FREELAND, PA., THURSDAY, JULY 25, 1895.

$1.50 PER YEAR.

THE TICKET NOMINATED.

RESULT OF THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION ON TUESDAY.

Attorney McLean for Judge, Stanton for Sheriff, Malloy for Recorder, Fenner for Controller, Perkins for Coroner and Myers for Surveyor.

Those who predicted that the Democratic county convention this year would be a tame affair, compared with previous years, would have found it interesting enough while the nominations were being made at Wilkesbarre on Tuesday. The feeling of uncertainty that hovered over the Democracy of Luzerne was swept aside by the delegates when the convention opened, and if their eagerness to nominate the men of their choice was any indication of the enthusiasm that is to prevail, the voters of the county can look forward to an aggressive campaign on the Democratic side.

The convention was late in getting down to work. For the twenty-four hours previous to the time Chairman Smoulder called it to order there was a noticeable absence of the skirmishing and slate-making that has characterized Democratic conventions of the past. There was a "hitch" in the proceedings that was known to but a few. The candidates did not get their delegates together in old-time style, and the representatives of the 250 districts wandered about aimlessly. There seemed to be no one in command of the crowd, no one to give them instructions.

The delegates understood that a contest would be made for the position of sheriff, but further than that bare fact they could learn nothing. A few of them went to Music Hall in the morning and assisted the chairman and secretaries to organize temporarily. When the noon hour came the delegates looked for developments between that time and 2 o'clock.

Nothing occurred to cause more than a ripple of excitement. A feeble attempt was made to draw out John Elwood, of Hazleton, as a candidate for recorder. It is said this was a plan of a Wilkesbarre candidate for sheriff. The fourth district, however, stood solid for Malloy, and instead of breaking that delegation the rumor caused the lower end and upper end to consolidate their forces against the county seat influences.

Many of the uninstructed delegates, especially those who attended solely for the honor of carrying credentials to Wilkesbarre, favored an open revolt against all the candidates. They didn't believe, they said, in nominating men who failed to "see" them. This movement was also a failure. There were no barrels on tap. The candidates appeared to be satisfied to accept if the delegates placed their names on the ticket, but none of them made the slightest effort to buy their way.

Such was the state of affairs at 2 o'clock, when the delegates again started for Music Hall. Half an hour later the convention proper was called to order by Mr. Smoulder. The committee on organization reported in favor of P. A. O'Boyle as chairman and A. W. Jackson, Ray Vanhorn and T. C. Mullaly as secretaries. The report was adopted with cheers. Mr. O'Boyle took the chair after delivering one of his usual graceful addresses. The committee on contested seats followed with a report which was satisfactory to everybody.

Next came the resolutions, and these, it is suspected, caused the change of feeling in the delegates. They applauded the work of the committee as section after section was read, and forgetting everything but the fact that they were Democrats, assembled to nominate a winning ticket, they started off and made the convention one of the liveliest and longest held in some years.

The first office to be filled was that of additional law judge. William S. McLean, of Wilkesbarre, was tendered the nomination by acclamation and with plenty of enthusiasm.

For sheriff there were six candidates, as follows: Lawrence Casey, of Wilkesbarre township; A. Lee Stanton, of West Pittston; Henry Breuner, Nathan Dotter, C. Hart Sutton, of Wilkesbarre, and R. C. Hitchler, of Nanticoke. Below are the results of the five ballots which were necessary before a choice was made:

	1	2	3	4	5
Stanton.....	79	93	100	112	125
Dotter.....	57	54	46	75	102
Sutton.....	33	37	60	50
Hitchler.....	30	29	30
Breuner.....	25	23
Casey.....	17

During the voting there was much confusion. Delegates claimed that men in the audience were answering to other delegates' names, and the chairman at times had his hands full in trying to preserve order. The railroad men were working hard for Dotter, while the politicians were doing likewise for Stanton. The nomination, however, was made unanimous.

For recorder the names of James J. Malloy, of Freeland, and Charles J. Boyle, of Plymouth, were presented. The result was as follows:

Malloy.....	124
Boyle.....	75

The vote for controller was taken in the midst of even more confusion than was present when Stanton was nominated. There were three candidates, J. K. P. Fenner and Frank McCormick, of Ashley, and P. F. Herron, of Hazle township. The tellers announced the vote as follows:

Fenner.....	129
McCormick.....	36
Herron.....	2

For coroner there was another rush. The delegates appeared bound to make the proceedings interesting, and they hustled about for men they never saw or heard of. The candidates were Dr. W. W. Lewis, of Parsons; Dr. Carroll, of Plymouth; Dr. E. J. Butler, of John E. Perkins, of Wilkesbarre, and Dr. W. J. Renniman, of Avoca. Following was the vote announced:

Perkins.....	58
Renniman.....	22
Butler.....	15
Lewis.....	4
Carroll.....	4

H. E. Myers, of Pittston, was nominated by acclamation for county surveyor.

The Resolutions.

Whereas, It has been proved by long years of experience and trials of both parties in power, that a Democratic control of the administration of public trusts in Luzerne county has been both economical and just, therefore in view of the extravagance and recklessness displayed in the expending and proposed expenditures of public moneys by the Republican officials in control of the financial affairs of this great county, we call upon the voters of this county to give them a fitting rebuke by returning again to power the Democratic party, which has proved its honesty and ability in the past, and hereby pledge its candidates to an honest, faithful performance of the duties of the several offices to which they aspire.

Resolved, That the Democratic convention, of Luzerne county, in convention assembled, recognizes in the wonderful revival of industries everywhere, especially in the great state of Pennsylvania, the true vindication of the benefit of the Democratic tariff policy.

Resolved, That we have more reason than ever to approve and applaud the wisdom of Grover Cleveland in adhering to political doctrines that insure against national disaster, as already revealed in the operation of the Democratic tariff, and which are, as we believe, involved in his demand for sound money and an honest currency.

Resolved, That the legislature of Pennsylvania, recently assembled, proved by its selfish extravagance in providing for Republican place men; in its refusal to enact an apportionment law; its defiance of constitutional demands, and its neglect to pass upon many measures that would have cheered good and patriotic citizens, most recent to the trusts committed to its keeping.

Resolved, That the Democrats are in a majority in the great county of Luzerne, and that by presenting a united front to the enemy, we shall win a substantial victory, especially since the county is able to understand the important part played by the Democracy in the restoration of better times and in the general prosperity and confidence.

Resolved, That we pledge ourselves to a firm, loyal and unyielding support of the ticket this day nominated, promising to use our best influence to secure the election of every candidate, to the end that Democrats may be restored to their own in Luzerne county, and the party thus duly honored.

A Lecture on Tuesday Evening.

On Tuesday evening a lecture will be delivered at the opera house by Prof. J. T. Weart, Jr., of Washington, D. C. The subject will be "Matrimony," and the lecturer will treat it in all its phases. Prof. Weart comes highly recommended, and the gentlemen of Freeland and vicinity may not have another opportunity to hear this subject thoroughly explained for many years. The admission price has been placed at 25 cents, a very small sum indeed, when the amount of advice and information received is taken into consideration. For further information see the posters displayed about town.

Lost!

A small boy about the size of a man. When last seen was walking down Main street, carrying in his hand an empty satchel which contained one of Refowich's custom made suits. Any information regarding the boy will be kindly received by his parents, who are both dead.

Examination of Teachers.

An examination of teachers for Foster township will be held in the Woodside school house, Friday, July 26, at 9 o'clock sharp. None but applicants for schools in Foster township will be admitted to the class. Joseph B. Gabrio, Superintendent of schools.

A Few More Girls

Wanted to learn the tailoring trade at Refowich's, Freeland.

A Scientific Answer.

An intelligent boy in the national school of a large and popular town in Lancashire on being examined, among others, by the commissioner, was asked: "Do you know any of the effects of heat and cold?"

"Yes, sir; heat expands and cold contracts."

"Good, my boy—you have answered well; now an example."

"Why, sir, the days in midsummer are the longest and in winter the shortest"—Once a Week.

Practical Arithmetick.

The lesson was in multiplication, and the teacher sought to impress upon little Johnnie that three times two and two times three amounted to the same thing.

"Now," said she, "if you could have two bags with three oranges in each or three bags with two oranges in each, which would you choose?"

"The three bags with two oranges in each," replied Johnnie, without hesitation; "then I'd have one more bag to bust."—Golden Days.

Not Like Other Men.

She—Papa's chief objection is that we could hardly get along on your small salary.

He—But I have a splendid digestion, and am perfectly willing you should do the cooking.—Life.

An Advised Silence.

He—Darling, my salary has been raised five hundred a year, but you mustn't tell your father.

She—Why not?

He—He might get the idea that I could support you.—Brooklyn Life.

How She Knew.

He—I'm going to ask your father to-night.

She—I supposed so.

"Why?"

"I see you're not wearing your best trousers."—Life.

Hard to Understand.

"I don't understand it very well," said Walter, after struggling for a long time with his father's pencil. "There's lots of writing left in this pencil, but I can't get it out; it only makes marks."—Harper's Young People.

The Only Explanation.

Sapphig—I have been married over ten years and my wife has never yet uttered a cross word to me.

Happig—Gad, old fellow! I had no idea you married a deaf mute.—Truth.

A Much Needed Explanation.

Clara—I love my husband.

Clara—So do I.

Clara—1 2 1 2 1 2

Flora (hastily)—I mean mine.—Texas Siftings.

Want Coal Prices Advanced.

The United Mine Workers of America have petitioned the coal operators of the Wyoming valley to advance the price of coal in order that the operators may be in a better position to give the miners an increase of wages. Attention is called to the fact that while some of the necessities of life have advanced in prices the past year, the wages of miners has been reduced. The operators are asked to attend a conference to be held at Pottsville. The coal operators say the deplorable condition of the coal trade will not warrant an increase of miners' wages and they all decline to attend the conference. It is not apprehended that their refusal will cause a strike.

Two Lives in Danger.

While Anthony Goderelli, an Italian musician, was being tantalized by street arabs in Shamokin Monday evening, he drew a revolver and fired at his tormentors. The bullet missed the boys and struck Mrs. Horinecker in the side, but only emboded itself in one of her steel corset stays. Dominic Morelli, another resident of Little Italy, remonstrated with his countryman about shooting, and as Goderelli again pulled his gun he knocked him down with a pickhandle. His skull was fractured and he was sent to the miners' hospital in a critical condition. Morelli was sent to prison to await the result of his victim's injuries.

Foster School Board.

The township school board held a special meeting on Monday evening for the purpose of hearing the recommendations of the directors relative to repairs necessary to the school buildings. The board decided to paint four of the school buildings and appointed Messrs. Meneely, Richards and Boyle as a committee to decide which of the buildings are most in need of this improvement. The board also decided to make all other necessary repairs before the opening of the school term. Superintendent Gabrio will hold an examination of applicants for schools in the township on Friday at the Woodside school house.

Poison as a Panacea for Trouble.

Rendered desperate by thinking that her husband would rather take the hired girl to a party than herself, the wife of John Art, of Rausch Gap, near Shamokin, took poison on Tuesday night and now she is dead. Art is proprietor of the largest hotel in that vicinity. There was a social gathering to occur and the hotel man and his wife were invited. So was the hired girl. Mrs. Art wanted to go, but instead of taking her she escorted the domestic. When he returned home Art found his wife writhing in agony from the effects of poison she had taken. The women died.

Compulsory Law Suspended.

Attorney General McCormick has delivered an opinion to the department of public instruction that substantially suspends the operations of the compulsory education law for one year. The technical ground on which the attorney general suspends the operations of the law is that the assessors are required at the spring assessment to assess all children between the ages of eight and thirteen years, and the county commissioners are required to certify the names to the secretary of the school district. This was not done last spring.

Got In with a Trolley Party.

The excursion car of the Lehigh Traction Company came to town on Monday evening with a merry party of young ladies and gentlemen from Hazleton. When leaving the lower end of Centre street the car was flagged by a Hungarian woman from Jeddo, who created a little excitement by running several blocks to catch up with it. The woman's adventure was enjoyed by the party and she was permitted to ride amidst the bunting and colored lights until the car proceeding was reached, when she was transferred.

Band Officers Elected.

At a meeting of St. Patrick's cornet band on Monday evening the following were elected as officers for the coming year: President—William Dogget. Vice president—John Johnson. Recording secretary—F. H. McGroarty. Financial secretary—John McCallih. Treasurer—P. J. Duffy. Trustees—F. H. McGroarty, Thomas Gallagher, Thomas McLaughlin.

Excursion to New York City.

Several persons of town intend to accompany the excursion which will be run to New York city by the Wilkesbarre Father Mathew Temperance Society on August 6. During the week the convention of the Catholic Temperance Union will be held there. The fare for the round trip is $4.50. Tickets are good for ten days. The train will leave here at 9:33 a. m.

Thos. Birkbeck hereby announces himself as a candidate for delegate to the Republican district and county conventions from the Northwest district of Foster township.
