A Staunch Democrat Dead.

Soloman Bachert, of Chestnut street, died at his home yesterday morning at 3.35 o'clock, after an illness of nearly a month's duration. The deceased was one of the earliest residents of town, and was noted for his staunch adherence to Democratic principles. He was a veteran of the late war, and had a very good record as a soldier. He was a member of Silver Wave Lodge, Knights of Pythias, which society will attend the funeral in a body.

Mr. Bachert leaves a wife and four children, Joseph, William and Sarah, of Crawford City, Nebraska, and Frank, of Freeland; also two sisters, Mrs. Gearhardt, of Quakake, and Mrs. Rebecca Hartranft, of Ringgold, and one brother, Henry, of Beaver Meadow. Funeral announcement in another column.

For Troutman's Appointment.

A delegation from Hazleton and Freeland called on Governor Hastings on Friday and urged the appointment of George H. Troutman as judge of the common pleas court of Luzerne county in place of Judge Rice, promoted to the superior court bench. The party was made up of Joseph Neuberger, C. C. Stroth, Esq., Dr. F. Schilcher, D. J. McCarthy and Peter Timony, of Freeland, and J. F. McNair, Howard Pardee, E. W. Wilde, William Swartz and William Adams, of Hazleton. In it were represented friends and opponents of the new county bill.

Prominent West Pittston Man Dead.

James L. McMillan, a prominent resident of West Pittston, died of heart trouble on Saturday. He was born in Scotland and came here in 1854, settling at West Pittston. In 1883 he was elected by the Republicans to represent his district in the legislature. He was Burgess of Pittston for some time, treasurer of the Pittston Gaslight Company, vice president of the Miners' Savings Bank, president of the New York and Pittston Coal Company and treasurer of the grand lodge of the Knights of Honor.

Action Against School Directors.

The dissensions in the Minors Mills school board have at last been taken into court. An equity suit has been commenced by several citizens against Directors Robert Ayre, George Tasker, Henry Wilson, William Simon, Joseph Sharpe and Martin Richards to restrain them from conducting the business of the school board and to have their seats declared vacant. A preliminary injunction was granted by Judge Woodward and the hearing will take place today. The board is deadlocked.

Freeland People at Law.

Rose Richards, of Freeland, on Saturday appeared before Alderman Buchanan and swore out a warrant for the arrest of Mary Brislin. The prosecutor stated that on Friday the defendant met her in an alley, and at once attacked her with a pitchfork, inflicting several severe wounds in her hand, as well as badly bruising her cheek. Bail was entered before C. O. Stroth, until Wednesday next when the alderman will hear the case.

Pocahontas Officers.

Last week the state council, Degree of Pocahontas, at Reading, elected the following officers: President, Bessie Heuser, Philadelphia; first vice president, Emma Diemer, Pottsville; second vice president, Sophia V. Rogers, Easton; secretary, Mrs. J. D. Thomas, Wilkes-Barre; treasurer, Clara Bellows, Philadelphia. The next annual convention will be held in Harrisburg.

Costly, But It Pays.

A single page in an issue of the Century taken for advertising purposes, costs $500; in Harper's $400 down to $100. A yearly advertisement in one column of the New York Herald costs $40,000 for the lowest and $130,000 for the highest priced column. These figures will doubtless be of interest to men who invest $2 and $3 per month and flatter themselves with the idea that they are extensive and liberal advertisers.

POLITICAL PICKUPS.

Jos. P. McDonald today announces himself for recorder and he is already at work to secure the nomination. He feels confident that Democracy will win, notwithstanding the majority piled up last year against the ticket. Win or lose, however, he wants to see an aggressive campaign, and it certainly will be a hot and spirited one if Joe is given a place on the ticket. There is no one in the county who works harder for the ticket every year, and a nomination would be just recognition for his past services in behalf of the party.

A. Lee Stanton, of West Pittston, who while clerk of the courts made many friends among the people of Luzerne county, announces himself as a candidate for sheriff, and as the upper end will make a strong bid for recognition on the ticket Mr. Stanton's chances are among the best. He is a hard fighter, and aspirants for the same office must hustle to keep up with him.

George Lubrecht, of the Hazleton Standard, is spoken of for the nomination of recorder on the Democratic ticket. Mr. Lubrecht's name has stirred up a number of his friends, and they are anxious to be allowed to present his claims to the convention.

The latest candidate in the field for recorder is James J. Malloy, of town, one of the best-known young Democrats in the lower end. Since his announcement he is making a thorough canvass of the polling places of this section of the county, and he reports his prospects could not be better. Mr. Malloy says he is in the field to stay and will use every honorable means to obtain the nomination. His Democracy cannot be questioned, and this, with the popularity that his genial disposition has gained for him, will insure a good following in the convention.

HIGHLAND DOTS.

No. 3 stripping resumed operations on Monday, after several months' idleness. A large force of men has been placed at work under George McGee, of Freeland.

A new loche has been received here. It will be used for hauling coal to No. 2 breaker.

Charles Gallagher, of Brvanton, Freeland, fell from a cart at the stripping last week. He was injured internally and will be laid up for some time.

Are you thinking of getting a suit to order? Try Refowich, Freeland.

Suits to order, $12 and up, at Refowich's, Freeland.

Myers Has Entered Suit.

Architect Elijah J. Myers, of Detroit, who has the contract for Luzerne's court house, on Friday demanded the payment of the second $10,000 due him from the county. The commissioners refused payment and Myers at once filed papers and brought suit against the county for the amount. The commissioners paid Myers $10,000 on signing of the contract and agreed to pay him $10,000 on the delivery of the plans. They were delivered about two months ago, but the citizens had entered so many protests against the action of the commissioners that payment was postponed.

A short time ago action was commenced against the commissioners to prevent them paying the remainder of the money and it was at the hearing in the case that Chief Clerk Norris made sensational charges against the commissioners. Norris was taken sick for a month and has been in a private institution. He is now out again and the case will be continued. The payment of the second $10,000 will largely depend on the result.

It is supposed that Norris will be the first to be placed on the witness stand when the case is called up again. He will then have to deny his former testimony or continue on the sensational line that was such a prominent feature at the last day's hearing.

Two Bitten by Rattlesnakes.

Con Bannon and Henry Jacobs, of Pottsville, were bitten on Friday by rattlesnakes and both are now in a very precarious condition. Bannon and a friend were on a bicycle jaunt, and near Middleport they passed a large four-foot rattlesnake lying across the road. Bannon got off his wheel and struck the reptile over the head with a club. He thought it was dead and placed it in a bag which he hung over the handle of his wheel. When near home the snake revived and attempted to crawl out of the bag. Bannon made a grab for the reptile near the head and it turned and bit him in the fleshy part of the thumb.

Jacobs was bitten on the arm while picking huckleberries on the Broad mountain by a large rattler. Both young men drank large draughts of whiskey as an antidote against the poison and were taken home by carriage. Very slight hopes are entertained for their recovery.

E. Sunday school orchestra, and speeches by Dr. G. W. Miller, of New York, and Dr. Yocum, presiding elder of the Danville district.

This promises to be a great day for the M. E. Sunday schools of this region, and those failing to attend will miss a great treat. Round trip, children, 38c; adults, 60c.

A Correction.

Freeland, Pa., July 13, 1895.
The article published in the Freeland Press on Saturday, wherein it is stated that I refused to lease the opera house for the lecture by Rev. Kaminski, is not correct. I am quoted as saying that I could not let it to him and would cancel the contract as "a committee of Irishmen had called on him and stated that if the meeting were held bloodshed would result and wagon-loads of dead bodies would be removed." This is untrue in every particular. No such remarks were made by me to Rev. Kaminski or any other person, and the statement that I made them is an unqualified lie. I told Rev. Kaminski he could not have the hall because a lecture made against the pope "might cause trouble and I would not risk my property on that account." No other excuse was made or required. No committee called upon me. The hall was engaged by Rev. Kaminski to give a lecture in to help him along. He claimed his congregation was too small to support him and he wanted to get some more money, or else he would have to go back to the old country. He did not state what his lecture was when he hired the hall. If he had I would have refused him then. When I learned what he was to talk about I thought some trouble might take place and I went and told him, as stated above. I cancelled the contract of my own free will, and was not asked to do so by a committee or any other person.

TIGERS WIN ANOTHER.

THE HEAVYWEIGHTS OF THE STATE LEAGUE BEATEN AGAIN.

Pfecher Seyboldt, of Lancaster, Proves an Enigma to the Leaders in the State League's First Series—They Lose Hard and Finish in a Ridiculous Manner.

The Allentown club came to town yesterday with the firm determination to redeem their defeat of two weeks ago, but instead of accomplishing their purpose they fell again under the heavy hitting capacity of the Tigers. The visitors played quick and exciting ball in the early part of the game, making only one error up to the sixth inning. They played a fast game on the diamond, and the chasing which the fielders indulged in proved conclusively that they were in the game to win. However, they could not connect properly with Seyboldt's excellent delivery, and as a result they had no close chance of winning the game.

The Tigers batted remarkably strong, and "Jersey" Bakely's delivery had no terror for them whatever. They hit the ball when hitting meant runs, and hit strong enough to make the runs doubly sure. In the field they put up a first-class exhibition, and played winning ball in every inning. During the sixth inning they got their eye on the ball in a surprisingly accurate manner, and knocked in enough runs in this inning alone to win the game.

Up to this inning the visitors tried hard to win, but when the Tigers began to bat and distanced their opponents by fourteen runs, the professionals realized that they had little chance of winning against such a lead, and attempted to excuse their inability to get on top by fielding the ball carelessly, and thus making the game appear like a farce. However, their purpose was easily discovered, and they made themselves decidedly ridiculous in the eyes of the large audience for their babyish actions. The game closed with the Tigers away ahead, and at the gate they were playing it is safe to say that the peanuters could not dislodge them had they played nine innings more.

The hits of Honer, McGarvey and Mulvey, and the field work of Boner, McGeehan, Weikart and Baker were the features of the contest.

The score was as follows:

TIGERS	ALLENTOWN
Gillespie, c, 3 1 0 1 Dwyer, rf., 1 2 0 0 0	M'Garry, 3b., 2 1 0 0 Mulvey, 3b., 1 4 2 2 0

ON THE DIAMOND.

Allentown can play ball when they want to, and notwithstanding yesterday was one of the times they wanted to, they could not win, and their attempt to create the impression that they did not care to play was absurd in the extreme.

The Lancaster players were interested spectators yesterday. They will have an opportunity to show what is in them on the 28th inst.

Milligan could not play here yesterday. Today is pay day and he was busy arranging the finances of the club at Allentown.

Baltimore leads in the National league, Springfield in the Eastern and Carbonate in the State.

The Tigers have nine games won and eight lost. Percentage, 692.

At Beaver Meadow yesterday afternoon the Freeland Stars played an eight-inning game. The score was 6 to 6 when the clubs had to leave the field for two larger teams.

Dwyer's refusal to field Gillespie's hit in the sixth inning yesterday when the bases were full, thus allowing four runs, put a damper on the game which was not lifted for the remainder of the play.
