Assessor—John J. Russell, Beaver Brook.
Treasurer—Thomas Evans, Harwood.
Clerk—Peter Pitt, Lattimer.
Justice of the peace—Stephen Charles, Lattimer.
Auditor—George Wiegand, Jeddo.

Poor District Conventions.

The Democratic conferees met at Weatherly on Monday and nominated the following candidates:
Director—Percy Faust, Weatherly.
Auditor—Hugh J. Sharpe, Lansford.
The Republican conferees met at the same place on the same day and made the following nomination:
Director—Samuel Harleman, Weatherly.

POLITICAL POINTERS.

The Democratic ticket of the borough is one that should be supported by the party, not only because Democrats are on it, but because the candidates are first-class men, qualified for the offices they seek, and are broad-minded and liberal, just the class of people who should have charge of municipal affairs.
Foster Democrats are not dismayed by the big odds against them, and the offices were in as great demand last night as ever. There is a lot of the old fighting spirit in the township yet, and with a dissatisfied opposition the men nominated will make it an interesting contest.
There is some talk of an independent Republican ticket in Foster township. The revolt there is growing stronger daily.
The Democratic candidates of the borough will meet at 7.30 o'clock this evening at the hotel of Peter Timony to make arrangements for the campaign.
The Democratic nominee for poor director is Percy Faust, publisher of the Weatherly Herald. Mr. Faust has been a loyal Democrat for many years, and his nomination ought to be followed by his election. He will make an excellent poor director.
A resolution declaring against the proposed division of Luzerne county was approved by the delegates attending the Democratic borough convention. It does not represent the feeling here, and an injustice was done the candidates by making the new county question a partisan one at this time.

At the Opera House.

Kitty Rhodes and her company played before a good audience on Monday evening. On Tuesday evening the house contained more people and last evening the audience was still larger. This shows that her plays and the players are of the kind that suit Freeland's operators, and it must be said of them they have given better satisfaction than any company that appeared here this season. Miss Rhoades, in the leading role each evening, deserves the highest praise for her painstaking and correct portrayal of the diversified characters she assumes, and her company is so evenly balanced that individual mention is unnecessary. It is sufficient to say that each member is a thorough actor. The two little children, Maud and Jessie, are drawing no small portion of the crowds with their pleasing songs and dances.
Tonight, "The Blue and Gray;" Friday night, "East Lynne;" Saturday matinee, "Bootes' Baby;" Saturday evening, "Hearts of Gold."

Hess Held for Trial.

George Hess, of Butler Valley, who was arrested some time ago charged with making whiskey without a license, was given a further hearing before United States Commissioner Hill at Hazleton on Tuesday. United States Attorney Samuel B. Griffiths, of Pittsburg, conducted the examination. Mr. and Mrs. Shive, of Butler, testified that they knew the defendant had sold whiskey of his own manufacture to the miners at Ebervale tunnel.
No trace of the still has yet been found, although a search of the premises has been made. The prisoner was held in $500 bail to appear at the next term of circuit court, to be held at Scranton, on March 25.

A Bill to Tax Aliens.

Representative Biddle, of Bedford, introduced a bill in the house at Harrisburg last week, providing for levying a tax annually upon every alien in the commonwealth who had not taken out naturalization papers or declared his intention to become a citizen. The annual tax shall be $3 for aliens who have resided in the country for three months, and for those residing over that time the annual tax will be $5. This fund is to be kept by the county treasurers separate and distributed to the various townships and boroughs for the purpose of road improvement. A further provision is made for the collection of this tax by the persons or firms by whom they are employed.

CHURCH CHIMES.

On Sunday next the English Baptist church will hold its anniversary services at 10 a. m., 2 p. m. and 6.30 p. m. Preaching by Revs. W. H. Connard, D. D., of Philadelphia; W. B. Grow, of Carbondele; C. A. Spaulding, of Hazleton, and the pastor, J. T. Griffith. All are cordially invited.
Next Saturday is the feast of the purification, or Candlemas Day, and will be observed in all the Catholic churches. At St. Ann's church there will be mass at 8 o'clock, when the candles will be distributed.
The Ladies' Aid Society of the English Baptist church will give an old folks entertainment at the church on Tuesday evening. All are welcome. Admission, 10 cents.
"The Will of God" is the title of a special sermon which will be preached in St. John's Reformed church on Sunday evening.
Rev. J. T. Griffiths, of town, closed a successful revival services at the church of Rev. Spaulding, Hazleton, last night. For nearly two weeks he had been preaching nightly, and the result of his labors was very gratifying. A very large number of persons were converted.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

Freeland, January 30, 1895.
EDITOR TRIBUNE.—Will you please insert in the columns of your paper what I think of the Republican convention last evening. As a citizen of Freeland I think it was a two-sided affair, namely, in nominations. If the Republicans are to be run in that way I think it would be better for the citizens who are not in the ring to stay at home. As a candidate for assessor I was spoken of as a man not qualified for the office. But let the man who said so understand that if he defeated could not build a house he can pretty well tell the value as well as the one nominated. I suppose he thinks there are no brains behind the drill.
In the nominations for school director did you ever know such a two-sided affair? One, an official of the township, had the audacity to speak of his election as being sure if the party would stand to him. Mark, self praise is not a recommendation.
The convention is past but the third Tuesday in February is to come and that will tell the truth. No more dirty work.
A CITIZEN.

UPPER LEHIGH NOTES.

Robert Williams is lying dangerously ill with an attack of pleurisy.
The Freeland opera house is being well patronized by the young people of this place this week.
P. F. Carr is around again after being confined to his home for several weeks with a severe attack of rheumatism.
This has been a week of idleness at the collieries here, and there is no certainty of their starting before Monday.
The efforts of some of Freeland's councilmen to have the electric road extended to this place is highly appreciated by our people.
A scrap at South Heberton was the attraction for some of our boys last night.
Herman Redosky, who has been on a trip to Germany during the past two months, has returned home.
Several of our young men have become so proficient on skates that they are looking about to arrange a match with skaters of other towns.

New County Affairs.

At a hearing on Tuesday before the senate committee, which has charge of the new county bill, the opponents of the measure from Schuylkill county withdrew all opposition. The county commissioners, Senator Coyle and others acknowledged that in the face of such strong demands and evidence as was presented, that the new county should not be further opposed by them. This is considered quite a victory.
At a meeting held under the auspices of the Wilkes-Barre board of trade on Tuesday evening resolutions against the new county were adopted. A letter was also read from E. A. Oberrender, secretary of Hon. E. B. Cox, in which it is stated that Mr. Cox has not changed his opinion in regard to the new county scheme, which he considers unwise.

Eckley Fair.

The contest for the doll at the Eckley fair will come off on Saturday evening next. A large attendance is expected. A valuable door prize will be offered and some fancy articles disposed of. The great event of the fair, the closing of the contest for the lady's gold watch, will take place on Saturday, February 23. The valuable sideboard contest will take place on March 17. Later events will be noted in order. Committee.

Card of Thanks.

The committee of Loyal Castle, No. 65, K. of M. C., extends its thanks to the people who assisted at its fair last week. The committee also requests the person holding ticket No. 1233 to call upon any of the members and learn something to their advantage.

Wesley League Convention.

A convention of the Wesley League of the Schuylkill district will be held at Hazleton on Monday next at 2 o'clock. The delegates from the Freeland branch of the league are Misses Annie Davis and Zammara Tranter. The following programme has been arranged: Praise and devotional services, Rev. John McGinnis, Gilberton; address of welcome, F. W. Seelye, Hazleton; response to the address of welcome, Rev. J. Walker, Shamokin; reception of delegates; appointment of committees; miscellaneous business; election of officers; essay, "What is the Chief Aim and Purpose of the Wesley League," Rev. G. Lees, Tamaqua; discussion opened by Rev. Cooper, Freeland; essay, "How can the Sessions of our Wesley League be Rendered Interesting and Profitable," Miss Mary Flew, Mt. Carmel; song; essay, "The Utility of the Junior Wesley League and How to Conduct It," Miss C. Johnson, Shamokin; discussion opened by Rev. S. T. Nicholls, Mahanoy City; question box, Rev. S. T. Nicholls, Mahanoy City; song. An evening session will also be held, at which several prominent speakers will deliver addresses.

A Social Event.

One of the most pleasant events of the season occurred at the home of D. O. Krommes, Butler, in honor of his thirty-fifth birthday, his most estimable wife took him by surprise. On Saturday morning sleigh loads, one after another, began to stop at the door of his quiet home, and by 10 o'clock the spacious rooms were thronged with relatives and friends, numbering in all about seventy, who soon relieved him of a number of turkeys, etc.
Remarks and toasts appropriate to the occasion were made by various ones. The manner in which the guests were entertained added much interest to the impromptu of the affair, and it is the general feeling of all who were fortunate enough to participate that they may again enjoy the hospitality of the Krommes mansion.
Mr. Krommes is a son-in-law of our townsman, William Kemp, and is known as one of the most enterprising and prosperous citizens of Butler.

The City Held Liable.

The jury in the case of Thomas Fry against the city of Wilkes-Barre came in with a verdict of $1,500 damages in favor of Mr. Fry. This is the second time the suit has been tried, the jury in the first case having awarded $2,500 damages for Mrs. Fry. It seems that on Christmas Eve, 1889, Mr. and Mrs. Fry were going down Carey avenue. While passing the property of Elihu Williams Mrs. Fry caught her foot in a defect in the sidewalk and was thrown down, receiving severe injuries which have become permanent.
Mrs. Fry brought suit in May, 1893, and recovered damages as stated above. The suit just decided was brought by Mr. Fry to recover damages for the loss of his wife's services, she being unable to do any work. It is now thought that the city will sue Mr. Williams for the total amount awarded in the two cases, $4,000, as it is claimed he had been notified to repair his walk previously.
