Value of Newspaper Advertising. From Profitable Advertising. The newspaper in its capacity as an advertising agent is of the first importance to any civilized society, inasmuch as it brings together those who have something to buy and those who have something to sell.

LEHIGH VALLEY RAILROAD. August 17, 1896. Anthracite coal used exclusively, insuring cleanliness and comfort. ARRANGEMENT OF PASSENGER TRAINS. LEAVE FREELAND.

ARRIVE AT FREELAND. 7:30, 7:55, 8:20, 10:50, 11:15 a. m., 12:38, 2:30, 5:15, 6:45 p. m., from Hazleton, Stockton, Lumber Yard, Jeddo and Drifton.

Gaining in Practical Results. From the Wilkesbarre Leader. When McKinley was nominated at St. Louis last June there was scarcely a Republican in the United States that did not feel absolutely certain of success, and a large portion, if not an actual majority of the Democrats, conceded his election.

A Good Year for Graham. With big-headed articles the Philadelphia newspapers last Thursday heralded the re-appearance in that city of District Attorney Graham. The space they devoted to an account of his trip makes one wonder why they never referred to his departure or his absence.

PERSONAL MENTION.

AMBASSADOR Bayard has bought a $500 horse from a duchess, and rides daily in Rotten row. This summer marks the 25th anniversary of President Julius D. Dreher's connection with Roanoke college, Salem, Va.

When Herr Andree starts from Spitzbergen for the north pole in his balloon, it will be in the presence of a crowd of personally conducted excursionists, as the tourist agencies are advertising Spitzbergen tours for July.

It is rumored in English official circles that Prince Alexander of Teck is anxious to join the Sudan expedition. It is unlikely, however, in view of the death of Prince Henry of Battenberg, that he will be able to obtain the queen's consent.

Thomas G. Alvord, of Syracuse, so widely known as "Old Salt," is still an enthusiastic fisherman. "I caught my first fish," he said recently, "when I was about eight years old. I guess I have slaughtered a good many thousand since that time, for only six years ago I kept a record of my catch during one season, and it reached a total of 5,200."

Every British soldier costs his country $400 every year. The height of the rock of Gibraltar is estimated to be 1,437 English feet. Nearly ten per cent. of the recipients of the Victoria cross are military doctors.

The French have done a thing the like of which has not been done since 1870. They have allowed the German naval attaché in Paris, Capt. Siegel, to inspect the dockyard at Brest.

An idea of the possibilities of the latest guns may be had from the fact that a six-inch hooped gun made at Newcastle, England, has been fired with a charge of cordite with a muzzle velocity of 4,928 feet per second. High explosive shells have proved so successful with quick-firing breech loaders in the French experiments that the British admiralty has already supplied the Channel fleet with them and will soon provide shells for the whole navy.

A woman signing herself "A Colonel's Wife" recently wrote a letter to one of the large London dailies in which she seriously proposes that, should the prophecies of war against England be realized, the duties of the army in the rear might be successfully performed by women orderlies. She declares that she "is ready to assist in the organization of a woman's cycling corps to help resist her country's enemies."

BY THE FUNNY MEN. "What a heap of style Jimmie Watson's wife throws on." "Oh, yes; Jimmie started a bicycle repair shop last week."—Cleveland Plain Dealer. "Decided."—"Why did Constance refuse young De Riche?" "He deceived her. He told her he was worth a million, when in reality he is worth two millions."—Detroit Free Press.

MUSIC AND LETTERS. English popular songs are at present heard a great deal in Paris cafes. M. Sardou is writing a play for Henry Irving upon a subject chosen by the actor. Coppee and Widor's ballet, "La Korrigane," has reached its 100th performance at the Paris grand opera.

At a recent bull fight in Madrid the matador was mounted on a bicycle. The animal made a dash at him, the matador failed to turn quickly enough, and wheel and rider were tossed high in the air. The rider was only slightly hurt, but the wheel was utterly wrecked.

FOR SPARE MOMENTS.

Every person over five years of age in Storbach, Austria, is a chess player. The game is taught in the schools. It is said to be possible to draw platinum wires so fine that two of them twisted could be inserted in the hollow of a human hair.

Virginia has just enacted a law making it a misdemeanor to sell intoxicants to any student of an educational institution in that state. The life insurance companies have reason to regret the decease of Hamilton Diston, of Philadelphia. He carried $1,100,000 insurance.

A new globe, for all kinds of lights, increases the illuminating power ten per cent. It is grooved vertically inside and horizontally outside. Senator Wolcott, of Colorado, can do what few men can do. He can shave with a razor in each hand, and simultaneously write with two pens.

The natives of Africa gorged themselves with watermelon as early as 2500 B. C. The fruit grows wild all over the country. The most costly tomb in existence is that which was erected to the memory of Mohammed. The diamonds and rubies used in the decorations are worth $10,000,000.

When a Russian family moves from one house to another it is customary to rake all the fire from the hearth of the old domicile and carry it in a closed pot to the new residence. The bridal veil of a Japanese young lady is subsequently used as her shroud. Just after the marriage it is carefully put away and reserved until death makes its use again necessary.

Readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and in its catarrh. Hall's catarrh cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease requires a constitutional treatment.
