Speaker Reed Quoting Scripture beaker Crisp's Benefit—When Niagan Was Harnessed—Sad Closing Days of a Government Clerk.

It is related of Thad Stevens that on one occasion when he was exasperated by a ruling of the chair, and turned his back upon the presiding officer, as he slowly walked down the main aisle of the house of representatives, the speaker became very angry and shoutteft "Does the gentleman mean to show his contempt for the chair?" "No," responded Stevens, "I am try ing to conceal it." [Special Washington Letter.] It is related of Thad Stevens t $1 50 75 50 25

A case for the Cattle Doctor. Mr. Johnson, of Indiana, on one occasion in the heat of debate called a prominent Illinois congressman an as; and thereby created a great sensation. The following colloquy occurred: The Speaker (to the gentleman from Indiana)—Docs the gentleman from Indiana)—The Gentleman from Indiana—I withdraw the language, Mr. Speaker, but maintain that the gentleman from Illinois is not in order. The Gentleman from Illinois—How an I out of order? The Gentleman from Indiana—Probably a veterinary surgeon could tell you.

take up the question of selecting name for the gunboats now being constructed at Newport News, Va., the pressure in favor of the cities which are competing for the honor began and it has steadily grown stronger, and the end is not in sight. The cities having active parti-sans working in their behalf are Nash-ville, Chattanooga, Lexington, Ky.; Mo-bile, Norfolk, Niagara and Gloucester, and others may enter the good-natured contest. Speaking of Scriptural quotations re-minds me of the unique nse of a text by Senator Sanders, of Montana, dur-ing the contest for reelection before the legislature in Helena during the winter of 1890-3. I telegraphed him that if he could not be reelected that he should by all means prevent the election of a certain other seeker of the position. The answer came back over the wire: "Read fourteenth chapter of John; first, verse. W. F. Sanders." Turning to the Bible I read: "Let not your heart be troubled. Ye believe in God; believe also in Me." The sema-tor did not mean to be sacrilegious, but to convey his answer in a manner which would be intelligent to me, and not te others. Washington was all torn up early in the week by the publication of a tele-gram from New York, saying that Mr. Pheodore Roosevelt—our own incompar-

One of Vest's Pleasant Comments. Senator Vest is the ablest ready do-bater on the democratic side of the senate; and he was the only member of his party in that body with whom the brilling large the senator sought a forensic wrangle. Senator Vest is a very apt story-teller, and sometimes makes some of the most tell-ue robust in his speeches he angedetal Sought a forensic wrangle. Sonator Vest is a very apt story-teller, and sometimes makes some of the most tell-ing points in his speeches by aneedotal illustrations. One of his most telling applications of an incident was deliv-ered when he ridiculed Senator Hill, who is known to be Clevaland's worst enemy, but who had delivered a long speech in the senate, ostensibly in de-fense of Cleveland for his course in tariff legislation. Senator Vest said: "I once made a speech in defense of a noted criminal, but in order to save him it became necessary for me to pie-ture him to the jury as a man of such low order of moral sensibility that he was ignorant of the ex-tent of his legal responsibility and therefore could not commit crime. Well, I sevel him; but he afterwards came to me and said that he would rather go the penitentiary for life than hear that speech again. And I pre-sume that the president felt something the same way when he read the speech in his behalf which was delivered by the senator from Now York."

his disciples. Postmaster General Wilson formally took charge of his department yester-day. He was sworn in on Wednesday afternoon by Chief Justice Fuller, the ceremony being witnessed by Mrs. Ful-ler, Miss Wilson, Mr. Bissell and a num-ber of the officials of the department. Mr. and Mrs. Bissell expect to return to Buffalo in about three weeks. Presi-dent and Mrs. Cleveland have invited them to spend a few days with them at "Woodley" before they leave. S.

When Niagara Ceased to Roar. Congressman Dan Lockwood, of Buf-falo,says that within his recollection the great waterfall at Niagara was supend-ed, and that many people passed over its dangerous rocky places dry shod. He says that this miracle was wrought in 1848, during the month of March. To be exact, it was on the morning of March 29, 1848; and for several hours the wonderful, the resistless, the cease-less torrent did cease to flow, and the greatest river in the world ran dry. Its power was paralyzed. Its roaring sunk into silence. It was quenched and humiliated, bleak, bare and barren

In interness. Incre chine on sinern 37 a sudden exceedingly warm spell of weather which melted the snows, and then a warm rain poured down in torrents during the entire day of the 28th of March. The ice was loces and a strong east wind drove it far out in the lake during the night. But at sunrise on the 20th the wind came from the west, and, as the sailors say, it was "blowing great guns." This terrifie gale drove the immense mass of ice into the mouth of Niagara river, where it was gorged and piled up from shore to shore, hermetically scaling the river and damming the waters back into the lake. Thus it happened that Niagara ran dry, its falls became bleak, barren rocks, and its mighty thunders were put to sleep. Within four or five hours trielde through the gorge. The tremendous power back of those streams accelerated their flowing; and in a short time the ice dam gave way and there never was such a wild, roaring, mad flood in Niagara before or since. And thus the cataract became itself again. This story suggests to me the thought

The old man had spent his life in government employment, with good pay all the time, and yet, like so many thousands of others, he had saved noth-ing for his latter years. The average government clerk is thriftless. They are nearly all careless of the future. JUDGE JOHN W. SHOWATTER. Strong men. He is a bachelor and is a member of the Illinois club. He re-ceived the democratic nomination for judge of the superior court in 1838, but no candidate could overcome the per-sonal popularity of Judge Gary, the re-publican nominee. Mr. Showalter was born in Mason county, Ky., in 1844. He comes from German ancestry, who set-tied in Rockingham county, Ya., over a century ago. He entered Yale col-lege and delivered the class oration when he was graduated in 1807. Mr. Showalter came to Chicago immediate-y after leaving college and became a law student in the office of Moore & Caudield. Of this firm Samuel M. Moore was for many years a judge of twas Bernard G. Caudield. Mr. Show-alter was admitted to the bar October 87, 1809, and remained with Moore & Caudield until the firm was dissolved by the elevation of Judge Moore to the bench. Then the firm of Abbott, Oli-ver & Showalter was formed. Mr. Ab-bott did in 1809, since which time the basiness has been continued under the style of Oliver & Showalter. The new circuit judge is tall and of command-ing resence, dignified yet affable in the extreme. He has hosts of legal finds. With a great capacity for work, its predicted that he will make lagh name for himself as a judge.
