attacked by a young man named William Gallagher. Katie occupied after reaching her home was taken with hysteria. Since then she has been delirious continually. She is so weak that the doctors fear she cannot recover. Gallagher was arrested and sent to jail to await the results of the girls inquest.

We Have Had a Hard Time

To convince the people that we are the best, cheapest and most reliable clothing and tailors to deal with in the coal regions. We have time and time again explained why we thought so. Some people could not be convinced, but during the past ten or fifteen days they have had ample proof to see for themselves; and seeing is believing. Ever since the supposed great railroad wreck sale came to town other merchants have marked down their prices and advertise to sell at cost; and some even at below cost. Through all their slaughtering and marking down of prices we have stuck to our prices—the prices we advertised three or four weeks ago to sell our goods at, and even now we are at least FIFTEEN TO TWENTY PER CENT CHEAPER THAN THE OTHER MERCHANTS.

JUST THINK OF BUYING:

Heavy men's chinchilla overcoats, guaranteed to wear, $5.98; extra heavy
