

ALL ON BOARD LOST

Many Italians Go Down with a Steamer.

One Hundred and Seventy-Eight Passengers, Besides the Crew on Board the Ill-fated Steamer Ortigia When She Collided with the Marion P.—Thrilling Scenes.

Spezia, Italy, July 23.—A terrible accident occurred near the mouth of the Gulf of Spezia yesterday afternoon. The steamers Ortigia and Marion P ran into each other, and the latter was so badly damaged that she sank in a very short time. She had on board, in addition to her crew, 178 passengers from Naples, all of whom were drowned.

Terrible Scenes on Board.
The scene on board the sinking steamer defies description. The passengers were panic-stricken and rushed hither and thither, calling upon the saints to save them. The steamer, it is said, filled so rapidly that it was impossible to cast free and launch the small boats on board of her or on the Ortigia.

In the Dark of Night.
The night was pitch dark when the collision occurred and most of the passengers were asleep in their bunks at the time, and were awakened by the crashing of the steamer's planks, deck beams and deck planks. They were panic-stricken and rushed pell-mell on deck.

Some Jumped Overboard.
From the reports of the disaster received here it is impossible to determine whether any attempt was made by the Marion P. to clear away and launch her small boats, to attempt to rescue the passengers, but, judging from the accounts given by the excited survivors, it is surmised that the steamer went down too quickly to allow of this being done, though one boat got away. The blackness of the night added to the terror of those on board, and it is understood that some of the passengers, crazed with fear, jumped overboard.

A BLOODY PERIOD.
Several Murders Among the Mountaineers Around Sergeant, Ky.

New York, July 21.—A special from Sergeant, Ky., says: It seems as though the mountaineers around Sergeant have murdered in their hearts for the past forty-eight hours. For ten days the wildest distilleries have been running in full blast. At Fish Trap John Mateny shot and killed William Thacker. Thacker was whipping his sister with a rawhide when Mateny interfered. Thacker then turned on Mateny. Mateny shot him dead. Mateny is out on $5,000 bond. Both men were drunk when the assault on his sister.

Murder in a Ballroom.
At Quicksand, Friday afternoon, Dick Oliver stabbed Sam Fitzpatrick to death. They were at a dance and whiskey flowed freely. It seems that Oliver captured one of the young ladies from Fitzpatrick. By this time both had become thoroughly drunk they met in the ballroom. There were but few words. Oliver drew a dirk from his bosom and stabbed Fitzpatrick, who died on the ballroom floor in ten minutes. Oliver escaped and is now hiding somewhere in the mountains. A large posse is in pursuit.

Two Other Murders.
On Peter Creek not far from here, James Smith and Friday shot and killed Robert A. Coleman. It was the result of a feud which has been existing between the two families ever since the war. Smith gave himself up and is now in jail. At a picnic near here Friday William Tuoy shot and killed Thomas Bailey. The cause of the last affray is not known.

FERDINAND TOO MERRY.
His Actions Since Stambuloff's Death Cause a Scandal.

London, July 23.—The Standard publishes a dispatch from Carlbad confirming the stories of the crime as displayed by Prince Ferdinand of Bulgaria since the assassination of M. Stambuloff. His actions have caused much scandal among the visitors at Carlbad, and once he was hissed.

Mobbed the Empire.
Quincy, Ill., July 20.—At the close of yesterday's Peoria-Quincy game some one yelled "Lynch the umpire!" and in an instant 500 men rushed upon the diamond. The Peoria players surrounded the umpire, Frank Heath, of Pontiac, Ill., and with their bats held the crowd off until the police arrived. Several blows landed on Heath, but they were not of a serious character.

Li's Probable Successor.
London, July 20.—The Standard will tomorrow publish a dispatch from Berlin saying that in the event of the early retirement of Li Hung Chang, the Chinese statesman, it is probable that his successor will be Wang Wen Shon, Tao-tai of Hankow. Wang Wen Shon is an able and impartial official. He follows the policy of Li Hung Chang.

SEGWICK'S HORRIBLE SUICIDE

New York Man Ends a Parasitic Debauch by Cutting His Throat.

Paris, July 21.—Clarance W. Sedgwick, of New York, committed suicide in a hotel in the Rue Richer yesterday by cutting his throat. Mr. Sedgwick was a manufacturing jeweler. He left New York on the steamer Auraria on June 15 in company with a man said to be George Hurd, of the Hurd & Whiting Paper Manufacturing company. He was married and about 35 years of age.

Turned Out of Hotels.
He arrived from London on Monday last and squandered his money in cafes and other places, his conduct causing such a scandal that he was turned out of two hotels. The room in which he was found presented a horrible appearance. The body was found in an adjoining dressing-room, with the head almost severed from the trunk. Mr. Sedgwick had got up and tried to cut his throat with a razor. Not inflicting a fatal wound, he dragged himself along the floor to the dressing-room, where, with another razor, he again slashed his throat with such force that he broke the handle of the razor. The sum of 15,000 francs was found upon his person.

THESE BOYS WERE GIRLS.
Two Runaways from Chicago Found Working as Waiters.

New York, July 20.—Two Chicago girls, who have been masquerading at Glen Island for a week as men, were discovered yesterday by their father in a decidedly unexpected and dramatic manner. About a week ago there came to New Rochelle what appeared to be two nicely dressed young men on bicycles. They spent most of the day in town, and then took the ferry to Glen Island and applied for work.

Discovered by Their Father.
Yesterday an elderly man occupied a table in the cafe. One of the supposed young men waiters started to wait on him, but with a scream dropped a tray and ran out of the room. The head waiter was profuse in his apologies and said he would discharge the man. "Man!" exclaimed the old gentleman. "She's no man; she's my daughter, Matilda. Where's her sister?" They were discovered in their room locked in each other's arms. They will return to Chicago with their father.

DIPHTHERIA EPIDEMIC.
Many Persons Ill from Water Drank at a Picnic.

Canonsburg, Pa., July 20.—A week ago last Thursday the First Presbyterian church held a picnic in Johnson's grove. Since then there has been an epidemic of diphtheria, and there are now some forty cases. It is believed the sickness was caused by the water or something eaten by those who attended the picnic. Dora Franz, aged 16 years, one of those who attended the picnic, died last evening of diphtheria. Several others have been very ill, but are improving.

Fifty Mile Bicycle Record.
London, July 20.—Chase, the bicycle rider, yesterday rode fifty miles on roads to the north of London in 2 hours and 5 seconds, beating the record.

WHEELS AND RIDERS.

MRS. ELIZABETH CADY STANTON says that "women are riding to suffrage on a bicycle."

CHAPEERONS who can ride bicycles are in great demand in all of the large cities of the country.

DOCTORS have declared that the heart of Zimmerman, the famous bicycle rider, is fully two inches longer than the average size of hearts.

W. D. BACHELOR, of Cornell college, Iowa, has gone on a trip, with two companions, through Europe, Egypt and Palestine on wheels. They expect to pay expenses by corresponding with papers, the three having a list of forty-seven.

C. F. PARIGON was the first man seen on a bicycle in Richmond, Va. He visited his old home in Paris about 1871, and brought a very tall wheel back with him. A conservative estimate of wheels in actual use in Richmond would be two thousand.

REV. MR. FAIRBANKS, an American missionary in India, attributes a large part of his success to the use of a bicycle. Not only is he enabled to cover a more extensive territory with it, but the natural curiosity of the natives brings large crowds to see "a horse that needs neither grass nor grain."

If women bicyclers will have the saddle directly over the pedals and so high that when the pedal is down the foot must be bent to reach it, they will make a much more graceful appearance. This will, of course, make mounting somewhat more difficult, but the objectionable knee action will be less obtrusive.

ODD AND OTHERWISE.
A circus performance was in progress at Eagle, Wis., when a violent rainstorm deluged the earth. The circus manager thought the tent would be blown down and drove out the audience.

Some of the Philadelphia organ grinders employ nice little colored girls to accompany them on their street tours, and the children amuse the spectators by giving skirt dances.

THOMAS G. F. DOLBY, of Elgin, Ill., is in business there, and keeps a general store, with the aid of seventeen partners. The style of his firm is "Dolby & Seventeen Sons." He is the father of twenty-one children.

MR. W. I. SMITH, a White Plains (N. Y.) business man, did not take a single holiday for ten years. But the other week he was induced to stop work for one day and enjoy himself at the seashore. He went in bathing and was drowned.

A VETERINARY SURGEON in Van Buren, Mo., was called a few days ago to find the reason and remedy for an odd hard bunch on a horse's shoulder. He located the swelling and found in the center of it a silver dime. The corner grocery clubs are now busy with the question: How did it get there?

THE STAGE.
W. S. GILBERT is coming to New York soon to superintend the production of "His Excellency."

MRS. PATRICK CAMPBELL and Mr. Forbes Robertson will open the Lyceum season in London next September with "Romeo and Juliet."

SARAH BERNHARDT has been fined $2 in a Paris police court for employing two children under 12 after 9 o'clock at night at the Renaissance theater.

LONDON is about to see the earl of Rosslyn on the stage as a professional card. The first earl of Rosslyn earned the title by being lord high chancellor under William IV.

WERNER HENRY IRVING was knighted the members of the Comedie Francaise held a meeting and sent him an address of congratulation, signed by Jules Claretie, the administrator, Monnet Sully, the doyen, and all the societaires.

At the first ten performances of "Demi Vierges," as nasty a play as Paris has ever seen, at the Gymnase, 52,724 francs were taken at the door, a sum that has only been exceeded at that theater in 1887 by "L. Abbe Constanten," one of the cleanest of modern French comedies.

FACTS AND FIGURES.
"Fiasco" means a bottle or flask. When the Italian glassblowers detected flaws in the vase they were blowing, they made an ordinary bottle of the failure, and hence the name.

The area of the British colonies is 8,000,000 square miles, that of the French 3,000,000, of the Dutch 650,000, of the Portuguese 200,000, of the Spanish 170,000, of the German 99,000, and of the Danish 74,000.

The thumb, according to professional palmists, is an unerring index to the mind. If a person is trying to deceive you, he will invariably draw his thumb in toward the palm. On the other hand, if he is telling the truth, the thumb will relax and point away from the palm.

The powder used in big guns is queer looking stuff. Each grain is a hexagonal prism, an inch wide and two-thirds of an inch thick, with a hole bored through the middle of it. In appearance it resembles nothing so much as a piece of wood. If you touch a match to it, it will take seven or eight seconds to go off.

IN LONDON TOWN.
The flower trade of London is estimated to amount to $25,000 a day.

In Southwark, London, an odd hostelry, "The Crossed Keys," is about to be torn down, which belonged to John Harvard in 1637, before he emigrated to America.

It is claimed that, owing to the good work done by the Improved Industrial Dwelling company, of London, the death rate of that city has been reduced from forty to only eleven in a thousand.

This pathetic but belated appeal appeared in the London Times the other day: "Would the gentleman speak yet again, who said in London, 1864, that he loved me, and then that he was thrown over? All remembered. Parents are dead. E. D. C."

THE WILLIMANTIC SCANDALS.

The Dime Savings Bank's Assets. No News of the Missing Cashier.

Willimantic, Conn., July 23.—There is a good deal of excitement here over the defalcation and disappearance of Cashier Walden, of the Dime Savings bank, and nothing but rumors regarding his whereabouts. The vaults at the bank were opened yesterday and a search was made for securities and cash. This resulted in placing the deficit at $20,900, at the least calculation. Railroad bonds amounting to $11,000, mortgage bonds of $6,500, a cash deposit of $4,400, and $5,000 additional are all gone. When the First National bank failed, Walden opened an account at the First National bank in Hartford. He deposited there $46,000 in securities and drew $25,000 in cash for use at the Dime Savings bank. Later he returned to the National bank of Hartford $20,000 and retained $5,000, which has disappeared. It is learned that the bank is closed. It is learned that the Windham National bank in this city and a large deposit at the Hartford Trust company, both of which are safe and will materially swell the assets.

A 12-YEAR-OLD MURDERER.
Raymond Barnes Shoots Ward Camp, Aged 11, at Winsted.

Winsted, Conn., July 23.—Ward, the 11-year-old son of L. L. Camp, a prominent business man, was shot by Raymond Barnes at the latter's home yesterday afternoon. Barnes aimed a .32-caliber revolver at Camp and pulled the trigger, the bullet entering Camp's head over the bridge of the nose and lodged in the base of the brain. The doctor says there is little hope of the boy's recovery. After Barnes did the shooting he ran and hid. Barnes did not see the boy until he was found in a yard and Raymond told him to get off the ladder. Ward refused and Raymond went into the house, got his father's gun and, after shooting, said: "Take that! You Barnes boy is very reticent and says he did not know the weapon was loaded."

TRAGEDY AT A DANCE.
A Moonshiner Shot Dead and a Man and Wife Mortally Hurt.

St. Louis, July 23.—A special from Gallatin, Tenn., says that there was a dance given at Speakville, in the northern portion of the county, Saturday night. Wes Dixon and his wife attended. They were disliked by the people there and were ordered from the grounds and withdrew to a wooded grove. Here Dixon was attacked by Bill Davidson, a moonshiner, and shot the latter dead. Dixon and his wife then ran into the bushes, pursued by seven or eight men, firing as they ran. Dixon fell, his bullet in his body. His wife received a bullet in her hip that will likely prove fatal, while Dixon is expected to die.

NOT NEAR THE INDIANS

Word Received from the Princeton Students.

They Were Seventy-five Miles from the Scene of the Bannock Troubles on July 14 and Fast Increasing the Distance—Indians Swarming into Jacksons Hole Country.
Philadelphia, July 23.—Apprehension in this city for the safety of the Princeton student geological exploring party has been dispelled by the receipt of a postal card from L. Frederick Pease, a member of the party, by his parents in which he stated that the students are well and have had no trouble from the Indians.

Far from the Indians.
The parents of Mr. Pease reside in Germantown and the postal card received was dated Dubois, Wyo., July 14, and contained the following: "Am going through to Yellowstone park, where we arrive Friday, and crossing the park, John Othman and I return to Chicago via Northern Pacific from Cincinnati. We will arrive home about the same time as formerly expected. Am well, as are all. The mountains are covered with snow, and we have to cross through it. Don't worry about the Bannock Indian troubles. They are seventy-five miles from here, and we are daily leaving them far behind. Goodby till Friday."

No Fears for Their Safety.
Mrs. Pease stated to-day that she had no fears for the safety of her son. "We have received letters from Fred at regular intervals since his departure. This postal, if nothing else, would dispel any fears that I might have had for the safety of my son. His plan was to leave the party on their arrival at Yellowstone park, where they were to have arrived on the 19th inst. and in company with Mr. Garrett and Mr. Othman travel through Yellowstone park in advance of the party so as to get home on the 26th, as he sails for Europe on the 31st. The rest of the party will not get home until August 1, and this would be too late for my son."

After the Settlers Only.
Washington, July 23.—From letters received in Washington from the party of students now in the Bannock country it is learned that the party were safe two days after the Indian troubles began, and were heading for the Yellowstone park. Three members of the party, L. F. Pease, of Germantown, Pa.; John Garrett, of Baltimore, and the third, name unknown, have left the party for New York city en route to Europe. Commissioner of Indian Affairs Brown said to-day that the Indians would not molest the students. The settlers who were preventing their hunting were the only people the Indians were after.

Thousands of Coko ovens were drowned out by the torrent of water and at many mines extra pumps had to be put to work in order to keep the workings from being flooded. At Bradford, two miles west of here, several houses were washed away. Two bridges of the Mount Pleasant branch were swept away and traffic is blocked. The damage to crops is great.

Atlantic City Casino Disaster.
Atlantic City, N.
