Litkey Was Enraged Because Hit Presents Were Not Returned. Litkey Was Enraged Hecause Hi Presents Were Not Returned. Hyannis, Mass., June 11.—The quiet village of Oaterville was greatly excited yesterday oy the nurder of Lizzle Cole-man, 13 years of age, while on her way to school, by a German laborer named Henry Litkey, who afterward committed suicide by shooting. Litkey was a mar-ried man with a wife and three children in Germany and has been employed on the farm of Mrs. S. Leonard more or less of the time for the last six years. He was steady and honset and a faithful la-borer. For the last six months he has been infatuated with the Coleman girl and has spent considerable of his spare tima at the house of Mr. Coleman. His infatuntion was not noticed by the family of the girl until recently, when her parents forbade his coming to the house.

Wanted His Presents Returned.

He made the girl various presents fferent times, also made a present e mother. After his visits were fo the mother. After his visits were for-bidden he wanted the presents that he had made to the girl and her mother re-turned, which they refused to do, and that was what incited him to commit the terrible deed. He went repeatedly for the presents, but they refused to re-turn them.

Shot at the Boys First.

Shot at the Boys First. The girl with her two brothers started for school about 8:30. Litkey was in the habit of meeting her on the way to school for the purpose of speaking with her, and often intercepted her on her way home. He fired two shots at one of the boys, missing him, then asked him out of doors. Then Litkey turned to the girl and shot her twice, the first time through the mouth, the second shot taking effect in the back of her head or neck. He immediately turned the weapon upon himself, the ball passing through his head. Both probably died instantly. TO ENTER THE LECTURE FIELD.

ORTSHED BY AN ELEVATOR. A Teacher in the Y. W. C. A. Build-ing in Brooklyn Killed.

Ing in Brooklyn Killed. Brooklyn, N. Y., June 10.—Sarah Jane Lester, 40 years old, of Woodstock, Conn., a teacher in the Young Women's Christian association at Schermerhorn street and Flatbuah avenue, was in-stantly killed at 12.20 yesterday after-noon by having her head crushed between the first and basement floors whileriding in the elevator of the building. Just how the accident happened nobody seems to know. The supposition of the pollee is that John Owens, the janitor, left the elevator for a moment and that Miss Lester, in some unknown way, pulled elevator for a moment and that Miss Lester, in some unknown way, pulled the rope. As the elevator started up-wards she leaned out for the purpose of calling Owens. Her head struck the first floor, and before Owens could reach the rope she was caught and crushed to death, her head being horrible muti-lated.

Ohl and Cochrane in a Critcal Condition.

College Students Still Greatly Excited Over the Affair-John Collins, the Negro Who Is Charged with the Crime Locked Up in the Trenton

Jail---Threatened with Lynching.

Princeton, June 10.—The should get students Frederick Pierson Ohl and Gar-rett Cochrane, of the freshman class at Princeton college, Saturday night, by a negro named John Collins, still causes intense excitement among the other stu-dents in this town. The should go to place in an alley in front of the side en-trance to the Anderson hotel. Collins is a laborer, 26 years old. He had had words with the students and in a fit of rage drew a 22-callbre revolver and fited first at Ohl. then at Cochrane and again at Ohl. The bullet fired at Cochrane struck him in the mouth and traveled to the base of his right ear. Both of Ohl's wounds were in the stomach. The stu-dents in the stomach. The stu-dents dropped to the sidewalk and were quickly removed to the college hospital. Collins was placed under arrest by mar-shal R. B. Tyrell. He took his prisoner to the town lock-up, but had scarcely go thim incarcerated before word of the shooting reached every ear in Princeton and the students gathered on Nassau street by the hundreds. A report gaining circulation that both Ohl and Cochrane were dying, the stu-dents grew very excited and demands that the negro be lynched went up on every side. "Hang him, hang him," was an exclamation repeated frequently. At the lock-up it was heard that some of the students had procured a rope and warashing there in a body. Marshing Tyrell, fearing for the pris-oner's safety, handouffed him and re-moved him to a piece of woods about a quarter of a mile from the college and topt him to a piece of woods about a quarter of a mile from the college and topt him to a piece of woods about a quarter of a mile from the college and topt him to a piece of woods of hold.
