and Directors of the Company-What the Receivers Have Learned

What the Receivers Have Learned. Chicago, March 26.—A sensational re-port was submitted to Receiver McNulta, of the whiskey trust, by the experts who for a month have been examining the books of the Greenhut management of the concern. Charges of juggling ac-counta, "doctoring" books and similar work are made, and the report asserts that the former directors and officers by disposing of stock to themselves have beft a discrepancy of $ 1,024,120. Bold Stock to Themselves.

left a discrepancy of $1,924,120. Sold Stock to Themsolves. The report states that 34,498 shares of stock were sold by the officers and direc-tors to themselves at forty-five cents on the dollar, and that consequently more feeding company. Whether or not any action to recover the amount said to be due will be taken is as yet undecided. Gen. McNulta has called a conference of interested parties to consider the mat-ter, and what the decision will be is a question, but there is little doubt that the copert's report will result in a hot fight between the present management and the Greenhut men. Alteration of the Books.

Alteration of the Books. The charges of the alteration of the books to cover the alteration of the posts to cover the allegad discrepancy arising from the sale of stock is elabo-rated in a portion of the experts' report as follows: Balance sheet, March 31, 1894: Original construction account, $30,786,510.02; treasury stock, $3,499,400. MAY COME IN UNDER BOND ecretary Carlisle Decides To Admit the Diamond Cutters.

Secretary Carlis¹e Decides To Admit the Diamond Cutters. Washington, March 28. – Secretary Carlisle sent a tolegram to Commissioner Senner at New York instructing him that bonds with good security could be accepted for the immigrants who came on the Majestic and who were finally barred, as likely to become public charges. The immigrants referred to are the Holland diamond cutters. A telegram earlier in the day stated that it could not be proven that the diamond cutters came to this country under con-tract. The allegation that they were likely to become public charges seemed absurd, in view of the fact that the head man of the party is worth $100,000 and the others are all more or less men of means. A fight with labor organizations will probably follow.

TERESA DE CEVERA IN MEXIC

TERESA DE CEVERA IN MEXICO. Released from Jail by a Mob of In-furiated People. El Paso, Tex., March 26.—Teresa de Cevera is again giving trouble to the Mexican government. She was the cause of a revolt at Tomechie fourteen months ago, which resulted in the Mexican au-thorities making the woman leave the country. She crossed to Nogales, Ariz., where, it is said, she performed wonder-ful cures. She disappeared from Nogales, and two weeks ago made her appearance in the village of Elpolovo, and succeded in strring up the people there. She was arrested and confined in jail, but was re-leased by a mob of infuritated people, who believed the woman to be a saint.

IRWIN PURGED OF CONTEMPT.

IRWIN PURGED OF CONTEMPT. The Pool Operator's Books Surren-dered for Inspection. Pittsburg, March 26.—George M. Ir-win, the discretionary pool operator, has purged himself of contempt by surren-dering his books and papers to the union trust, where they will be accessible to the receiver and his own attorneys. Judge Ewing several weeks ago declared Irwin In contempt for refusing to sur-ender the books, but the supreme court suspended the order and released Irwin from jail until after the trial of a crim-imal suit then pending against Irwin, which resulted in his acquittal.

BAD FEELING AT MADRID.
Strong Public Resentment on Account of the Officers' Riots.
London, March 20, —The Central News correspondent in Madrid says: Strong public resentment is felt still on account of the officers' riots. Officers are hissed frequently when they enter cafes or music halls. The whole affair has had a futures on the ranks.
