The com-pany intends to equip its whole line.

The Military Entertainment. The Military Entertainment. The opera house was well-filled on Saturday evening when Attorney Stroh opened the entertainment of the Free-land Rifles. Mr. Stroh briefly outlined the objects of the company and the spirit that induces men to enter such organi-zations, and during his remarks referred to the efforts of the cohans to gain free-dom, and his sympathy with them was heartily concurred in by the audience. Among the numbers on the programme which were well received were the songs of the Haleton Giee Club, the singing of the Misses Hess, the recitation of Miss Mame Edmunds and the camp scene at night. Captain Halberstad and Sergeant Bushar, of the Eighth regiment, of Pottsville gave an interest-ing exhibition of the work of the signal corps.
