FREELAND, PA., JANUARY 24, 1895 Per se the system of assessment in Carbon county encouragement is given to the increase of loafers, idlers and tramps. An industrious boy learns a trade and when he reaches manhood he trade and when he reaches manhood he is taxed for his industry while the idler and loafer escapes. There is something radically in error with a system of taxa-tion that compels a man to pay taxes for being industrious. Did you ever stop to think of it?—Lehighton Advocate.

Three bull-headed street railway presi nts of Brooklyn, N. Y., will not allow the differences between themselves and their employes to be settled by the state their employes to be settled by the state board of arbitration or by any other method, neither will they settle the dis-pute themselves in any way but "accept-our-terms" plan. As a consequence, a few thousand conductors and motormen are idle, the street car service of the ettly is demoralized, new men are wreck-ing the rolling stock of the com-panies through inexperience, and al-most s,000 members of the state militia are patrolling the city and pling up ex-pense which the taxpayers must shoulder.

Encouraged by the local papers, the new labor union, United Mineworkers of America, has agitated the company store question to such an extent in the Schuylkill region that a bill to prohibit them has been introduced in the legisla-ture by Representative Wyatt, of Shen-andoah and if reports are two it nandoah, and if reports are true it stands some chance of becoming a law. stands some chance of becoming a law, This act is drawn in a way intended to cover the loop-holes in previous bills which had the same object in view, and on this account it will likely have a rough road to travel at Harrisburg. If it wore not so atherword has the membrane ere not so stringent in its provisions professional politicians would be ting one another to win the credit securing its passage.

Pattison's alleged inability to take the office of mayor of Philadelphia, if elect-d, is a question that is agitating the awyers of the Quaker City. It is a sig-ificant feature of the discussion that he attorneys of the railroads, traction companies and cornorities are a patt mpanies and corporations are a unit their opinion that he ineligible, and in their opinion that he incligible, and the journalistic organs, under the lead-ership of the Press, are grinding out daily means about the folly of voting for a man who could not qualify. If the corporation lawyers and organs were sincere in their belief that Pattison is incligible, they would say nothing until after his election.
