Ladies, the best-fitting and most stylish shoe in the market is the Vision, sold at $2. Can be had only at the Wear Well, Eberts' old stand.

John James, of Eckley, whose leg was taken off in a D. S. & S. accident recently, went to Philadelphia this week to procure an artificial limb.

No. 2 breaker at Highland is being repaired and strengthened. The company intends to run an increased amount of coal through in the near future, and the structure is to be made as solid as possible.

The Clair Patee Company played to large audiences for nine successive nights at Hazelton opera house. They open a three nights' engagement here this evening, and the opera-going people of Hazelton will miss some good plays if they fail to attend.

"Beauties of the Lehigh Valley" is the title of a very pretty illustrated book which has been recently issued. The TRIBUNE returns thanks to Chas. S. Lee, general passenger agent of the Lehigh Valley Railroad, for presenting this office with a copy.

A Bad Man Sent Up. Alex. Perkosky, of No. 4 Upper Lehigh, while on his way home from South Heberton on Monday night, was followed, waylaid and badly beaten about the head by William Matuszynski (who is living with Perkosky's wife). Matuszynski was arrested last night and had a hearing before Squire Buckley. The testimony went to show that his intention was to put the old man Perkosky out of the way. In default of bail he was committed and taken to Wilkes-Barre this morning.

Damages Awarded to Mr. Elliot. The case of Thomas Elliot, who entered suit to recover $225 damages for his horse which was placed in the borough pound by R. Ludwig, who was then high constable, has been decided in the former's favor. The arbitrators have awarded Mr. Elliot $200 damages and placed the costs upon the defendant. It is quite probable that Attorney Carr will, on behalf of Mr. Ludwig, take an appeal to court from the decision.

Uhas Captured Yesterday. While drinking in a saloon in town last Friday afternoon Mike Segon, of Jeddo, was stabbed with a knife by Andrew Uhas, of the same place. Officer Mollieck yesterday succeeded in capturing him while moving from Jeddo, and brought him back to Hazelton. He was given a hearing last night, and in default of $500 bail was sent to Wilkes-Barre today.

Patents Granted. S. Dunham, Ashley, oil-can. J. Pollock, Wilkes-Barre, power operated bucket and transporting apparatus. G. F. Watchershauser, Wilkes-Barre, advertising device.

Jury Says It Was Murder.

The jury appointed to investigate the death of Deputy Constable Patrick Early, of Hazel township, who was found dead at Harwood, rendered the following verdict on Monday evening: "That said Patrick Early came to his death at Harwood, on Monday, April 15, 1895, from having his neck broken by being thrown into a mine hole or cave-in, or by being hit on the back of the neck with a club or other weapon, and then carried to said mine hole or cave-in. From all the evidence presented and from the position of body of deceased when discovered, we are of the opinion that the said Patrick Early came to his death through foul play and at the hands of some person or persons to the jury unknown."

From the testimony given before the jury there could be no other verdict rendered, with justice to the dead man. The evidence was to the effect that the man could not have fallen into the mine hole and lain in the position when found. His hat was over his face and a large stone rested on his stomach. Dr. Cole explained the result of the post-mortem examination, telling of the cut in the back of the head and of the broken neck, but whether or not these were the result of a fall he could not say.

The verdict of the jury meets with the approval of all who gave the mystery any attention, and the county officers, especially Detective Eckert and District Attorney Fell have brought upon themselves considerable criticism by their utter refusal and neglect to make a prompt investigation. The detective did not even visit the scene of the alleged murder, but simply contented himself with the belief that it was sensational newspaper talk and so expressed himself while lounging around Hazelton saloons. The murder at Darringer, the same day that Early's body was found, was not given any attention whatever. The county detective refused to look it up because he was not ordered, and the local officers also refuse because the commissioners will offer no more rewards for the capture of murderers.

"In Old Louisiana."

From the Hazelton Plain Speaker. The Clair Patee Company has certainly caught the town. Their performances have all been of the highest order and equal to any of the one night attractions. The presentation last night was not only most finished, but gave opportunity and evidence of the distinct versatility of each member. Every character in the play was strong in delivery and situation. Miss Virginia Bray succeeded even more clever than ever in giving light and shade to a part which demanded and received a careful and intense interpretation, and Mr. Nichols increased his already extensive popularity by giving the audience an excellent portrayal entirely different from those presented heretofore. The "Old Louisiana" is prolific in comedy element, and some specialties introduced were encored again and again. Miss Eva Taylor was exceedingly clever in an engine part and was given itself in a minute dance with Mr. Albert Livingston, who, also, added laurels by his rendition of a burlesque on the song "Past and Present." Little Florence Hadley was certainly in her element as the "Spectable Colored Lady," and sang some very pleasing negro melodies. Miss Julia Hanchett, as "Birdie," kept the audience in good humor. Throughout the entire piece the audience was highly entertained.

"An Arabian Night."

From the Hazelton Plain Speaker. "An Arabian Night," one of the very clever performances of the Clair Patee Company, was given last evening in the same masterly manner which attends all their works, and a good-sized audience laughed heartily at the many real incidents of the comedy. The organization is deserving and the plays they present are new and first-class. This play on its former presentation by this company made a decided impression upon those present and many who saw it before grasped the opportunity of seeing it again. It is a clean, novel and absorbing story, well rendered, and there has not been a better drama given here.

"Our Boys."

From the Hazelton Standard. The very laughable comedy, "Our Boys," was given by the Clair Patee Company last night, and its bright, sparkling wit was relished by all present. It is an excellent satire upon the hardihood of a butter merchant and the social aristocratic bearing of filled blue blood. Each act received enthusiastic accolades, and they were well deserved. Miss Lillian Mitchinson rendered several violin solos and selections which were highly appreciated.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

TEMPERANCE MEETING.

A Large Audience Was Present at Monday Evening's Rally.

An audience of about 500 people gathered at the opera house on Monday evening to hear the address of Rev. Father Zurcher, of Buffalo, N. Y. On the stage beside the speaker were seated Rev. M. J. Fallis, of St. Ann's church; Rev. Edmund White, of the M. E. church; Rev. S. Cooper, of St. Paul's P. M. church; and Rev. J. J. Kuntz, of St. Luke's Lutheran church; also the presidents of the three Catholic temperance societies of town, J. F. Powers, of St. Ann's Society; J. F. Sweeney, of the Young Men's Society; and J. B. Hanlon, of St. Ann's Pioneer Corps.

After some selections by the St. Patrick's cornet band the speaker of the evening was introduced with a brief address of welcome by Mr. Sweeney. The subject was treated principally from a scientific standpoint, and the manner in which it was handled spoke well for the priest's thorough knowledge of the question. He gave careful descriptions of the effects of alcohol upon the blood and various parts of the human system, and presented some very strong proofs of the claim that intoxicating drink is harmful if taken even very moderately. For more than one hour Rev. Zurcher spoke to an attentive and interested audience, and that his remarks were appreciated was attested by frequent outbursts of applause.

In concluding, he stated that it gave him great pleasure to view the union of Catholic and Protestants against the power of the saloon, and he hoped their combined efforts to overthrow their enemy would soon be successful.

Rev. Zurcher was followed by Rev. White, who made a brief but pointed address upon the subject. He stated he had heartily endorsed the remarks of the visiting clergyman, and that the people could rest assured the scientific discourse contained nothing but facts which could not be disproved. He also favored the union of all denominations in combating the influence of whiskey, but deplored the folly of Christian people in not attacking the root of the evil, instead of the effects.

Rev. White's remarks were well received, as were also those of Rev. Cooper, who followed in the same strain. He endorsed the words of the preceding speakers and signified his willingness at all times to enter the field against the common foe of humanity. He also favored a more radical warfare against the saloon, and like Rev. White, wishes the friends of temperance to strike nearer the core of the trouble by voting to abolish liquor from the country.

The societies under whose auspices the meeting was arranged are well pleased at its success, and they look forward to renewed and increased interest in the temperance movement in Hazelton.

School Board Meeting.

A regular meeting of the borough school board was held last evening. The insurance on buildings and property, which expired May 1, was ordered to be renewed for one year. Bills to the amount of $7.25 were accepted and paid, and two bills aggregating $300 were laid over for consideration at a special meeting. One of the latter was the bill of Architect Peter Rudrauff, of Ashley, for $250, for work on the plans of the proposed new school building. A letter from Mr. Rudrauff, who was also present at the meeting, was read, in which he stated that as he was engaged to draw up the plans without any price being stipulated, he felt at liberty to make his own charge, which was 1 per cent of the cost of the building.

Dynamiting Fish Is Lawful.

If the sportsmen of the state wish to punish the fish pirates who have been dynamiting streams in various parts of the state some new legislation on the subject must be passed before the present session of the legislature ends, Judge Stewart, of Chambersburg, has decided that the sections in the two acts of assembly intended to prevent fishing with explosives are unconstitutional. The question came before the court during the trial of four young men, who, in February last, exploded large quantities of dynamite in the Antietam creek and killed large numbers of fish, for which act they were prosecuted by Fish Warden Small.

The state fish commissioners took a great interest in the case and employed special counsel to assist in the prosecution. The counsel for the defendants moved to quash the indictment on the ground that the sections of the acts of May 5, 1876, and June 3, 1878, under which the indictment was framed, were unconstitutional in that they violated sections 3 and 6, article 3, of the state constitution, which provide that subjects of legislation shall be clearly expressed in the title of the bills.

Judge Stewart sustained the motion to quash the indictment and the defendants went free. He said that the acts were clearly unconstitutional; that they were pieces of bungling legislation passed when the legislature had not yet familiarized itself with the requirements of the new constitution. His oral opinion will be supplemented by a written one, in view of the interest taken in the case throughout the state.

Defeated, but Not Dead.

The bill granting permission to the people of lower Luzerne and upper Schuylkill counties to form a new county met with a defeat on third reading in the house on Tuesday. The vote was 92 for and 83 against the measure, the bill lacking eleven votes of a constitutional majority, 103, which is the number required on final passage. The Democrats of the house, with two exceptions, voted solidly against it, and twenty-three members refused to vote either way.

The intention of the friends of the bill was to have a motion made next Monday to reconsider the vote by which it was defeated. The anti's, however, tried to play a shrewd trick yesterday afternoon by having this motion made when several members were absent.

Representative Connell, of Lackawanna, who voted against it, called up the bill, feeling sure that the reconsideration motion would be defeated and Quay county disposed of beyond recall.

The vote, however, as given in a dispatch to this office after being taken, was 112 to 33 a decisive victory for the new county people. The bill will soon be called up again. The opponents were chagrined at their blunder. The vote has stirred up the advocates and they are working for its passage with renewed vigor and strong hopes of ultimate success.

HONORING HIS MEMORY.

SOCIETIES AND CO-WORKERS UPON THOMAS TULLY'S DEATH.

The Young Men's C. T. A. B. Society, Division 19, A. O. H., and the Employees of the D. S. & S. Adopt Appropriate Resolutions.

Freeland, Pa., April 28, 1895.

At a special meeting of the Young Men's C. T. A. B. Society, of Freeland, held on the above date, the committee appointed to draft resolutions of condolence reported the following preamble and resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Preamble: As time rolls on its troubled stream into the peaceful waters of eternity it occasionally happens to bear upon its burden some being more valued, more beloved, and more useful than those whom every day life presents to our view, whose loss leaves a void in a community that cannot be filled up, casts a gloom over those prospects which were brightened by his labors, takes from a fond and devoted society an object of admiration and respect, and leaves behind the memory of his virtues, his piety, and his usefulness. Too well and truly have we experienced this during the past week, in the demise of our beloved friend and brother, Thomas Tully; an event, unexpected and mournful, as he is the first to go out from our chamber to enter the phantom bark destined to the great beyond.

Whereas, The long and intimate relations held with him in the faithful performance of his duties to our society, make it eminently befitting that we should record our appreciation of him; therefore, be it

Resolved, That while we bow in humble submission to the omnipotent Being whose handwork we are, yet we feel, in the death of our brother our community has suffered a bereavement which deprives it of one of its most respected citizens; the temperance cause, the loss of a champion as sound as the rock of ages on which its temple is founded; our society the loss of a true and loyal member—one that was endeared to us by his exertions to promote our temporal spiritual welfare, and although he has gone out we hope to the home of the Father yet he leaves behind him pleasant remembrances that shall not be forgotten. Be it

Resolved, That we extend our heartfelt sympathy to the sorrow-stricken wife and relatives in this their hour of bereavement, and console them with the thought, that their loss is his greater gain, for surely, if we may judge through human instrumentality, somehow, somewhere, in the great beyond, there is just reward for his merits. Be it

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the records of our society, a copy printed in the FREELAND TRIBUNE, and a copy forwarded to the bereaved family.

John D. Iron, Patrick H. Hanlon, George B. Haines, Committee.

The following resolutions of condolence, in memory of Thomas Tully, were adopted at a special meeting of Division 19, A. O. H., of Freeland, Pa., on April 27, 1895.

Whereas, It has pleased our Heavenly Father to call from this world our beloved companion and brother, Thomas Tully, who departed this life on April 26, 1895. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That while yielding with meek submission to the will of Almighty God, we mourn his death as one of the greatest losses our division has been called upon to bear, inasmuch as there has gone from amongst us a good and faithful member, one who was remarkable for his virtues, unceasing in his devotion to his Creator, charitable towards his fellow-men, a kind and model husband, an affectionate son and brother, and a man who was true to all that is noble and pure in this world.

Resolved, That in his death the Ancient Order of Hibernians of America has lost an earnest worker for the cause of friendship, unity and true Christian charity, and a member whose daily life was a living illustration of what steadfast adherence to these principles can accomplish.

Resolved, That while we deeply regret that God has called him from our midst, we sincerely trust the summons came for the purpose of elevating him to the position in heaven which awaits those whose lives are lived in accordance with the teachings of his faith.

Resolved, That the sympathy of the members of Division 19 is hereby extended to his afflicted wife and his sorrowful parents and brothers, and we hope, through God's mercy and benevolence, that we and they may be reunited with Brother Tully on that great judgment day.

Resolved, That our charter be draped in mourning for a period of sixty days, a copy of these resolutions placed on the minute-book of the division, copies presented to the wife and parents of the deceased, and that they be published in the FREELAND TRIBUNE.

John J. Brogan, Charles C. Keenan, D. S. Buckley, Committee.

The employees of the Delaware, Susquehanna and Schuylkill Railroad Company have adopted the following resolutions of condolence: Whereas, It has pleased Almighty God in His infinite wisdom to call into Himself our beloved co-laborer, Thomas M. Tully, who departed this life April 26, 1895, and while we bow in humble submission to the will of Him who doeth all things for the best, we cannot help but regret the taking away of our departed friend in the full noonday of his manhood. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That we do hereby tender our most sincere sympathy to his bereaved parents and wife, and further be it

Resolved, That in the death of our beloved friend we have lost a true, kind and courteous co-employee, his parents a loving and dutiful son, his wife a loyal and affectionate husband and the com-
