A TRAVELER who has been through pine regions of the northwest the pule regions of the northwest says that the stockades in which less than ten years ago vice flourished in excess, and in which young women, lured from their homes, were imprisoned, have wholly disappeared. The modern lum-berman is an entirely different kind of a mon from what the lumberman wood man from what the lumberman used a man from what the lumberman used to be. One keeper of a stockade is now quoted at five hundred thousand dol-lars made in the ore region of Lake Su-perior. His past must make him feel uncomfortable.

On motion of Senator Kennedy the chairman was in-structed to have 3,000 subpeans printed. Although no announcement was made of the fact it is known that Silas W. He will be instructed to pre-pare the necessary papers in the case and will have everything in shape for the meet-ings of the committee. The committee adjourned to meet at the call of the chair. The Beginning of the Deadlock tigation. The Heginning of the Deadlock, Early Friday ovenling it was evident that the house and senate would become involved in a deadlock over the general appropriation bill. The fight began when the house objected to the two senate items in the bill—one for $30,000 to pay the ex-penses of the Penrose committee and the other one for $15,000 for the expenses of the committee appointed under the Ken-nedy resolution to inquire into the man-agement of the publics exhols of the state. The anti-Quay faction in the house, it seems, had for several days been setting up the job to defast this appropriation. When the house had refused to concur in the amendments to the general appropriation bill, including the two investigation items, Speaker Walton numed Messrs. Eiter, of Philadelphis; Marshall, of Allegheny, and Godilins, of Lycomity, as the conference com-mittee to get together to appreciate the hopelessness of their coming together. Three times during the course of the night was the house called to order to hear the report of the conference, with in-structions to maintain the hostile position of the house. The government desires to avoid giv-ing any needless irritation. It has, therefore, refrained from discussing Mr. Thurston's course. It is not therefore to be interpreted as consuring him, on the contrary, it is deeply sensible of Mr. Thurston's great fidelity and ability in his support at a critical period in Decem-ber, 1898, as well as on many other occa-sions when he was obliged to assume an ber, 1898, as well as on many other occa-sions when he was obliged to assume an attitude necessarily unpleasant to the Washington administration.
