No Vote Taken at the Republican senatorial Caucus.

Washington, Jan. 4.—The republican senatorial caucus yesterday afternoon was not fruitful in results. Beyond the understanding, reached without a vote, that when the opportunity presented itself Mr. Frye should be placed in nomination as the party's candidate for president pro tempore nothing was done. There seems to be a disposition to put off the further reorganization of elective officers of the body until the new senators from Utah arrive. The caucus was of short duration.

AWAITING OUTSIDE AID

When It Arrives Gomez Will Attack Havana.

The Caban Patriot General 1 ported To Have Secured alSea Base-Secret Intelligence of Reinforcements by Sea-Reward Of-

Havana, Jam. 14.—The Spaniards are "all at sea" as to the movements of Gomez. One dispatch, allowed to be published here, would have it believed that his army is cut in two, another that he has begun a retrograde movement to Matauzas, and ultimately te Santa Clara and Santiago. It will be found, when the true reports are allowed publicity, that, as predicted, Gen. Gomez has secured sea base at either Cabanas or Baha Honda, whence he will turn and attack Havana. He has had some secret intelligence of reinforcements by sea, either from Florids or Mexico, and has made every exertion to meet them. If, as he expected, the vessels with needed munitions arrived at one of the ports on the northern coast, say Bahia Honda, Cabanas or Port Mariel, then most exciting news may be expected from Havana within the week. The great lack of the patrict forces has been artillery and ammunition for heavy guns. This lack the expected arrivals will supply. Then, and not till then, when Gen. Gomez has placed himself in readiness for the assault, he will advance upon the city.

Gomez's Superb Generalship.

He has played with Campos as a cat plays with a mouse. He has never yet made a single mistake, His onward march has been unretarded, netwithstanding the obstacles the Spaniards have attempted to throw in his way. He has shown himself possessed of caution, endurance and forbearance. The Spaniards are offering rewards for Gomes's head, for the delivary of the brave patriot, dead or alive, within the shawe have behaved themselves temperately and with great forbearance. They have wen the respect of their enemies as well as the admiration of their friends. As far as can be learned here, Gen. Maximo Gomez is moving westward and northward, as if for this city, and his able coadjutor, Macco, is at the port of Bahia Honda. This confirms the prediction that the patriots were aiming to secure a deep-water port eather northern coast, where they cas hold against any ordinary assault by land.
